

SENIOR CLASS MEETING.

The senior class held a special meeting last Friday afternoon in the chapel to hear the report of some important committees. The chairman of the committee appointed to secure a commencement orator reported progress, Chauncey M. Depew, President Adams of Wisconsin and other noted men are being considered. L. W. Pearson reported for the committee on class insignia. The committee on class book reported that it was held advisable for the class to publish a book, and it suggested the following officers: Editor-in-chief, Paul Weeks; business managers, C. M. Funk and D. J. Adams; associate editors, Misses Grace Cook, Laura Stratton, Eugenia Macken, Marie Kennedy, Katherine Woods and Grace Rushton; chief artist, Miss Barbara Surt.

The class voted to consider the matter of class insignia and elect the managers and editors at a special meeting to be called on Friday, November 24. Fourteen seniors were then appointed on a motion made by one of the senior foot ball team as a committee to keep the crowd off the field during the coming contest with the sophomores. Each man was to be armed with a base ball bat.

SOPHOMORE CLASS MEETING.

The sophomore class meeting held Thursday, November 16, was not well attended. It was with difficulty that a quorum was gotten together. The meeting was called to order by President Nelson and a committee, composed of Miss Everingham and Messrs. Barker and Potts, was appointed to draw up resolutions giving the support of the class to all athletic teams, and the foot ball team in particular. Messrs. Garrett, Thomas and Barker were appointed to solicit subscriptions for the payment of some money still due the "Sombrero" for space taken by the class in the last issue. The committee appointed to draw up the necessary amendments and by-laws of the constitution was composed of Miss Barrett, Miss Sparks, Mr. Quinn, Mr. Potts and Miss Hartz. A committee was named to decide on new colors and a new class yell, it being decided that the old colors, brown and blue, were too common for so brilliant and promising a class. The members of the committee were Messrs. Rhodes, Warren and Nelson.

SOLDIERS ORGANIZE.

Former members of the First Nebraska regiment effected a permanent organization Wednesday afternoon. Officers were elected for the first semester as follows: W. J. Hunting, president; O. W. Meier, vice president; S. W. Hall, secretary-treasurer. A constitution and by-laws were adopted. The name of the organization is to be the Eighth Army Corps Club of the University of Nebraska. Any student of the university who has seen service in the Philippines in any United States army organization and has an honorable discharge is eligible to membership. The club is organized for social purposes and to keep the boys in touch with each other. It will meet on the first Monday evening of each month. Some kind of a war program is expected to be given during the year. There are thirty members of the First Nebraska in the university.

RECEPTION TO MISS LYON.

A reception in honor of Miss Lyon was given by the girls of the Y. W. C. A. last Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. It was held in the girls' parlor in the main building. The room was prettily decorated with the university colors, scarlet and cream, and palms, screens, couches and numerous sofa pillows added to the general coziness. Ices were served. While the room was crowded Miss Lyon spoke briefly of the work of the student volunteers.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Prof. Conway MacMillan of the University of Minnesota, an alumnus of the University of Nebraska, is the author of a volume on plant life, which the University of Minnesota has just published in an edition of 10,000. The typography of the edition is far above the ordinary, due to the careful attention Professor MacMillan has given the work.

G. F. Warren, '97, and Jessie L. Stanton, '99, who are teaching in the Fairbury high school this year, have been in Lincoln the past week, the Fairbury schools having closed on account of prevailing sickness.

LIST OF GRADUATES.

The list of alumni which has been compiled during the past year by the registrar, Miss Smith, assisted by Miss Quaintance, has been placed with Jay Barrett for criticism and correction. Much time and labor have been spent in trying to secure a correct list. Two and three letters have been sent to each graduate of the university and a list of 1,200 names has been secured. This leaves a few alumni who have not been heard from. Graduates who have lately changed their place of residence or who have not already reported the same to those having the work in charge are asked to send the same at once to Jay Barrett or H. G. Shedd of the executive office.

UNIVERSITY MEN IN POLITICS.

C. M. Skiles, '93, law '95, was elected county judge on the fusion ticket in Butler county. J. H. Barry, law '93, was re-elected county judge on the fusion ticket in Saunders county. W. H. Rhodes, '96, was elected county superintendent of Jefferson county on the fusion ticket. Mr. Rhodes was also here in '97-8, posting in history. Some of the university alumni were unfortunate. A. Ballenbach, '98, was defeated for county clerk and C. M. French for county superintendent. Both of these were running on the republican ticket in Richardson county. E. E. Boner was defeated for county superintendent on the republican ticket in Jefferson county. E. Howe was defeated for county surveyor on the fusion ticket in Pawnee county. J. A. Storch was defeated for county superintendent on the republican ticket in Maize county. Mr. Storch was second lieutenant of Company C, First Nebraska. S. H. Martin was defeated for county superintendent on the republican ticket in Saline county. Most of these men got their full party vote, however.

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Tables have been ordered for the Historical society rooms to accommodate those who wish to study there.

Bids are to be let soon by the state printing board for binding papers that have been collected this year. There will be about five hundred volumes in all.

A half-tone portrait of Senator Thurston has been added to the collection of the State Historical society.

Miss Jennie Smith of this city has brought in a bundle of old newspapers, some of them dating back to 1820.
