

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

Reception to students at Grace M. E. church, Twenty-seventh and R streets, this evening. All are invited.

Senior-junior foot ball game Thursday at 2:30 o'clock.

Pershing Rifle drill Thursday evening.

Old members' program by Delian society Friday evening.

Annual sophomore hop at Courier hall Friday evening.

Reception and ball by Mrs. Frank Woods at Walsh's hall Friday evening.

Geneva meeting by Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

PERSONAL.

J. Dean Ringer has been pledged to the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Kitty Agnew of Plattsmouth is one of the new pledges of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Miss Marguerite Winger left Sunday for Tecumseh, where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Anne Wetzel of Omaha is visiting her daughter, Miss Edna Wetzel, for a few weeks.

Allan E. Sedgwick of York was initiated into the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity on Wednesday evening.

Kate M. McHugh of Omaha was the guest of the Delta Gamma fraternity on Friday evening.

Edgar Banghardt, '98, principal of the schools at Crete, Neb., was a visitor over Sunday.

Adelaide Dely, one of last year's conservatory pupils, has returned to resume musical studies.

Miss Flora Bullock, a former instructor in journalism, was visiting the university last Friday.

Professor Powers, who has the chair of biology at Doane college, was a visitor at the university last Saturday.

S. B. Sloan, '99, and Keene Abbott are taking work in English under Professor Ansley in the University of Iowa.

Mrs. Willits Sawyer, formerly Miss Georgie Case, is visiting the Delta Gammas and other old university friends.

Robert Graham, '97, now principal of the Arapahoe high school, attended the state meeting of superintendents and principals last week.

In the practice game on Wednesday Harry Crandall received a severe cut over the right eye. Three stitches were needed to close the cut.

Howard Parmelee, formerly assistant in the freshman chemistry laboratory and now with the Union Pacific at Omaha, spent Thursday at the university.

Manager Collett returned Tuesday from Omaha, where he made arrangements with Manager McCutcheon of Iowa for a game to be played on November 4 in Omaha.

David Lampert, formerly of the class of 1900, has enlisted in the Thirty-ninth volunteer regiment, which is now at San Francisco. Mr. Lampert was a member of Company D, First Nebraska regiment, but came home on account of sickness last January.

SAID IN VERSE.

I loved you, dearest, but you did not care;

Ah, well, I shall not pine in black despair;

Fate, for fond womankind, keeps balance true—

You'll love some prettier girl who won't love you.

LOCALS.

Gregory the Coal Man.

New books. University Book Store. The latest books in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Full line of writing tablets at University Book Store.

Fine "Pennant" writing paper at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

W. L. Boose, '99, of Plattsmouth, was in town over Sunday.

Nebraskan subscriptions taken at the University Book Store.

"Pennant" uni. writing paper in boxes at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Whatman, Crane and Weston drawing papers at University Book Store.

The Palladians are making arrangements for their annual Hallowe'en party.

Full line of tablets, writing pads and notebooks at the University Book Store.

"You'll have to hurry" and order your shirts at Harper's shirt factory, 1012 O.

A student reception was held in the First Presbyterian church Friday evening.

Physical examinations are proceeding rapidly in the physical training department.

Our university pins have come and are going fast. Get one at the University Book Store.

Lowney chocolate bon bons fresh every day at Hanna's drug store, corner 14th and O.

Professor Lawrence Bruner spoke before the science club of the Lincoln high school Wednesday.

Large stock of U. of N. writing paper now in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th. Envelopes to match.

Professor Hodgeman gave an interesting talk in chapel Sunday morning on the subject of bible study.

Wait for our new consignment of Waterman pens, every style, to be here this week. University Book Store.

Bicycle and camera supplies of all kinds. Typewriting and mimeographing. At "The Co-op," 322 N. 11th St.

Virgil Barber has gone to the western part of the state in the interests of the department of animal pathology.

Dr. Major gave an address to the teachers of the high school last Saturday afternoon on "The New Education."

The Delian society held an "autumn leaf" picnic last Saturday in the German club grounds west of the penitentiary.

The Delta Delta Delta fraternity held a chafing dish party at the home of Miss Salls, 1112 Q street, last Saturday night.

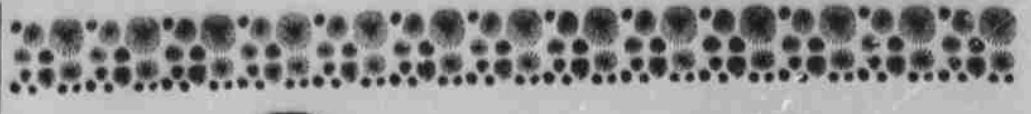

Third year gymnasium classes met Tuesday for the first time. The work will consist mainly of advanced apparatus work.

