R. D. Andreson has in his possession an autograph of Ed. Henry which he places much value on. It is an agreement on the part of Henry to return a note which was written by Bob and was stolen from the letter boxes. George L. Towne signs the agreement as a witness. Some time ago, Andreson made a demand on Henry for the note and the latter drew a revolver. Tuesday evening the former had the latter searched for concealed weapons. No weapon was found but the parties came to the above agreement.
