Two Things Uncle Sam Has Learned

from his experience in "the late unpleasantness" is to build the Nicaragua Canal and a larger Navy. Two things the people of Lincoln have learned from experience, when their eyesight fails or is defective, is that we are the best opticians in this city, and that we can fit the eyes in the most perfect manner, and adjust glasses that will give them new sight. Eyes examined free.

Society Programs

How about that program? It costs no more to have it printed neatly and attractively than to have a poorly gotten up affair that every member is ashamed to place in a visitor's hand. Your society will be judged quite largely by the style of its printed stationery. I can make it right.
