

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Morrison will give a tea for Phi Delta Theta next Thursday afternoon.

Sigma Chi gave a party at their chapter house, Seventeenth and O streets, Friday night.

Miss Adelloyd Whiting and Miss Emily Jenkins entertained the Fairbury students last Saturday night.

A reception will be given by the Kappa Kappa Gammas for the Phi Delta Thetas at the home of Miss Mabel Richards next Friday afternoon.

Floyd Van Valin, '00, who left school last spring to work in a bank at Tekamah, was married last week at that place to Miss Fay Chilcott, formerly of the university.

A union meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. was held in the chapel last Sunday afternoon. Miss Lyon of New York, traveling secretary of the student volunteer movement, gave an address.

Charles Richard Welden, '95, and Mabel Edith Cushman, '98, were married at the home of the bride in Lincoln November 1. They will make their home in Wayne, where the groom is minister of the Baptist church.

Phi Gamma Delta entertained a few friends informally at her chapter house Friday evening with music and dancing. A farce, entitled "A Proposal Under Difficulties," was given by Messrs. Smith, Pancoast, France and Mudge. Light refreshments were served and the evening closed with some flashlight pictures.

Miss Lois Burruss and Katherine McPheely were initiated by the Pi Beta Phi at the home of Miss Darleen Woodward in East Lincoln Saturday afternoon, November 4. A banquet was held that evening at the home of Miss McGahey. Flowers and candy were received from several of the fraternities.

On Wednesday morning, November 8, at the home of C. C. Crowell in Blair, Neb., Lawrence M. Weaver, '99, and Miss Lydia Crowell, '00, were married. The wedding was a quiet affair and was witnessed only by the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will reside in Falls City.

The Delta Gamma fraternity gave a very pretty reception Friday evening to friends outside of university circles at their cosy new chapter house in Ingleside. Callers were received by Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Fisher and Miss Helen Woods. The drawing room was decorated with chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. Punch was served under a red umbrella covered with flowers by the members of the active chapter. Red was used for the shades and all decorations in the punch room. All of the rooms in the house, including the den, were thrown open to the visitors, who admired the dainty furnishings and the good housekeeping of the young ladies.

Thursday evening the Delta Tau Omega fraternity gave a delightful informal party at the chapter house, 1134 K street. The lower floors were canvased for dancing and card tables were arranged upstairs for those who preferred this amusement. The house was decorated with palms and white tea roses, the fraternity flowers. Ices were served throughout the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Marshall; Misses Bishop, Bonnell, Harpham, McPheely, Hammond, Kenney, Smith, Sedgwick, Tuttle, Du Tell, Andrews, Burruss, Lasch, Cady, Steiner, Anthony; Messrs. ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The university oratorical association held its annual meeting on Tuesday, November 7, and elected officers: President, Witbur; secretary and treasurer, A. C. Lee; vice president, C. W. Jones. An effort will be made by the association to form a league of the universities of neighboring states to take the place of the present inter-state association. The determined effort of the denominational schools to prevent law and post graduate students from entering the annual contest makes this action necessary.
