

The senior class met Friday afternoon to elect a member to the university council and to attend to business of minor importance. R. C. Roper and Miss Grace Cook were nominated. Miss Cook received a majority of votes and was declared elected. W. T. Heart was elected manager of the class foot ball team.

The Delian literary society held its first meeting in the chapel Friday evening. Many new students were seen in the audience. After the close of the program a recess was taken, in which every effort was made to make the younger generation feel at home, while the older students renewed old acquaintances.

Boyd's Constitutional Law, Fowler's Menachmi, Woodbury's Constitution, Stehr's Histology, Burnside and Pantton's Theory of Equations, Power Catechism, Imray and Biggs' Mechanical Engineering, Freshman and Preparatory Chemistry Manuals—these are a few of the books that we handle exclusively. University Book Co.

The first prize which was offered by the amusement committee of the street fair association to the person wearing the best costume in the masque carnival was won by A. C. Pierson, a member of the junior class. Pierson was dressed as an Apache Indian chief and made a very fine appearance. The prize was a beautiful set ring valued at $10.

The courses in animal husbandry have been arranged. Professor Burnett has revised courses 3 and 4 in agriculture and offers them as courses 1 and 2 in animal husbandry. They take up the scientific principles which underlie the feeding and breeding of domestic animals and the applications of these principles to the practical work of the stock grower.

The first meeting of the union society occurred Friday evening. The attendance was good and the program interesting. Several vocal solos were rendered and the few short speeches that were given showed clearly the good feeling that is noticeable among the members of the society. The prospect is good that the society will experience a most profitable year.

Entries in the coming freshman-sophomore contest are all in and the men are now training every night. One of the interesting features of this contest will be the relay race arranged between the seniors and juniors, in which W. E. Anderson and R. D. Anderson, who both hold records in track events, will run against each other. The personnel of the teams will be announced later.

The evening sketch class held their first meeting of this semester in the art studio Wednesday evening from 7:30 until 9 o'clock. Owing to the disagreeable weather there were only five persons present. Miss Hayden will give this class a course in rapid sketching. The members are to pose in turn. Formerly there was an entrance fee of five dollars, but now the class is free to students in the school of fine arts.

The Palladian literary society held its first meeting of the year Friday evening with a large number of members present. From start to finish the program was one intended to satisfy those in attendance. After the exercises were completed a short recess was taken. All old members assisted in the general attempt that followed to make the new students feel at home.

Members of the Delian society have been compelled to look for new quarters this year. At one of the summer meetings of the board of regents it was voted to take the Delian room for law school work. A doorway now connects the room with the old law hall. Seven hundred new books have been added for the law department, which now makes the library one of the largest in the city.

The advanced chorus class under Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond will meet every Friday in the chapel from 5 to 6 o'clock. The beautiful chorus, "St. John's Eve," will be taken up this year. All who can sing are requested to make it a point to enter this class, as it affords invaluable training. It is the only class in the university whose work is publicly shown at commencement. The elementary chorus in sight singing meets on Thursdays from 5 to 6 in the chapel. All interested should see Mrs. Raymond at once.

Dr. Hastings is contemplating the purchase of a standard anthropometric tester, which he will put in operation at the close of the foot ball season. This machine is the one adopted by the American Strength Testing association, which has a record of all the strong men in the different colleges. Nebraska has never been represented in these records and as Dr. Hastings is confident that Nebraska can make a good showing in the tests, he will examine a limited number of men as soon as the machine arrives.

The sophomore class held its first meeting of the year Monday with Vice President Wells in the chair. The constitution was changed to make the election of officers biennial and the following officers were elected: President, F. Nelson; first vice president, Meier; second vice president, Brookes; secretary, Miss Reeves; treasurer, Miss Parks. Garrett was elected to represent the class in the university council. The newly elected president took the chair and made these appointments: Chairman of the hop committee, Barker; foot ball manager, Horne; foot ball captain, Voss; captain of the track team, Pepoon.
