

We Can Please You

The boys who rendered the play were:
 J. R. Harger.....The mill owner
 J. Plowhead.....Foreman of the mill
 R. E. Hulett.....A villian
 A. C. Lee.....The villian's victim
 C. J. Platt.....Reporter for the Daily Grit
 W. H. Warner.....Dealer in court plaster
 E. A. Boostrom.....Sambo }
 F. H. Alexander.....Dina } Servants

We can not say that extra praise is due to any particular one but all did themselves justice.

The time between scenes was taken up by well rendered music by Messrs. Boostrom, Hubbel, Hart, and Warner.

After the play a large number retired to Union Hall and enjoyed a good social time until a late hour.

Debates.

The Delians will debate the question, "Resolved, That the suffrage laws passed by Louisiana and other states are contrary to the 15th amendment of the constitution of the United States." This is the same topic which the Delians and Unions will discuss in a joint debate in the near future.

The Kansas representatives in the Kansas Nebraska contest will be two law students and one from the academic department. This is the same method of selection used last year.

The Delian-Doane debate takes place May 12. The question is, "Resolved, That United States senators should be elected by a popular vote." Doane boys will affirm the proposition. The contest will take place at Crete.

The department of public speaking has done much for debating in the University this year. All but two of the representatives in the interstate debates have received instruction in the public speaking classes. There are a few who do not seem to fully appreciate the work of this department and demonstrate their indifference by failing to appear when scheduled to speak. This is wrong. To fail to appear without giving a valid excuse is practically the same as skipping an examination, and there is no reason why this dereliction should not be met by withholding credit.

A man is never at his best in the old-fashioned kind of ready-made clothes sold in most clothing stores. If you want to do yourself justice, try one of our Hart, Schaffner & Marx finely tailored suits. You can get one that will fit as though made to measure and bring out your good points better than anything the average tailor can make to your order. The H. S. & M. suits are elegant, durable and not expensive.
