Prof. Fling received another consignment of books from Paris, Wednesday afternoon. Among them was, a twenty volume history of the French Revolution, supposed to be the earliest contemporary account. These little leather bound volumes are a curiosity in style and make up. They contain some quite valuable material.

OLD BOOKS—We have picked up, here and there, a number of miscellaneous books which we are able to offer at very low prices. Among them are: Chamber's Ency., (10 vols.), Rawlinson's Ancient Monarchies, Gibbon's Rome, D'Aubigne's Hist., of Reformation, Maucaulay's England, Adler's large German Dict., etc., etc., etc. We also have a great many students text books, second hand.

Society Programs . . . .

How about that program? It costs no more to have it printed neatly and attractively than to have a poorly gotten up affair that every member is ashamed to place in a visitor's hand. Your society will be judged quite largely by the style of its printed stationery. I can make it right.
