MILLER & PAINE

Two Things Uncle Sam Has Learned

from his experience in "the late unpleasantness" is to build the Nicaragua Canal and a larger Navy. Two things the people of Lincoln have learned from experience, when their eyesight fails or is defective, is that we are the best opticians in this city, and that we can fit the eyes in the most perfect manner, and adjust glasses that will give them new sight. Eyes examined free.

Society Programs . . . .

How about that program? It costs no more to have it printed neatly and attractively than to have a poorly gotten up affair that every member is ashamed to place in a visitor's hand. Your society will be judged quite largely by the style of its printed stationery. I can make it right.

When you write To your friends

Who are coming west to visit you just add a postscript like this: "Be sure to take the Burlington Route. It's much the best."

You are quite safe in doing this because our service from Chicago, Peoria, St. Louis, Kansas City, in fact all eastern, southeastern and southern cities is just as good as our service to those points. And that, as everyone who is acquainted with it will testify, is the best there is.

Tickets and time tables on application at B. & M. depot or city office, corner 10th and O streets.
