

E. F. Warner visited at his home in Creighton last week.

J. E. Pearson took advantage of his vacation to visit his home and the University again.

R. D. Kingsbury, who went home with a fever last Tuesday, has returned much improved in health.

W. R. Thatcher, science instructor in the Beatrice high school, visited Palladian society Friday evening.

G. E. Kindler, principal of the West Side Beatrice school spent his vacation among University friends.

Norman Shreve, who is attending Gallandet College in Washington, D. C., writes that the HESPERIAN has kept him in close touch with University affairs.

J. P. Rome, assistant principal of the high school at Butte, Montana, writes his appreciation of the HESPERIAN for this year. He says it has been a very clean sheet.

The morning and afternoon classes in 2nd year gymnasium played for the championship in basket-ball March 24. The game resulted in the score of 6 to 3 in favor of the afternoon class.

Phi Kappa Psi entertained at the Lincoln Hotel Wednesday evening in honor of the delegates of that fraternity in attendance at the district convention. A cotillion was the recreation.

The Palladians elected the following officers for the ensuing term: James Britton, President; W. J. Lowry, Vice President; Pearl Hensel, Corresponding Secretary; Blanche Rowe, Recording Secretary; J. J. King, Critic; Carl Meier, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Delians elected officers for the third term last week. They were as follows; E. F. Turner, President; Ruth Pyrtle, Vice President; Clara Fleming, Secretary; Flossie Archer, Treasurer; C. W. Jones, Critic; Nora Davis, Slate bearer; C. H. Root, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Senior class has succeeded in choosing Mr. Kind as chairman of its "prom" committee and Mr. Harmon as master of ceremonies. Quite a fight was anticipated over the report of the nominating committee but the great triumvirate was in such a hopeless minority that its scattered forces appeared ludicrous with an occasional "No," "No," here and there.

The Woman's Club met with Miss Barr March 27. About two hundred ladies were present and greatly enjoyed the exercise. The 2 o'clock, 2nd year classes gave an exhibition of marching, free-hand exercises, dumb-bells and Swedish exercises. The 2:30 class played the games, bean bag and pass the ball. The event of the afternoon was the playing between the Midgets and Giants. One team of Midgets under the captainship of Jennie Pentzer played the Giants the first half and Miss Edith Swartz's team the second half. As expected, the Midgets were beaten by the Giants who were twice their size, although the latter had to work for their points. After this the Midgets played together, the score resulting in 4 to 2 in favor of Miss Swartz's team.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines," by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as Official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of Olympia with Dewey, and in the roar of battle at the fall of Manila. Bonanza for agents. Brimful of original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large book. Low prices. Big profit. Freight paid. Credit given. Drop all trashy unofficial war books. Outfit free. Address H. L. Barber, Gen. Mgr., 366 Dearborn Street, Chicago.
