

Clyde Hays, Phi Kappa Psi, spent Sunday at his home in Beatrice.

Rev. Mr. Manss of the First Congregational church, addressed the Y. M. C. A. Sunday on Bible study.

Chancellor MacLean went to Iowa City to attend the funeral of President Schaffer of the University of Iowa the first of the week.

The Beta Theta Psi are located again this year in the First National Bank block. During the summer their rooms have been completely renovated, so that they have quarters of which they are very proud.

The Hesperian wishes to call attention to a typographical error in the advertisement of Herpolsheimer & Co.'s book department in which we advertised Waterman's Pens at $2.00 when it should have been $2.50.

Miss Louise Pound has won several valuable trophies this summer in tennis tournament. She won two silver cups and a beautiful pin. The pin is a four-leafed clover of green enamel with a diamond center and edged with pearls.

Edwin Farmer, '90, teacher in the Erva plantation school near Honolulu, Hawaii, recently received the medal offered for the best examination for teachers' certificate. He is said to have had the best papers ever presented in the islands.

One evening last week the Phi Delta Theta fraternity initiated the following men: Ralph Sobin, Diedrich Lau, John Hill and Chester Sumner. The boys are located this year at 1522 S. street, and are delighted with their new chapter house.

Prof. Hill has somewhat changed the course in psychology from that given last year. The work will be condensed and the class divided into about fifteen divisions, placed under the head of assistants who will give quizzes from time to time.

Some of the Y. M. C. A. boys now wear red and others blue ribbons in their button holes. The two sides are in competition with each other to secure the most members. Mr. Moore, the new general secretary, devised the scheme.

Andrew Wilson of the preparatory medical school, is obliged to leave school on account of the illness of his sister. The other members of the family are also reported sick with typhoid fever. He left for his home in Dunbar, Neb., yesterday afternoon.

Students can have their photographs enlarged during the following week at Herpolsheimer & Co.'s Music Dept. by paying 98c for each photo. The work is equal to any thing of its kind in the country and usually sells at Photo-galleries for $5.00 each. The offer is good for this week only.

There will be a mass meeting of the students next Tuesday morning to elect four students to act on the college settlement board for this year. The members from the faculty were elected last Sunday at a meeting at Chancellor MacLean's. They are Professors Sweezy, Caldwell and Hill.

The Bimetallic club met Monday and elected officers as follows: H. A. Mefer, president; F. G. Hawxby, vice president and J. S. Smoyer, secretary. The members are making arrangements with the fusion committee to have a meeting under the auspices of the club, with some prominent speakers from outside the state.

Ernest R. Holmes, '90, M. A. '98, city editor of the State Journal, and Mrs. Holmes, 97½, left September 26 for Washington, D. C., and other eastern points. They will sail October 15 from New York for France and go to Paris. Mr. Holmes will enter for the new doctorate of the University of Paris, specializing in Romance languages and philology. Mrs. Holmes will devote herself largely to French and sight-seeing.
