At a recent meeting of the Athletic board it was decided that juniors and seniors of the law school should be permitted equal privileges with regular classified students in all athletic contests.

In the annual outdoor pentathlon which occurs April 28, the five following events will take the place of regular preliminaries for the Kansas meet on May 6: one mile run, pole vault, hammer throw, running high jump.

The Armstrong cup to be contested for by the different classes of the University is now in possession of Mr. P. O'Mahony and together with other medals will be on exhibition in one of the show windows of Herpolsheimer and Co.

A meeting of the track men took place in the gymnasium last Tuesday evening. Dr. Hastings gave a short, but interesting talk on training and among other things he said: "The two main objects in training is to secure endurance and skill and that these are very closely connected is shown by the fact that skill lies in conservation of energy. Every man who makes a good showing in any event 'is trained' either in the gymnasium, on the farm or in the shop." Arrangements and dates for the coming events were decided upon and a motion was carried to lay a tax of 50 cents on every man in the special training classes for the purpose of getting the track fixed up.

Miss Eckel of St. Joseph is the guest of Miss Douglas.

Ed Henry is about again. He has been sick lately.

The Delian boys will have charge of the society program this evening.

Dr. Peterson's class in the Goethe course has begun the study of Faust.

A committeeman's conference will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Saturday at 4 p. m.

The Union-Doane debate has been postponed because of the Delian boys' program, Friday night.

C. A. Van Scoy, law, '00, is a very busy man these days at Logan, Ia. He is serving as deputy recorder.

Mr. George Bartlett has been absent from school several days owing to the severe illness of his father. Word came Tuesday announcing his father's death.

The debate between the D. B. D. C. and Wesleyan which was to have been held last Friday evening was declared off owing to sickness of the latter's representatives.

ACTIVE SOLICITORS WANTED EVERYWHERE for "The Story of the Philippines," by Murat Halstead, commissioned by the Government as official Historian to the War Department. The book was written in army camps at San Francisco on the Pacific with General Merritt, in the hospitals at Honolulu, in Hong Kong, in the American trenches at Manila, in the insurgent camps with Aguinaldo, on the deck of the Olympia with Dewey, and in the roar of battle at the fall of Manila. Bonanza for agents. Brimful of original pictures taken by government photographers on the spot. Large book. Low prices. Big profits. Freight paid. Credit given. Drop all trashy unofficial war books. Outfit free. Address H. L. Barber, Gen. Mgr., 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.
