

COLLEGE OF LAW NOTES

The floor and windows of our "den" have received a much needed scrubbing.

J. H. Davis is spending a few weeks at his home in the western part of the state.

Blackledge is absent and the Juniors miss his philosophical questions and impossible illustrations.

The Juniors were indulging in the the pleasures (?) of an examination in Torts Tuesday morning.

The Maxwell Club will have a debate with the Palladians next week. Messrs. Kehn, Alexander, and Tobey will represent the Maxwells.

The following item appearing in the list of licences issued by the County Judge explains itself: "George E. Tobey, age 28, Ulysses, Neb.; Ora Gardner, University Place." The affair was consummated last Tuesday evening. The "laws" one and all extend their most sincere sympathy and best wishes to the happy couple.

The Juniors are putting in regular time practicing on the diamond for the coming event with the Seniors. Up to time to going of press only three causalities have occurred. Manager is suffering from an injured thumb nail; first baseman Dupont from a ruptured blood vessel in the nose; and pitcher Ewart received some severe bruises in the side as the result of a collision with Burleigh.

A special meeting of the Juniors was called Monday evening last for the purpose of organizing a base ball team. After a lively campaign and a hotly contested election Ned Abbott succeeded in being elected manager and the business of organizing was left in his hands. He immediately ordered all the Juniors out to practice and issued a preemptory challenge to the Seniors for a match game. Up to the hour of going to press the managers of the two teams have not been able to agree upon a date for the game. They have, however, extended an invitation to Dean Reese to officiate as umpire.
