

LOCALS.

Gregory the Coal Man.
New books. University Book Co.
At the sign of "The Co-op," 322 N. 11th.
The original and only "Co-op," 322 N. 11th.
History notebook covers at University Book Co.
Full line of writing tablets. University Book Co.
The oldest students' book store, The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.
Everything you need in school. University Book Co.
Use our pencil sharpener; it's free. University Book Co.
Chemistry aprons, towels and sleeves at University Book Co.
Agency for the Best Laundry Co. at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.
Sigma Chi has secured two pledges, Messrs. Arends and Ustick.
Second-hand books bought, sold, exchanged. University Book Co.
A good second-hand bicycle for sale cheap at University book store.
Botany, zoology, biology sets and instruments. University Book Co.
The Y. M. C. A. studies and supplies only at The Co-op., 322 N. 11th.
The elocution classes under Mrs. Manning began work Monday.
Whotman, Crane and Weston's drawing papers. University Book Co.
The Pi Beta Phi society has pledged Miss McPheely and Miss Burruss.
Lowney's chocolate bon bons at Hanna's drug store, corner 14th and O.
University letter paper with envelopes to match at University Book Co.
Messrs. Price, Rogers, Rain and Roth have been pledged by Beta Theta Pi.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon has pledged Messrs. Mills, Persel, Davidson, Daw and Mills.
Kappa Sigma announces the following new pledges: Messrs. Bryan, Denny and Carver.
Largest stock of second-hand university text books in Lincoln at The Co-op., 322 N. 11th.
We expect our university pins this week. They will be beauties. University Book Co.
Students desiring to study music notice G. C. Menzendorf's advertisement in this paper.
A new consignment of Waterman pens in this week. Inspect them. University Book Co.
Fred Lamar, M. S. Moore and Charles Poynter will attend the Omaha medical college this year.
All history and political economy outlines are handled exclusively at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.
Students should see Charles B. Gregory (class of '91) at Eleventh and O for coal and wood.
Miss Emily Weeks, '99, will leave for Boston Thursday. She will spend the winter there.
Clifton J. Platt has resigned from the library staff and will take up work in the college of law.
W. Claude Reed left Thursday for Kansas City, where he goes to attend a reunion of relatives.
E. H. Kring, '99, left Friday for Woodruff, Kan., where he takes charge of the Evangelical church.
C. M. Skiles, '93, law '95, has been nominated for county judge on the fusion ticket in Butler county.
The Phi Deltas have pledged three new men this year, Messrs. Farnsworth, Kennedy and Johnson.

Miss Kenny, Miss Maggie Honeywell and Miss Daniels are wearing the pledge colors of Delta Gamma.
Perfect comfort and beauty combined in Jenness Miller shoes for ladies. Price $3.50. Mayor Bros.
Manager Collett is superintending which will be built across the south and east lines of the foot ball field.
Messrs. Kimball, Mann, Cunningham, Adams and Sutter are wearing the pledge colors of Phi Gamma Delta.
Miss Whiting entertained a few of her fraternity friends at her home on South Thirteenth street Friday evening, September 29.
Cameron's cafe is the best place in town for students to board. Open at nights the year round. 118 South Eleventh street.
The Best Laundry Co. has an agency at The Co op, 322 N. 11th. Laundry bundles left at the store will receive prompt attention.
When you get your books visit the University Book company. They carry new and second-hand books, history paper and supplies of all kinds.
The surplus stock of botany, biology and zoology instruments will be sent back this week. Buy now. University Book Co.
Miss Hagey, '98, left Monday for Savannah, Ga., where she accepts a position as instructor in the Beach institute.
A. A. Gilman, '98, was on the campus a few days last week. He will continue his studies in New York this year.
The new secretary of the city Y. W. C. A., Miss Kyle, was formerly a member of the Swarthmore chapter of Pi Beta Phi.
Phi Gamma Delta entertained at its chapter house last Saturday evening, September 30, a large number of its friends.
Factory to feet—University shoes, $3.00; Regent shoes, $3.50. No better shoes on earth. One price, one profit. Mayor Bros.
Oliver Chambers, who has been teaching school in Montana for the past year, has returned and will take up his work in the university.
The class in political economy has an enrollment of over one hundred students for this year. Last year it was about twenty-five less than this.
Some new sheds have been built at the plant houses and a few partitions have been put in. This will allow an increase in the number of plants kept there.
Chancellor Bessey has received an invitation to attend the laying of the corner stone of the new government building in Chicago. He has not yet accepted.
Misses Blendine and Blanche Emmons and Misses Burt, Salle, Edmiston, Jenkins and Tarbach have pledged themselves to Kappa Kappa Gamma.
O. W. Chambers, one of the charter members of the Delta Epsilon fraternity, has returned to Lincoln and expects to take work at the university this year.
The library of the college of law is now in place in the room formerly occupied by the Delian literary society. Recent additions swell this library to 1,400 volumes.
P. W. Pepoon, manager of the sophomore track team, is bringing out all the available men possible for the track meet and is quite confident of a victory for his class.
Professor I. P. Roberts of Cornell university, an old friend of Acting Chancellor Bessey visited the university a short time ago. He is interested in the agricultural work.

