

Mr. Lynn Robison spent Sunday at his home in Omaha.

Miss Herbert Jaynes spent Saturday and Sunday in Omaha.

Miss Gertrude and Maude Macumber spent Saturday and Sunday at their home in Omaha.

Mrs. Robert Bridge of Fremont, spent a few days in Lincoln last week visiting her daughters, Laura and Mona.

A new class in Physical training has been organized to meet at 8 o'clock in the evening Mondays and Wednesdays, and on Saturday at 2 p. m.

Frank Rain is doing some excellent drawing for the Junior Annual. He has done some artistic work in colors which will add much to the appearance of the annual.

Mr. Smith, who was hurt in the gymnasium Charter Day, is rapidly getting better. The bones in his leg have begun to knit strongly, and under the care of Dr. Graham he is doing well.

Attorney C. M. Skiles, '92, one of the original founders of the "big rock" on the campus, was down from Ulysses on business Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Skiles and Mr. T. F. A. Williams, '92, are the donors of the first prize in the Skiles-Williams Palladian contest which was recently instituted in the Palladian Society.

Recent letters from Mr. E. G. Woodruff and J. A. Sargent of the Third Nebraska at Havana, state that material is being gathered together there for use in the Junior Annual. The editors of the Annual are making an effort to give the University boys who went to war a good representation.

The P. K. D. Society of Doane, have proposed the question: Resolved "That the so called trusts in their workings and operations are a benefit to the public" for next contest with the Union Boys' Debating Club in April. This is to be the last in the series of debates between the two clubs for this year, and will be held here at the University.

The English Club held its bi-monthly services in its new room in University Hall last Saturday evening. Harriet Cooke and Clyde Hull, aided by contributions from the members of the club, have tastefully decorated the new retreat with posters, drawings, and other oddities. The place is a sort of combination—Haydon Art Club and museum.

C. M. Funk paid C. J. Warner $2.50 for the privilege of looking at his senior cane last Saturday evening. The latter party, realizing the generosity of Mr. Funk and his eagerness for information, felt it his duty to treat sixty boys and girls to candy on Sunday with the said two dollars and fifty cents. An interesting and instructive time was had by all the parties concerned.

Ruy Blas, Victor Hugo's great play, was rendered last Monday evening by the Nebraska College of Oratory. The house was fairly well filled, and applauded frequently. Mr. Edward Maggi assumed the title role, and it is needless to say, played it well. His magnificent voice and graceful bearing added much to the rendition of the play. Miss Ella M. Crawford played the part of the queen.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines," by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco, on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the roar of battle at the fall of Manila. Bonanza for agents. Brimful of original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large book. Low prices. Big profits. Freight paid. Credit given. Drop all trashy unofficial war books. Outfit free. Address H. L. Barber, Gen. Mngr., 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.
