Although the conservatory of music had but one day of vacation, a large number of the students went home and the building has taken on quite a deserted appearance.

The first preliminary event for the charter day contest will be held in the armory at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, when those wishing to qualify in the three standing broad jumps will have the opportunity.

Efforts are being made to settle the debating controversy. A paper is now going the rounds, an agreement to be signed by all contestants, allowing the chancellor to make secret appointments of the judges. It is hoped that in this way things may be amicably settled.

The Morning Critic: "The entertainment given at the Paddock opera house Tuesday evening by George R. Boomer was a splendid success. The house was well filled and the entertainment was well appreciated. It is a rare treat and should not be missed, especially by those interested in the Philippines, our new possessions." The lecture referred to is to be given in the chapel next Friday evening, December 8. Admission 25 and 35 cents. Tickets at the Co-Op, 322 North Eleventh.

The hoop ball games between the gymnasium classes during the past week were close and exciting. Monday evening the 11 o'clock class defeated the 8 o'clocks by a score of 31 to 15, and on Tuesday evening the 3 o'clock outplayed the 1 o'clock team by a score of 43 to 19. The final game for the championship has yet to be played. The 11 o'clock and the 1 o'clock class have won two games each. This game will be played Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the winners to play three games with the athletic class team for the university championship.

The basket ball season will soon open with three old men, R. R. Anderson, W. Anderson and Cortelyou, on the team and two positions to be won. This is the fourth year that basket ball has been played in the University of Nebraska and excellent team work may be looked for. Kansas has a team this year, with Hess, center of the foot ball team eleven, as captain, and they expect to put up a good article in basket ball. They have arranged an eastern trip and it is likely that they will meet Nebraska before the season is over.

Nebraska has had more experience in the game than Kansas, but the Jayhawkers have always been worthy foes in athletics and a good contest is assured if the two teams meet.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding celebrated in the Holy Trinity church Wednesday morning at half past 10 o'clock was that of Miss Josephine Lottridge and Mr. Frederick Kind. The decorations were simple, but very effective. Palms and airy bows of white tulle decorated the chancel. Rev. Mr. Eason performed the ceremony and Miss Elsie Fawell, gowned in white, sang the Lohengrin wedding march. Messrs. Baldwin, Butler, Marley and Liebman, the ushers, preceded the tiny ring-bearer, Josephine Lottridge, who was gowned in white and carried the ring on a white satin pillow. The bride entered on the arm of her mother and was met at the altar by the groom, attended by Mr. Homer Honeywell. The bride wore an artistic gown of gray Venetian cloth, trimmed with white applique, the skirt en train and having a knife-pleating of silk at the foot, the bodice elaborately trimmed in white satin applique with a slight touch of violet, and a white satin yoke. The hat matched the gown, and a beautiful bunch of violets completed the toilet. Mrs. Lottridge Kern was gowned in black grenadine over black silk, trimmed in velvet, and wore a hat to match her gown. A breakfast immediately followed the wedding, at which only the wedding party, relatives and the following out-of-town visitors were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Brad Slaughter, John Lottridge, George B. Millar, Miss Ella Breckenridge, all of Omaha; Mrs. R. R. Genge and daughter of Osceola and Mrs. Gewman of Des Moines, Ia. Miss Lottridge's parents came on the first train that ever found its way into Lincoln. Her father, John D. Lottridge, had great faith in Lincoln and was an honored citizen. He died in 1875. Miss Lottridge was born in Lincoln and has a large number of friends. Her education was completed in the university. Mr. Kind has lived in Lincoln for about ten years and is secretary of the R. H. Oakley Coal company. Mr. and Mrs. Kind left on the 2:15 train for Chicago and will be at home to their friends January 1 at Twelfth and T streets.
