

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS.

Union society feed Tuesday evening.
Junior law and Falls City foot ball teams will meet at Falls City Thanksgiving day.

Nebraska-Grinnell game at Omaha Thanksgiving day.

Meeting of the Nebraska academy of science Friday and Saturday at the university.

Marriage of Miss Josephine Lott-ridge and Mr. Frederick William Alfred Kind Wednesday.

Latin colloquium meeting this evening at the usual place and hour.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Prof. Bruner visited his old home at West Point Saturday.

Miss Mae Colson, music, '98, has returned to the conservatory for post-graduate work.

Dr. Johnson, ex-chancellor of the University of Texas, visited the university last week.

J. W. Crabtree has been out the past week inspecting high schools along the Northwestern.

Miss Jane Douglas of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting her sister at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Emile Fonquet has returned from his vacation and again occupies his old position on the library staff.

Mrs. Lena Bedell of the class of 1900, an assistant in the department of geology, is now traveling on the Pacific coast with her husband.

Miss Alberta Jaynes of Omaha, after spending several days in Lincoln, left November 20, for a short visit in Beatrice.

M. E. Boren, a former student of the university, was married a short time ago to Miss Ethel Bagg of McCool Junction.

G. T. Slaughter, '02, who was one of the members of the First Nebraska, remained in Manila and has engaged in business there.

H. B. Snyder, a former student at the university, was married September 3 at Galena, Neb., to Miss Marie McGooden, a student at the university last year.

Professor Bruner is just completing a catalogue of the orthoptera of the Philippine islands, which will be published as a bulletin from the United States national museum.

Mamie Mills, class of '00, who was compelled to return to her home at Wahoo some time ago on account of sickness, is reported much better and expected back to school soon.

Miss Burruss and Miss Custer have returned to Lincoln after a pleasant outing in Colorado. Miss Custer will remain in Lincoln several days before returning to her home in Falls City.

Otis G. Whipple, '99, is at present in Canon City, Colo., having just returned from a very pleasant trip through the western part of that state, riding from Durango to Grand Junction on a broncho.

H. G. Shedd of the department of English will deliver an address on "English, the Cosmopolitan Language," before the educational association of northwest Nebraska at Crawford December 1.

Miss Ethel Free, pianist at the conservatory, who recently delighted the students with her music at chapel, has made a very successful concert tour through Iowa, playing at Council Bluffs, Glenwood and several other places. Her playing was also most cordially received at Omaha.

LOCALS.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

Harper, shirts, 1012 O street.

New books. University Book Store.

Test tube swabs at University book store.

ed in the departments from which they came.

The latest books in at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Writing tablets—full line—at University book store.

The next university news letter will be out December 4.

Fine "Pennant" writing paper at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Drawing papers, inks and pens at the University Book Store.

Don't fail to see our pocket dictionaries just in. The Co-Op.

Test tubes brushes, towels, labels at the University Book Store.

"Pennant" uni. writing paper in boxes at The Co-op, 322 N. 11th.

Waterman Ideal, Remex and Lake-side pens at University book store.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.

For that tired feeling take Wrapson & Gee's mathematical and physical tables.

The university senate will probably be called together on November 29 or December 6.

The largest stock of notebooks, tablets and stationery just in at The Co-Op, 322 N. 11th.

All the new books and second-hand books and all student supplies. University book store.

Webster's "Unabridged" Dictionaries to carry in the pocket at The Co-Op. The neatest thing out.

A number of the cadets in the university battalion met Saturday morning to begin taking saber drill.

Large supply of university writing tablets with envelopes to match at the University book store.

Rev. Mr. Manss of the First Congregational church conducted the chapel exercises Thursday morning.

Several fine photographs of the State University of Ohio have been received at the chancellor's office.

Students are always struck with "A New Thing." See it at The Co-Op, 322 N. 11th. A "Flexible" memo. and cover.

The first junior theme is due December 18; the second March 26, 1900. The senior themes are due January 17, 1900.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. 226 South 11th St. Phone 848.

At chapel Friday morning Miss Belle Warner sang and Earl Wehn gave a piano solo. Both were roundly applauded.

Every student who expects to receive a diploma in February, 1900, is requested to report to the registrar before December 1.

The space between the walks in front of the main building has been spaded up and one thousand tulip bulbs have been planted.

Dr. Bessey has been asked by the division of forestry to prepare a paper for use in the history of forestry in the United States.

The Union society will give its annual Thanksgiving feed at the Model restaurant this evening. A large number is expected to be in attendance.

Several valuable old books by De Candolle, Link, Persoon, Linnaeus and others have been received by Dr. Bessey for his private botanical library.

The trouble that has existed of late between the different fraternities has been amicably settled by all agreeing to buy coal of Gregory the Coal Man.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

The Latin colloquium will meet this evening at the usual hour in the main building. Topics of interest to persons in this line will be under consideration.

The Palladians will hold their annual Thanksgiving feed Wednesday evening in their hall. Many of the alumni are expected to be in attendance.

The Delian and Union societies adjourned their meetings Friday evening in order to attend the London glee singers' concert, given by the Y. M. C. A. at the Oliver.

The departments of botany, geology and zoology have just received a consignment of twenty-six large show cases from the government building at the exposition in Omaha.

Acting Chancellor Bessey gave a lecture before the Agassiz club of the high school last Wednesday on "Field Work in Botany." Dr. H. B. Ward will address the club this week.

The basket ball team will go into training immediately after the Thanksgiving recess. The prospective game with our old rival, Kansas, has already aroused some enthusiasm among the players.

The Palladians varied their regular program Friday evening by presenting literary games instead of a regular program. Several old-fashioned games were played to the great enjoyment of all present.

The following new students have registered at the conservatory of music: Helen Lowrie, Grace Dixon, Constance Ridnour, Alice McGrew, Harriet Davis, Frances Twiford, Eva Johnson, Ida Colee, Mrs. J. M. O'Neil and Charles Beuthner.

Suggestions for a sensible Xmas gift at Hanna's drug store. A. A. Waterman's fountain pens from $1.00 to $5.00; medallions from $1.00 to $15.00. Give us a call; we will be glad to show you our stock.

History covers, full size, leather back, 15c each at Herpolsheimer's Book Dept. A full line of students' notebooks, history paper, theme paper, Faber pencils, lead pencils, etc., at lowest prices.

A course on the cuneiform inscriptions of the Babylonians and Assyrians will be given in the second semester by Dr. Wilson of the department of linguistic science. The course is open to graduate and advanced undergraduate students.

The Harvard system of entrance requirements has been discussed by the committee on courses of study. Several principals and superintendents of the state have commented upon it very favorably. The university faculties will consider it later.

The university battalion of cadets appeared Wednesday evening in new uniforms and white gloves for the first time this year. The organization presented a fine appearance. Owing to the bad condition of the grounds the battalion was drilled in the armory.

The following circular has been sent out to the heads of departments: "For the purpose of providing the executive office with a full record, graduate students shall be reported to the registrar first, at the close of each semester as present or not; after each examination passed in a major or minor; when a thesis offered for a degree has been accepted." This was made a law by the regents April 19, 1899.

"What a man wears is a very reliable index of his character."

VALUE

WHEN you are ready to buy your new clothes you can safely put yourself into our hands.

Conducting our business as we do, and selling such goods as the suits and overcoats, we can certainly give you the right clothes and the best possible value for your money.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

We will be just as anxious as you are to have you pleased and satisfied.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H S & M

TAILOR MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.