THE PENNANT A SURE THING.

Defeat of Kansas--Score 18 to 6. Nebraska Plays Foot Ball.—Great Gains by Benedict and Williams.—Opinions of Coach Yost, Capt. Mosse and Coach Woodruff

On the Game.

Nebraska.....	76	Hastings.....	0
Nebraska.....	23	Ames.....	10
Nebraska.....	24	Tarkio.....	0
Nebraska.....	38	William Jewell College.....	0
Nebraska.....	47	Missouri.....	6
Nebraska.....	18	Kansas.....	6
Nebraska.....	0	Kansas City.....	24

Once more, the long-haired heroes of Kansas and Nebraska have met and a score of 18 to 6 sends a thrill of joy to the heart of every loyal son and daughter of the old University.

There is now no doubt in the mind of any one that Nebraska is to have the pennant again this year. Of the league games, that with Iowa alone remains, and there need be no fear from that quarter. Capt. Melford and his men will take the pennant by unanimous consent.

The game last Saturday was a hard, square game. Both teams played clean ball with the exception of Smith, right tackle of the Kansas team who was put out of the game for slugging. Nebraska played an elegant game in the first half but weakened somewhat in the second. Kansas had the advantage in weight but superior head work on the part of Nebraska overcame this. Nebraska's line was very strong and successfully withstood the fearful hammerings of the Kansas backs. In offensive work, of course, the gains made by Benedict were the star plays. Hansen and Turner played excellent games at guard, and Follmer, Stringer and Brew distinguished themselves in shattering the Kansas interference. Erwin made a splendid record in hitting the line and in punting. He punted 295 yards in eight kicks while Mosse punted 315 yards in nine.

In the first half, Kansas secured the ball seven times. They lost it on downs once and kicked six times. They advanced the ball forty seven yards in their twenty-one attempts. Nebraska secured the ball eight times. They made forty four plays and advanced the ball 173 yards. Three times they were held, twice, they kicked, once they fumbled, once scored, and once time was called.

Nebraska scored her second touch down in about five minutes' play of the second half. Ninty yards were gained in six plays. Kingsbury made the last thirty five yards and scored a touch down. Here, Kansas took a brace and pushed Nebraska back to her two yard line but there she was stopped. Nebraska took the ball and Erwin punted out of danger. Again, Kansas advanced steadily toward Nebraska's goal and Woodward was pushed over for a touch down and Mosse kicked goal. After the kick-off, Kansas forced Nebraska back to her ten yard line but no further. Benedict made a splendid run of fifty five yards and three more plays carried the ball over the Kansas line. This was fast playing. One hundred yards were gained in five plays.

As the teams lined up for kick off, Referee Fultz called the game on account of darkness, although three minutes yet remained.

In speaking of the game Coach Yost says that it has proven that the famous Pennsylvania guards back is a failure against a strong team. It weakens the line to call the two guards back and permits fast men to break up the play before it gets under good headway. Capt. Mosse of the Kansas team attributes defeat to poor tackling and bad luck in having Hamill, left tackle, disabled in the first few minutes of play. Of course Wiley Woodruff says it was no game because those last three minutes were not played.

Stringer was the only Nebraska man who was compelled to retire. His ankle was so badly wrenched that he could not walk on it after the game. The line up was:

Kansas.	Position.	Nebraska.
Woodward.....	Left guard.....	Hansen
Hamill, Tipton.....	Left tackle.....	Gilbert
Wilcox.....	Center.....	Melford
Smith, Tucker.....	Right tackle.....	Kingsbury
Mosse.....	Right Guard.....	Turner
Avery.....	Left end.....	Follmer
Owen.....	Quarter.....	Elliott
Tucker.....	Right half.....	Williams
Hess.....	Left half.....	Benedict
Harrison, Silver.....	Fullback.....	Erwin

Time of halves—35 minutes each.

Touchdowns—Erwin, Kingsbury, Benedict, Woodward.

Goals from touchdowns—Melford, 3; Mosse 1.

Officers—Referee, David L. Fultz; umpire, Frank W. McDonald; line-men, F. W. Pottery and J. W. Crabtree.

The Students Celebrate.

Last Friday night the red lantern in the tower of the State University and the clanging of the bell announced the glad news of the victory of the Nebraska football team at Lawrence, Kansas. According to previous announcement the students gathered on the campus and proceeded to celebrate.

A procession was formed which marched around the post-