H. B. Alexander, president of the English club, has departed for Philadelphia. Mr. Alexander is a fellow in the department of philosophy in the University of Pennsylvania.
Harvey E. Heath of Omaha has been appointed the delegate from the industrial college and the experiment station to the national farmers' congress, held in Boston this week.
Leroy P. Sawyer, '99, is in Lincoln for a short visit with old university friends. He expects to leave in a few days for Chicago, where he has a position as an electrical engineer.
The organization of about eight bible classes is an important feature of Y. W. C. A. work this year. Each class meets once a week. The work will consist mainly of the study of different authorities on the bible.
Emory Brace, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, spent several days in this city last week. Mr. Brace is a member of Theta Delta Chi and has a large number of friends in this city, which he has made in former visits.
Dr. Charles B. Newcomes, '89, has been appointed assistant professor of Latin in the University of Missouri. He has recently returned from several years' study in Germany, where he received the degree of doctor of philosophy.
The registration this fall in the physical training classes is the largest the construction of a high board fence in the history of this department. Physical examinations have now nearly been completed and the classes will begin work on Monday.
Claude Reed was elected the student member of the university book company at a mass meeting of the students after chapel Thursday morning. G. A. Johnson was the other man nominated for the position, but was defeated by a small majority.
Alvin Pope, an old university student who has been attending a government school in Washington, D. C., is in the city shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Pope has fitted himself for teaching the blind and will be employed this year in the Omaha institute.
The growth of the library for the year ending September 1 was greater than in any previous year. During this time 3,200 bound volumes and 1,200 pamphlets have been added to the library. The figures for the year just begun bid fair to exceed any former record.
Acting Chancellor Bessey, accompanied by Mrs. Bessey, left Thursday for Iowa City to attend the inauguration of President George E. MacLean of the Iowa state university. Dr. Bessey will give a few words of greeting from the Nebraska university to the University of Iowa.
Acting Chancellor Bessey has been appointed collaborator in the division of forestry in the United States department of agriculture. Dr. Bessey has made a special study of the treeless condition of the prairie and will continue this investigation in connection with his new duties.
The freshmen-sophomore athletic contest to be held in the near future is causing considerable training on the part of both classes. This event is one of the features in university athletics. A $25 water set will be given to the winning class. The prize is producing the needed spirit of rivalry.
D. C. Hall, E. E., '98, formerly in Company F, First Nebraska regiment, arrived in San Francisco Sunday from the Philippines. Last March he transferred to the signal corps, which was one of the last to leave the Philippines. Mr. Hall will be discharged in about two weeks and will then return to Lincoln.

THE BOOK

Department.

XXOFXX

Herpolshcimer
& Co.

Has been known for years to University students as the best place in Lincoln to buy the right kind of goods at the right price.

The department is stocked with a complete line of Fountain Pens, Student's Note Books, History Paper, Tablets, Pencils, and all other school and college supplies.

You can buy a fourteen karat gold Fountain Pen for 69c; History Paper as low as 5c. per 100 sheets; History Covers from 9c. to 15c. each, and all other supplies at equally low figures.

Our miscellaneous book stock contains all the latest publications as well as the standard works by well known authors, text books, dictionaries, translations, etc.

Music and Pictures.

We sell all the latest music at one-half the published price. We also carry a complete line of vocal and instrumental sheet music containing 4,000 pieces at 5c. per copy. Pictures framed from 25c. upwards.