

Mr. E. B. Perry spent Sunday visiting friends in Crete.

"Doc" Edwards has been at his home in Dunlap, Ia., for a week.

The Junior "Prom." will be at the Lincoln, February 10, 1899.

Several Valentine parties will be announced in the near future.

The class in Ibsen will meet on Tuesday and Thursday at 4 o'clock.

Miss Cora Cropsey of Fairbury, was visiting friends in the University this week.

Miss Erismann has been absent from classes for several days as the result of vaccination.

Joe Burnham has left school and will attend the Shattuck Military Academy for the rest of the year.

Governor Poynter has appointed Miss Madge Wiggins to a scholarship in a cooking school at Worcester, Mass.

Miss Nora Davis has been seriously ill with tonsilitis during the past week. She was reported today as some better.

Miss Anna Lytle, '98, who is instructor in the David City high school, was visiting with her Pi Beta Phi sisters over Sunday.

The Haydon Art Exhibit is now on display in the University art rooms.

The local chapter of Kappa Sigma will celebrate the second anniversary of its founding, next Monday evening, by a banquet at the Lincoln hotel.

The basket ball game which was to have been played in Omaha February 10th, the University team versus Omaha Y. M. C. A. team, has been declared off.

The management of the Philharmonic Concert, which is to be held tonight, has made a special rate to students. All desiring to take advantage of this rate must call at the Conservatory office.

Prof. Ward offers a course in the Evolution of Animal Life. The hours of recitation have not been arranged yet. The course is one which will be very interesting to those specializing in natural sciences.

The season has come again when senior canes and hats are the much desired prizes of inquisitive juniors and the constant menace to the over suspicious senior. But with all the seniors' watchfulness three have been left to mourn the loss of their idols.

Mr. H. H. Hanks has just returned from his home in Nebraska City, where he has been detained for a few weeks. He will resume his studies the coming semester, and incidentally look after his interests in the oratorical contests. Tonight he will take part in the Palladian contest.

Miss Effie Price, of New York, International Secretary of Y. W. C. A., will spend a week in the University of Nebraska. Miss Price has a national reputation as a public speaker and as an organizer. During the week she is here one of the events will be a joint reception by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. at the Lincoln hotel, February 20th, to which all students will be invited. This promises to be one of the social events of the University year.

WELL BALANCED . .

No Furnishing Goods Stock can be well balanced without a good line of Neckwear. No costume is well balanced without a neat tie, and plenty of them—one at a time, of course. We are getting in a choice line.

The B. L. Paine Clothing Store.

Like a Looking Glass...

Our work is strictly first class and we are sure it would please you in every respect, because it is done carefully. Try us.

Saw-dges
Irons
Smooth

The Best Laundry

Telephone 579. 2259 O Street

INTERCOLLEGE BUREAU OF ACADEMIC COSTUME

COTRELL &
LEONARD

Makers of Caps, Gowns
and Hoods to the American Colleges and Universities

. . . . 472-478 BROADWAY, ALBANY, NEW YORK

24 PHOTOS 25c

STAMP SIZE

THE

Prewitt

PHOTOGRAPHER

1216 O Street.

Silks,
Dress Goods,
Cloaks,
Ladies' Suits,
and

Furnishing Goods
For Ladies and Gentlemen

0 AND 13TH STS. • MILLER & PAINE