The Y. M. C. A. has fourteen bible classes organized. This is the largest number of bible classes in any university west of Cornell.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold its Geneva meeting, which was postponed from last week, next Sunday at 4 o'clock. Miss Florence Worley will sing.

Last year at this time the law school had an enrollment of about one hundred. There is an enrollment of one hundred and thirty-eight so far this year.

History covers, full size, leather back, 15c each at Herpolsheimer's Book Dept. A full line of students' notebooks, history paper, theme paper, Faber pencils, lead pencils, etc., at lowest prices.

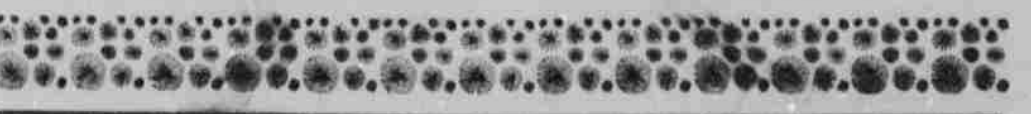

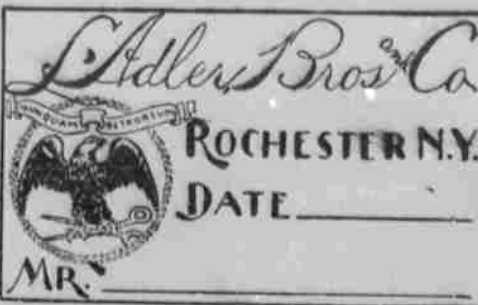

Good Clothes

Are to Respectability what the frame is to the picture..

Appearance go a long ways. More than ever before do clothes have an influence in determining one's first impression, sense and character of the man. It pays to buy stylish and well made clothing, such as bear the trade mark of L. Adler, Sons & Co. and Hart, Shaffner & Marx, and which compete successfully everywhere with the best custom work. We want every man of taste to see the exceedingly swell line of Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats from the above named manufacturers. You will be surprised at how handsomely you may be dressed for less than half what you have been paying your tailor.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS of the very latest design and fully tailor made, at $10, $12.50, $15.00, $16.50, $18.00 and $20.00.

Armstrong
Clothing
Co.

"Gregory the Coal Man."

The last of the physical training classes began as scheduled Monday. Students coming into classes later will make up all absences from that date.

The October number of the School Review, published by the University of Chicago, contains a paper on recent educational bibliography by Librarian Wyer.

Sixteen seniors, members of the Palladian society, met at the home of Miss Grace Cook Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the improvement of that society.

Hoop ball is now being played in the gymnasium and will continue to be the recreative game until Thanksgiving, when the basket ball season will commence.

The various class teams may be seen every day practicing signals and games will soon be played. A. S. Pearse and Fred Carver are coaching the senior team.

Laboratory work in the department of horticulture began October 7. The testing of seeds and the stratification of some walnuts was the first work done by the students.

All coal will go higher very soon if present conditions continue. It will pay every one to arrange for their winter's coal at once by seeing Charles B. Gregory at 1044 O street.

The junior law class met Tuesday and elected the following officers: Claude S. Wilson, president; A. McCracken, vice president; H. G. Meyer, secretary and treasurer.

Training has begun in two of the events for the annual charter day indoor athletic contest and the preliminaries for the standing broad and standing high jumps will be held in November.

Miss Ames of the library staff is classifying and arranging the mass of government publications relating to agriculture which has been accumulated by the experiment station during the past six years.

The agricultural department is a new yet flourishing department of the university. The enrollment to date is thirty-two; last year it was three. The assistants in this department are Misses Julia E. Longbridge, Richard Carr and William T. Horn.

The state convention of the Y. W. C. A. will meet in Lincoln October 27-29. The meetings will be held in the First Presbyterian church. The university association will look after the general management and the providing of entertainment for the delegates.

A movement has been started in Omaha to form a club of the alumni of the Nebraska university in that city. This club will be similar to those of Chicago and Washington. There is a rumor that similar plans for a club have been made in New York and Denver.

Sixty-six volumes of the French "Comptes Rendus" have just been received to complete the library file of this journal. It contains the official reports of the sessions of the French academy of sciences and is of the utmost value to all workers in scientific fields.

The senior law class perfected organization at a special meeting Friday afternoon. Everything went off smoothly and the following officers were elected: President, M. M. Alexander; vice president, A. A. Bishoff; secretary-treasurer, — O'Connor; sergeant-at-arms, R. M. Harris.

Emile Fauquet has invented a new method of admonishing people who are inclined to talk in the library. He has had printed a number of cards