HIT AND MISS.

In the class room I sat
 Behind a big hat,
 On a co-ed who sat just in front;
 The Prof. could not see.
 So ne'er thought of me.
 Bless the hat! It saved me a "flunk."

At the opera I sat,
 Behind the same hat
 On the same girl, who sat just in front;
 The stage it obscured,
 My hate it incurred.
 Blast the hat! 'Tis decidedly "punk."

"I have been told," said the foot ball player to his fiancee, "that you have been engaged before; that I am not the first."

The intensity of his passion made her shudder, but she quickly recovered herself.

"And is it not proper," she demanded, "before playing a match game to try a few practice games with scrub teams?"

Miss—I read a funny story about a baby five days old who can talk.

Wiggins—That's nothin'; the Bible says Jacob cursed the day he was born.

The telephone, it is said, is not making much progress in Russia, and no wonder. Fancy a man going to a telephone and shouting: "Hello! is that you, Durisastkwichawovoczi?" "No! It is Zalemschoskaffaeockertizksumzyskloff. I want to know if Xiferspoxstkwichse is stopping with Duriostkwichswovoczi?"

Wanted—We will pay $12.00 a week salary to either a man or woman to represent the Midland monthly magazine as a subscription solicitor. The Midland is the same size as McClure's or the Cosmopolitan. It is now in its sixth year and is the only magazine of this kind published in the great central west. A handsome premium given to each subscriber. Send 10 cents for a copy of the Midland and premium list to the Twentieth Century Publishing Co., St. Louis, Mo.

In order to introduce our new monthly family magazine, "The Nutmeg," we will send it for one year and include 50 of our superior calling or visiting cards for lady or gentleman upon receipt of one yearly subscription, 25 cents. Write plainly and address Cunningham & Litchfield, Stamford, Connecticut.
