

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Eames has taken charge of the musical department of the Woman's club.

W. B. Hunter, '97, of Ponca visited friends and shouted for the team Saturday.

Miss Herberta Jaynes, '02, of Omaha was in Lincoln Friday to visit Delta Gamma.

George Shedd of Ashland and Burton Christie of Omaha attended the game Saturday.

D. F. Riddell and wife are both very seriously ill with typhoid fever at St. Mary's hospital.

Jack Sumner, '99, of Omaha was in this city last week for the Phi Delta Theta festivities.

Miss Katherine Lumery of Fullerton has been formally pledged to the Delta Delta Delta fraternity.

G. A. Davies, '98, of Rising City came in Friday evening to witness the Kansas-Nebraska game and see old friends.

Robert H. Manley, '97, of Fremont was in the city last Friday to attend the Phi Delta Theta party and the foot ball game.

Cassius Fisher of the geological department went to Beatrice Saturday to look over some stone quarries in that neighborhood.

Miss Belle von Mansfield, M. A., '98, a fellow this year in psychology, has been elected principal of the high school of Stromsburg, Neb.

John H. Barry, law '93, visited his brothers, F. W. and J. D. Barry, a short time last Saturday. He has just been re-elected county judge of Saunders county.

German Towie, an old university and First Nebraska boy, spent a few hours on the campus last Thursday. He is now a reporter on the World-Herald at Omaha.

Samuel McEllias, formerly second lieutenant of Company F, First Nebraska, entered the law department last week. He was the fusion candidate for county clerk in Madison county, but was defeated.

LOCALS.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

Harper, shirts, 1012 O street.

New books. University Book Store. Test tube swabs at University book store.

ed in the departments from which they came.

The latest books in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Writing tablets—full line—at University book store.

Fine "Pennant" writing paper at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

"Pennant" uni. writing paper in boxes at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Waterman Ideal, Remex and Lake-side pens at University book store.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.

For that tired feeling take Wrapson & Gee's mathematical and physical tables.

The Y. W. C. A. bible classes are becoming so large that new ones must be formed.

The senior class of the Beatrice high school will visit the university during the holidays.

The senior-sophomore foot ball game has been again postponed until this week, as all the scrubs were needed last week to give the first team practice.

The second term of the conservatory of music began this week with twenty new students.

Professor Swezey gave a short talk in chapel last Wednesday morning on meteoric showers.

All the new books and second-hand books and all student supplies. University book store.

Gas fixtures have been placed in the library halls for lighting the building early in the morning.

Large supply of university writing tablets with envelopes to match at the University book store.

The Union society will not meet this Friday, but instead will attend the Y. M. C. A. entertainment.

Third year French classes are now reading Loti's "Pêcheur d'Islande" and Racine's tragedy, "Esther."

Large stock of U. of N. writing paper now in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th. Envelopes to match.

Wednesday evening the cadet battalion put in the drill hour practicing rooting for the foot ball game.

Papers from the state farm are now brought in regularly every week to the state historical society rooms.

Fred Willis of Omaha has been secured to make one of the addresses at the committeeman's dinner December 14.

All students in scientific courses should have copies of Wrapson & Gee's tables, an epitome of scientific information.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. 226 South 11th St. Phone 848.

The students, like the majority of citizens, are buying their coal of C. B. Gregory this winter. It will pay you to interview him.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold a Thanksgiving service next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Kyle will lead. All are cordially invited.

The Palladians contemplate giving a number of special entertainments during the year. The matter is now in the hands of a committee.

The regular musical program at chapel time was postponed Friday morning in order for all to practice songs for the Saturday game.

The following new members were received into the Palladian society last Friday evening: Miss Bertha Blynn, J. D. Barry and Mr. Rinker.

J. S. Hunter of the entomological department addressed the Agassiz club of the high school last Wednesday afternoon on "How to Preserve Birds."

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

Dr. Lowrie of the Omaha theological seminary is to address the students at some time between Thanksgiving and Christmas on the subject of "Bible Study."

Acting Chancellor Bessey spoke to the students of the state normal at Peru on Thursday evening. His subject was "Nature Study in the Public Schools."

The officers of the Y. W. C. A. now hold weekly cabinet meetings. They find these meetings to be of great assistance in furthering the work of the association.

The Nebraska school masters' club met at the Lincoln hotel Friday evening. Supper was served. J. W. Crabtree read a paper on "The Secondary School and the College."

A large and enthusiastic crowd of students were at the Burlington depot Friday to receive the Kansas foot ball team. The university cadet battalion

"The young man who does not heed his dress is neglecting one of the most important steps to a successful career."

TOP COATS

If you think of buying a top coat this season we would like to show you the new styles made by

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

English Covert Cloths and Whipcords, Cheviots, Vicunas and soft finished Kerseys, silk sleeve linings, strap seams, horn buttons; also made of the stylish double-faced goods with fancy plaid back.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H S & M

TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

and band were marched down from the armory and helped swell the throng. The Kansas men were escorted to the Lincoln hotel by the band and cadets.

A match game of hoop ball is played every Monday and Wednesday evening in the gymnasium. The contests are between the teams of the various athletic and gymnasium classes.

New fencing has been built around all of the corrals at the university farm. It is expected to carry on extensive cattle and sheep feeding experiments there during the coming winter.

Many complaints will be heard when the new directory comes out because some addresses are not correct. There is still sufficient time to correct addresses. Attend to this matter at once.

The library has recently received two volumes of "Speeches and Orations" by Chauncey M. Depew. Each volume is inscribed in his own handwriting, "Compliments of Chauncey M. Depew."

Chapel exercises last Monday morning were led by Miss Lyon, traveling secretary of the student volunteer movement. She spoke briefly and earnestly of the work in which she is engaged.

History covers, full size, leather back, 15c each at Herpolshelmer's Book Dept. A full line of students' notebooks, history paper, theme paper, Fiber pencils, lead pencils, etc., at lowest prices.

A few days remain before the students' directory will go to press. Those who have not corrected their addresses are urged to do so at once. The addresses will appear as they are on the registrars' book.

E. R. Tingley has given a complete file of the Hesperian for the years 1885-89 to the university library. Such a file as this forms a valuable source from which to get much of the past history of the university.

In various towns of this state clubs for the extension of the study of music have been organized. The musical part of the program is furnished by different instructors, who go out from the university conservatory.

V. C. Barber of the experiment station has gone to Harrison, Neb., at the request of the citizens there to give an address on prevention and treatment of certain animal diseases at present prevalent in that section.

In a chapel talk last Tuesday Acting Chancellor Bessey spoke on the outcome of the foot ball game with Drake and urged the students to be present and cheer as never before for the scarlet and cream in the Kansas game Saturday.

At a meeting of the committee on accredited schools the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That no school with less than three years of high school work, aggregating at least one hundred periods, should be placed on the accredited list."

There are many in the university who have poll tax to work out before December 1. The employment bureau of the Y. M. C. A. has on its list a number of young men who will be glad to work this out. Drop into the Y. M. C. A. rooms and leave your name.

Miss N. J. Compton of the library staff is arranging the collection of theses submitted for degrees which has accumulated at the library during the past eight years. All those submitted in substantial binding will be catalogued and the entire collection grouped.

The agricultural experiment station building on the university farm is nearing completion. It is expected to occupy it by January 1. The building will house most of the offices and laboratories of the experiment station. 30