serted by President Tucker prevents the using of the donation for building purposes. Last spring Mr. Tucker determined upon founding this memorial to his father, who was a trustee of the college from 1857 to 1866. ### REESE CLUB MEETING.

The Reese club met in the law room Thursday night. The attendance was not so large as was expected, on account of the change in place of meeting from the chapel to the law room. The following speakers took part: Roscoe Pound, T. F. A. Williams, James Burleigh, E. L. Brown, Ed P. Brown. The following resolutions were adopted: "Believing that the judiciary of the state should be kept free from partisan politics, and that a man aspiring to the high office of justice of the supreme court should do so from the standpoint of competency and fitness, and not from political consideration; and, furthermore, that Judge Reese is a most worthy aspirant to judicial honors, we, the members of this club, pledge him our most loyal support."

FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

IN CROWDED CARS.

Old axioms we all revere;
You must have noticed that
There's platform room for just one more,
Especially if he's fat!

A LA MODE.

Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet.
Eating of curds and whey;
There came a big spider,
Who sat down beside her,
And "he didn't do a t'ing ter her!"

THE INDISPENSABLE ITEM.

How strange is woman! In her brain
She has one penchant, firm and clear,
And though no other point she gain,
To this one thought she will adhere.
Gloves may be old and shoes passe,
Her frock be shabby—all of that—
But on her head, big, towering, gay,
Though skies may fall she'll have a hat.

IN THE DIM FUTURE.

Stranger—"They are building a new postoffice in Chicago, I believe?"
Chicagoan—"Oh, no; they're building a very old one."

THE ELOPEMENT.

He—"Do you think father will overtake us?"
She—"I hope not, dear; it would mortify me to have you borrow money from him."
