

divine charity and spiritual tenderness will place on the downward path of the applicant for brotherhood. We wonder how many practical, soul-stirring jokes they will play on him before he may rightfully turn his steps toward East Lincoln, that Mecca of his hopes.

Will they say grace every time they sit down for a game of poker? Will all utter a fervent "Amen" as Billie Axling or Tommy Lunn rakes in the jack-pot? Will they all utter fervent thanks as the servant passes around the beer in good sized glasses? What a gymnast Ollie Chambers will be in his first waltz. (Alas! the poor body!) Will gentle Petie Thompson murmur his love ditties in the ear of some pretty but proud "frat" girl?

All of these legitimate questions come to us in our meditations and we find no answer. All of which bring to our mind the celebrated saying of a certain man named Christ, "Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Jim Fechet has been appointed first sergeant of Co. B to succeed Geo. Shedd.

Mr. A. J. Weaver '95, of Falls City, was at the University yesterday.

The Y. W. C. A. held an informal reception in their rooms Wednesday of this week.

Lou Stringer, the football player, has failed to put in an appearance since the holidays.

Miss Anna Vore, a Tri Delta, is confined at her home by an attack of scarlet fever.

Miss Lulu Wirt, Pi Beta Phi, of Holdrege will return to resume work next semester.

Chancellor MacLean acted as toast master at the banquet of the Swine Breeders and Agricultural society Tuesday evening.

Mr. Whitmore, president of the Swine Breeders and Stockman's Association, gave a talk in chapel Thursday morning which was heartily enjoyed.

Commandant Stotsenberg has arranged to give a series of lectures on "Military Typography" to his class in military field engineering next semester.

The political pot has boiled this week. The Senior class election this afternoon and the approaching Junior Annual board election of '00 have been the causes of the "intriguing and wire pulling."

The team match between the University

Chess Club and the Business Men's Chess Club was finished last night. The University won by a score of 10½ to 7½. P. J. Barron, Lee Edwards and Elmer Holben represented the University.

Miss Annie Prey '96, has been tendered a position in the DeWitt high school to succeed Miss Anna Broady who has a position in the Beatrice high school. She will leave Saturday to take up her work. The department of English will lose a valuable assistant. Miss Prey is an active member of the English club and one of the editors of the "Kiote."

The Ladies Faculty club met Wednesday at the residence of Prof. G. W. Taylor 435 N 25 street. The topic discussed was the influence of literary societies and fraternities in the University. Miss Jessie Lausing and Vergil Barber represented the fraternities and Miss Idillia Jefferey and J. W. Searson upheld the literary societies. After the discussion light refreshments were served.

The most successful event in University social circles of this year was the third annual hop of the Pershing Rifles, given at the Lincoln Hotel on Friday evening, January 14. It also proved to be a thorough military ball for all the members of the company were in full uniform. Lieutenant Pershing and Mrs. John Stotsenburg led the grand march. The committee on arrangements, composed of Wiggenhorn, Noyes, Weeks and Hendy, deserves no little praise for their efforts.
