

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

Faculty recital in chapel Wednesday evening.

Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Musical program in chapel Friday at chapel hour.

Reese meeting Friday evening. Everyone invited.

English club Saturday evening at the home of Cal Atwood.

Literary society meetings Friday evening at usual hour.

Geneva meeting, Y. W. C. A., Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Regular meetings of the debating clubs Saturday evening.

Foot ball game with Kansas City medics on the campus Saturday at 3:30 o'clock.

PERSONAL.

A. L. Deal, '98, has entered the law school.

Miss May Prentiss, '99, left last Friday for Albany, N. Y.

Edgar A. Baird of Omaha has entered the senior law class.

Judge Reese made a trip to Fremont Wednesday and returned Thursday.

Miss Laura Woodford was pledged last week to the Kappa Alpha Theta.

E. R. Morrison, '98, has returned from the east and has entered the law school.

Miss Tinel Bratt of Beatrice entered the university last week as a special student in music.

H. G. Shedd left Thursday morning for Iowa City, where he will visit ex-Chancellor MacLean.

Miss Mae Burr entertained for Delta Gamma Friday evening at her home on Fifteenth and H streets.

Frank Manchester went to Omaha Tuesday to be present at the wedding of his sister, which occurred Thursday.

Miss Louise Burruss of Geneva and Miss Katherine McPheely of Minden were pledged last week to the Pi Beta Phi.

Carl Engberg, instructor in mathematics, has been kept from his class for the week past by a severe attack of fever.

Miss Alice Boyle, Katherine Sterling and Laura Hunt were elected to membership in the Palladian society Friday evening.

R. A. Tynan, '99, is at Deer Lodge, Mont. He went west partly on account of his health, which he writes has greatly improved.

R. E. Benedict turned out for foot ball practice Monday for the first time this season. He will play his old position—right half.

Mrs. Louis Marshall entertained for Kappa Kappa Gamma Saturday afternoon at her residence on Twenty-first and Washington streets.

George Shedd, formerly of the university and now principal of the Ashland high school, was a guest at the Phi Psi house over Sunday.

R. D. Kingsbury returned Thursday and will soon be back on the foot ball team. He is in good condition, having played on the Grand Island base ball team during the past summer.

Edwin P. Sample, a graduate of Kansas university and a member of Phi Gamma Delta and the law fraternity of Phi Delta Phi, spent Monday in Lincoln, visiting at the university and with his fraternity brothers.

C. C. Norris, who was in the university in 1894-5, is now at San Francisco, waiting until his regiment is sent to the Philippines. He is a sergeant in Company M, Thirty-second volunteers.

Wayne Larrabee of Company M,

First South Dakota volunteers, is sick in the hospital at the Presidio, San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Larrabee was formerly a student of the university. While in the Philippines he was a clerk at Gen. Otis' headquarters and later at Gen. McArthur's headquarters.

Paul Fitzgerald has returned from Philadelphia, where he has been attending the national convention of Sigma Chi. H. D. Landis was elected as delegate, but on account of sickness was not able to attend. Mr. Fitzgerald took his place. Later portions of the proceedings will be published. Among other things, A. A. Bischoff was elected praetor for this province.

LOCALS.

Gregory the Coal Man.

Books. The Co-op., 322 N. 11th.

New books. University Book Co.

New books. University Book Store.

Full line of writing tablets at University Book Store.

Will Johnson of Omaha visited the Phi Psi boys over Sunday.

Nebraskan subscriptions taken at the University Book Store.

Lectures and regular work in the college of law began Tuesday.

Whatman, Crane and Weston drawing papers at University Book Store.

Two new members were received into the Union literary society Friday evening.

The membership of the university Y. M. C. A. has reached one hundred and sixty.

Ben LaSelle of Beatrice was shaking hands with friends on the campus last week.

Full line of tablets, writing pads and notebooks at the University Book Store.

Only a few days left in which to secure season tickets for the Y. M. C. A. Star course.

Uncalled for shirts and underwear at half price. Harper's shirt factory, 1012 O street.

Our university pins have come and are going fast. Get one at the University Book Store.

Students should see Charles B. Gregory (class of '91) at Eleventh and O for coal and wood.

Old cadets were assigned guns Wednesday and hereafter will drill in the manual of arms.

