

jump; running broad jump; standing high kick; standing broad jump; potato race.

The following prizes are offered to the first year girls: 1st, a pair of fencing foils; 3rd, pair of Indian clubs; 2nd, tennis racket. To the third year girls: 1st, tennis racket and net; 2nd, archery set; 3rd, golf club. In the Pentathlon proper: Gold medal, offered by Miller & Paine; 2nd, silver medal, offered by A. E. Spurek; 3rd, bronze medal, offered by Perkins & Sheldon.

The following young ladies are the contestants: First year—Misses Minnie Guile, Sedgwick, Alexander, Meserve, Andrews, Holdbrook, and Dorrington. Second year—Misses Miller, Marie Kenedy, Whipple, and Bonnell. Specials—Misses Bohannon, Pentzer, Spurek, and Taylor. Base-ball team—Misses Alberta Spurek (manager), Stratton, Guile, Miner, Snively, Sedgwick, Andrews, Bridge, Miller, Gillmore, Godard, Rosa, Neidhart, Ruth Bryan, West, Gregory, and Pentzer. Miss Ruth Bryan will be Mascot. The following ladies are to be patronesses of the contest: Mrs. MacLean, Mrs. C. E. Bessey, Mrs. F. M. Fling, Mrs. Stotsenberg, Mrs. E. H. Barbour, Mrs. W. J. Bryan, Mrs. L. C. Richards, Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Mrs. Dr. B. F. Baily, Mrs. Geo. Woods, Mrs. E. C. Burr, Mrs. W. B. Ogden, Mrs. Wm. Clark, Mrs. W. W. Hastings.

Tickets are on sale at the office of the physical director.

Dr. Sherman's class in Shakespeare began the study of King Lear on Wednesday.

The Phi Psi's gave a cotillion at the Lincoln Friday evening.

The Pi Beta Phi held their annual banquet last night at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer on So. 17 St.

Miss Wetzel, of Omaha, and Miss Collins, of Wahoo, were initiated in the Kappa Gamma's last week, at the home of Miss Lau.

C. M. Skiles, '92, is expected here Friday from Ulysses to take part in the alumni program of the Palladian society.

Messrs. Bert Pentzer, G. W. Kline, Weeks and Curtice have joined the Lincoln Light Infantry.

The first inter-fraternity base-ball game was played last Friday between the Phi Psi's and Sigma Chi's. The game resulted in a victory for the Psi's by a score of 14 to 10.

The Palladian alumni program takes place Friday night. A good program is assured in the way of talks, speeches, readings, music, etc. Mr. T. F. A. Williams will preside.

Fred J. Carpenter received a telegram Wednesday morning announcing the death of his brother-in-law. He left for his home at Parker, S. D., Wednesday afternoon. It will be impossible for him to return to school until next fall.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. will serve luncheon, Tuesday, May 3, in the Armory, from 12 m. to 2 p. m., for the benefit of Lake Geneva fund. Menu: Salad, veal loaf, ham, cold tongue, sandwiches, pickles, radishes, strawberries and cream, cake and coffee. Price, 25 cents. Everybody requested to attend.

The University base-ball team started south to-day for a two weeks' trip. Their schedule is as follows: Manhattan, April 29; St. Mary's, April 30, a. m.; Topeka, April 30, p. m.; Emporia, May 2; Lawrence, May 3; Columbia, Mo., May 4 and 5; Marshalltown, May 6; Liberty, Mo., May 7.

The Palladian Boys' Debating Club entertained the Palladian Girls' Debating Club in Pall. hall Saturday evening last. The question debated was the elective system in our college curriculums. Messrs. Smoyer and Sams took the affirmative; Moore and Perry, the negative. After the debate the Pall. boys opened up a good sized box of oranges and all helped themselves.

R. E. White, J. C. Hitchman and E. T. Chapin of the Phi Psi boys, enlisted Thursday morning.

J. F. Barrow and H. E. Clapp go with Company D of this city.

A. R. Congdon is very enthusiastic over the prospects of enlistment.

A. H. Hollingworth, a student of the University last year, is now captain of Company C, of Beatrice.

G. W. Kline joined his company from Nelson, Wednesday.

C. W. Weeks and A. L. Brown both enlisted in the L. L. I. Company.

W. H. Hayward is captain of a company of militia from Nebraska City, who are now in quarters at Camp Saunders.