

Local and Personal.

WILL THE "COPS" BE THERE?

What means this howling mob
That surges round the Gym?
Who is this playing "hob"
To force an entrance in?

Ho! I see the thing all right
It's no wonder now at all
For the girls this very night
Are playing Basket Ball.

If you want a shave, go to Westerfield's.

Our spring styles are beauties; come in and see them. Foot-Form Store, 1213 O street.

The Co-op is selling stationary at a very low figure.

We do not break collars: they are turned by hand. The Best Laundry, 2249 O street.

Dr. Rowlands entertained his University class at his home Saturday evening.

$3.00 shoes in all the up to date styles at Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

The Union Society will not meet this evening on account of the basket ball game.

Full line of tablets and history covers at the Cooperative Book Co.

Miss Mary Sullivan, of Jackson, was called to her home temporarily, last Friday by news of the death of her sister.

Miss Elsie Bixby of Elmwood, visited Saturday and Sunday with the Misses Bertha and Nona Johnston.

Niss Nona Bridge is out of school for a time, on account of her mother's sickness. She left for Fremont the first of last week.

How are your shoes? We have just received a fine lot of new spring styles.

Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

Miss McGuffey was called to her home at Palmyra, last week, by the illness of her mother.

The Zoological Club met Wednesday evening. Papers were read by Dr. Ward, Dr. Wolcott, E. E. Tyler and H. M. Benedict.

Do you want to see the swellest lot of mens shoes you ever looked at, come in.

Foot Form Store, 1213 O street.

Prof. Sherman will lecture before a meeting of the Otoe County Teachers Association, March 11th, at Palmyra.

Headquarters for Fountain Pens, history paper, tablets, note books, pencils and all college and school supplies. Book and Stationery Department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The names of Messrs. T. J. Hewitt, C. C. Tellesen, and R. W. Zinser were proposed for membership in the Palladian Society last Friday night.

The Delian girls have challenged the Delian boys to a program contest. The girls' program will take place Friday evening March 11, the boys one week later. Considerable interest is being taken in the preparation of these programs.

Colored Photographs of Irish Scenery, Cathedrals, Old Castles, Old Abbeys, Round Towers and other objects of historical and antiquarian interest are being sold by us for 50c each, unframed, or 81 each, framed and matted. Our special price for framing pictures and photographs will be continued during following week. Latest "hits" in music—"The Heroes who Sank with the Maine," 18c, "Cinderella White," the most popular two step song ever published, the mutual hit of 1898, 19c. Art and Music Department Herpolsheimer & Co.

The new members of the Palladian Society gave their program last Friday evening. The "old Pals" had a chance to see themselves as others see them, it was a mock Palladian program. H. L. Sams acted as president. The Chronicles of the Chancellor's Farm by J. E. Boyle contained a number of good "hits" on Palladian members. The recitation by Miss Cutts was a treat. The prophesies by Miss Fowler and Mr. Coover were not those of ordinary mortals, they were inspired. The sketch by Miss Nona Johnston was splendidly written and well rendered. The essay by Miss Meserve was one of a "Riley" nature, but one of the most pleasing productions of the evening. The debate—Something vs. Nothing—was simply indescribable. The affirmative, Messrs. Roberts and Smoyer; Negative, Mr. Hilton and Miss Betts. The Telyn Quartette favored the society with a couple of soul stirring selections. Miss Ashford rendered a pleasing solo. The chorus and a mock business meeting finished the evenings entertainment.