Students may leave laundry at The Co-op. for the Best Laundry Co. Best work and prompt delivery.

The date for the sophomore hop has been finally fixed for October 20. It will be held in Courier hall.

Wait for our new consignment of Waterman pens, every style, to be here this week. University Book Store.

Perfect comfort and beauty combined in Jenness Miller shoes for ladies. Price $3.50. Mayer Bros.

Over twelve hundred students have registered this year. Five hundred and forty-five of these are new students.

Bicycle and camera supplies of all kinds. Typewriting and mimeographing. At "The Co-op.," 322 N. 11th St.

Factory to feet—University shoes, $3.00; Regent shoes, $3.50. No better shoes on earth. One price, one profit. Mayer Bros.

Gameron's cafe is the best place in town for students to board. Open at nights the year round. 118 South Eleventh street.

The university Y. M. C. A. will be represented by twenty delegates at the state convention to be held in South Omaha October 12-15.

The Greek department is offering this semester what has heretofore been known as the second semester of second preparatory Greek.

A special class in advanced English is being organized. Those desiring to take advantage of this class should confer with Schuyler Miller.

The sophomore and freshmen classes have organized foot ball teams, which are putting in some hard practice preparatory to the class games.

Prof. Maggi organized a class in oratory Friday night for the law students to meet hereafter on Wednesday night from 8 to 9 o'clock in the law room.

The use of the university library for reading and reference by the general public has increased perceptibly since the city library was destroyed by fire.

Horace Rose, one of the international secretaries of the Y. M. C. A., will be the guest of the university Y. M. C. A. for two days after the state convention.

The prospects are good for new athletic grounds next year. Some of the vacant blocks a short distance from the campus are to be secured for this purpose.

The girls' gymnasium classes began work last Tuesday morning. Miss Alberta Spuick and Miss Adeloyd Whiting will assist Miss Barr during the coming year.

A neat little building is being erected west of the power house. This contains scales for weighing the thousands of tons of coal which the university consumes annually.

The law school now has an enrollment of one hundred and twenty. It is expected that this number will be increased to one hundred and fifty before the end of the year.

Largest stock of second-hand books, most complete supply of new books, Y. M. C. A. studies, tablets, everything at the sign of The Co-op., just half block from library, 322 N. 11th.

The Delian boys' debating club adjourned Saturday evening after a short business meeting in order to attend the reception of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. to new students.

The library has received two large cases of books bought by Professor Fossler while in Germany. These carefully chosen volumes will greatly strengthen the German section of the library.

The twenty-six large boxes for students' books in the lower hall of the library building have been lettered from A to Z, so that each student may use the box bearing the first letter of his surname.

A new oak bookcase has been placed in the library reading room to accommodate the rapidly growing files of English and American periodicals. It will hold eight hundred and seventy-five volumes.

Dr. Ward has recently received from the government an official map of Porto Rico and the surrounding waters. It will be used in the study of government collections, on which Dr. Ward is now engaged.

Among the new students who have registered at the conservatory from out of town during the past week are Grace Sh'ppen, Laura Phaley, Zelia Griffen, Julian Munger, Lottie Talbot and Geneve Johnson.

Alpha Tau Omega initiated William Ely from Ainsworth and Ralph D. Conkling from Tekamah last week. Mr. Ely is a son of Dr. Ely, who was recently nominated on the republican ticket for regent.

The law library has recently been supplied with eight new incandescent lights. The library is now fitted with the conveniences necessary to a good reading room and most of the students do their work there.

THE BOOK

Department.

xxofxx

Herpolshcimer & Co.

Has been known for years to University students as the best place in Lincoln to buy the right kind of goods at the right price.

The department is stocked with a complete line of Fountain Pens, Student's Note Books, History Paper, Tablets, Pencils, and all other school and college supplies.

You can buy a fourteen karat gold Fountain Pen for 69c; History Paper as low as 5c. per 100 sheets; History Covers from 9c. to 15c. each, and all other supplies at equally low figures.

Our miscellaneous book stock contains all the latest publications as well as the standard works by well known authors, text books, dictionaries, translations, etc.

Music and Pictures..

We sell all the latest music at one-half the published price. We also carry a complete line of vocal and instrumental sheet music containing 4,000 pieces at 5c. per copy. Pictures framed from 25c. upwards.