

Miss Erma R. Pyrtle returned Friday from the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Hill, held last Wednesday at Lexington. She has the sympathy of her student friends in her bereavement.

Dr. H. K. Wolfe has an article in the Psychological Review for January entitled Some Effects of Size on Judgments of Weight. The material for this article was obtained from work in our laboratory.

Hereafter there will be an inspection of the University Regiment on the last Friday of every month. When the weather permits this will take place on the "parade grounds" and be followed by a "review" of the two battalions.

Prof. Caldwell and Chancellor MacLean are among the instructors for the coming year in the Chicago Record's Home Study School. Prof. Caldwell will write the articles on Civics and Chancellor MacLean on Literature. Among the other instructors are Edward Everett Hale, David Starr Jordan and Brandt Matthews.

Prof. Willard Kimball, director of the University school of music, was in Omaha the first part of the week making preparation for the music at the Exposition. Prof. Kimball has entire charge of the department of music for the Exposition. Every student and friend of the University is pleased to know that Director Kimball has been appointed musical director of the great Exposition. He has built up a splendid school here; he has raised the musical standard of Lincoln. The University is proud of him.

The committee on the Senior Class Book is now ready for business. With George Burgett as chairman of the editing committee, every thing can be expected to be put up in first class style. With this book quality is to be the main feature. The engraving work is to be of the very best. Not a single poor half tone picture will be put in the book. Harry Gage is to be chief man with the artist's pen. "Doc" Everett has also promised to give some of his best work. Mr. Cutter reports good progress in the business management. At a meeting of the committees on Class Book and Class Play last Friday both reported good progress.

The commandant makes the following announcement: "A prize of twenty-five dollars in gold and an appropriate certificate will be presented by the Farmers and Merchant's Insurance Co. of Lincoln, Nebraska, to the cadet, non-commissioned officer or private of the Nebraska University Regiment showing:

1. Best military record, which will count 25.
2. Most soldierly and correct military appearance, which will count 25.
3. The greatest proficiency in drill in an open public competition in the school of the soldier, which will count 50. The maximum score will be 100 points.

This prize is to be awarded by a competent committee appointed by the Chancellor.

JOHN M. STOTSENBURG,
1st Lieut. 6th Cavalry, Commandant.

Among the Greeks.

Out of politics.

In the hands of their friends.

The Delta Tau Delta's initiated Guy Barnes Saturday evening and closed with a feed.

R. C. Saxton '97, came up to hear Scalchi (?) Monday.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity pledged R. E. Benedict Friday evening.

Mr. Hendreson circulated among the Greeks last week taking orders for fraternity jewelry.

Miss Wright who has been visiting Pi Beta Phi friends left for Schuyler Thursday.

C. H. True was unable to attend classes this week because of sickness.

Dr. Chandier gave an interesting talk to the Betas Friday night.

H. C. Parmalee '97, Phi Delt, of Beatrice, visited University friends Saturday.

E. R. Morrison '98, Alpha Tau Omega, has accepted a position as traveling salesman for an eastern bicycle firm. He will be on the road about four weeks when he will return to take his degree.

At the end of this semester Phil. Russell will sever his connections with the University. Mr. Russell will visit the remainder of the winter with his parents in Omaha. Next summer he expects to go to New York to engage in business. He will be especially missed in social circles.