

THE HESPERIAN

An elegant line of silver ware for Christmas at E. Fleming's, 1211 O street.

H. F. Gage, '98, is Pratt Institute correspondent for the New York Herald.

J. W. Searson has charge of the high school at Pender, Nebr., during the sickness of the principal.

Dr. Hinman lectured on "Christianity and Philosophy" at the Congregational church last Sunday evening.

C. H. Root was elected business manager of the Junior Annual last Friday in place of F. Van Valin, resigned.

The law department library quarters are entirely inadequate to growing needs, and the department is seeking new quarters.

The junior law class is studying Lawson on contracts, giving particular attention to contractual liabilities along the matrimonial line.

Professor Bessey is to deliver an address at Palmyra on December 9th on "Some Features of the Nebraska Flora, Past and Present."

L. V. Patch, '98, passed through the city Saturday evening. He spent a few hours with Kappa Sigma before leaving for his school at Bartley, Nebr.

□ The Phi Kappa Psi boys were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham have a son who is a member of this fraternity.

Roy Sawyer has been elected to represent the Lincoln chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the national meeting of the organization soon to be held in Nashville, Tennessee.

The Doane debaters who were to meet the D. B. D. C., tonight, have sent word that the debate will have to be called off as they wish to attend the Y. M. C. A. convention at Fremont.

Miss Jane Douglas of St. Joseph, Mo., spent Thanksgiving with her sister. Kappa Alpha Theta sorority gave a delightful sleighing party in her honor, followed by dancing at the home of Miss MacFarland.

The law students had a lively moot court Monday night in the law room. Messrs. Davis and Hoegland won the case against Messrs. Perry and Hager. Attorney Hatfield acted as judge. Miss Stull was district clerk.

Frank H. Robertson delivered a very instructive and entertaining lecture on "Manila and the Philippines" at the Oliver Tuesday evening. Nearly all of the debaters on the expansion question were present and secured many facts.

Leonard H. Robbins, late of Princeton, has just taken a place on the staff of the Philadelphia Press, one of the largest papers in the country. Their recognition of Mr. Robbins' ability is very gratifying to his friends in the University and city.

Notice has been posted of an examination for entrance to the Botanical Seminar, to be held on January 13th. The examiners announced are: Dr. Roscoe Pound, Dr. F. E. Clements, and Dr. Bessey. It is understood that several advanced students in Botany have been cited to appear for examination.

REGENT $3.50 SHOES ARE FOR MEN. 1036 O ST.

Money Saved

Our store is now in the midst of a 10 to 33 per cent discount sale, and while a discount sale conducted as we always do the ones we advertise yet there is a greater saving in buying the high grade of goods we offer.

THE B. L. PAINE CLOTHING STORE.

FOR SALE

The best line of Shoes for ladies and gentlemen in the city.

1213
O
STREET.

Sanderson-Schurmay
THE FOOT FORM STORE
and DAVIS

1213
O
STREET.

THE GRAND HOTEL.

W. C. FLEURY, Prop.

Exceptional accommodations for Banquets, Parties and Dancing.
Special Rates to Students and their Friends of $1.50 Per Day.
COR. TWELFTH AND Q, LINCOLN.

Are you ready for Christmas?

If not, please remember that we can please you whether you wish to invest one cent or one hundred dollars. Every department of our store is filled with goods suitable for Christmas gifts.

We invite you to come and see for yourself.

MILLER & PAINE