Delian Play.

Next Saturday night, May 20, the Delian Literary Society will present a play entitled "The Turn of the Tide." in the University Chapel. Much work has been devoted to the preparation of this play and it is safe to say that the entertainment will be perhaps the most interesting literary event of the year. The Turn of the Tide is a National drama in three acts, and while being an excellent production from a literary standpoint it also abounds in fun of the richest kind. Pepper the darkie, and Frisky a sewing girl are especially strong in comedy and are sure to keep the audience convulsed with laughter. Everyone is cordially invited. Admission absolutely free. Many specialties in the way of music, etc., will be introduced. The cast of characters is as follows:

Jonas Aldrich, a fisherman on the coast.....C. F. Harner
 Becky Aldrich, his wife—a quiet body.....Anna Sauls
 Capt. Hugh St. Morris.....Harry Garret
 Herman Clyde, Captain of a pirate vessel.....C. W. Jones
