

LOCALS.

Dr. Wente, dent'st.
 Gregory the Coal Man.
 University Book Store.
 Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.
 Second-hand books at the University Book Store.
 The day of prayer for American colleges will be February 11.
 Fun! fun! fun! The great humorist at the Oliver Thursday, January 11.
 For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.
 The third year French classes began reading Corneille's "Le Cid" last week.
 Latest maps of the Transvaal country are to be found at University Book Store.
 Last week Mrs. Manning began reading "Julius Caesar" for her advanced classes.
 All of the new books are to be found at the University Book Store, main building.
 The class basket ball teams are now playing a series of games for the championship.
 C. A. Philippi and Milan D. Baker have recently been voted into the Pershing rifles.
 Pocket dictionaries of German, French and English on hand at University Book Store.
 "Facing the Twentieth Century" will be the subject of Dr. Benton's charter day address.
 Miss Florence Worley took part in a concert at the state normal at Peru during the holidays.
 The university eighth corps army club will give its second program the first Monday in February.
 Dr. Ward has received some specimens of worms collected by the Harriman expedition in Alaska.
 Judge Good of Omaha will begin a course of six lectures on limitations to the senior law class Wednesday.
 Henry Eames of the conservatory played at Blue Island on December 28 and awakened much enthusiasm.
 Judge Hastings of Wilber concluded his course of lectures to the senior law class on surety and guaranty Friday.
 The cadets to avoid being reported, must now wear white collars which appear at least one-half inch above the uniform.
 The girls' varsity basket ball team is practicing regularly in order to get in trim to meet outside teams later in the season.
 There were forty-eight professors and graduates who took part in the exercises of the state teachers' association during the holidays.
 Professor Richards lectured before the methods class in pedagogy last Thursday afternoon on "Manual Training in the Public Schools."
 Six hundred and twenty-nine students have registered in the German department this year. This is a strong increase over last year's number.
 The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.
 H. R. Tucker has resigned the readership in American history in order to engage in teaching, and Miss Grace Cook has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Miss Cook was one of those who were elected to the Phi Beta Kappa society by the faculty two weeks ago on account of the high scholarship she had maintained in her university work.

On last Wednesday evening the resignation of Second Lieutenant B. B. Abey was accepted. Lieutenant W. H. H. Moore was re-transferred to fill the vacancy.

Jay A. Barrett has received an interesting publication from John Dowst of Manchester, N. H. It is a history of printers and printing and covers the period from 1420 to 1886.

Henry Eames will play at Seward January 17 before the woman's club. On January 20 he will give a "Shakespeare in Music" recital before the Palladians.

Mr. Carnegie is anxious to give Lincoln a new library. Mr. Gregory the Coal Man is willing to give each and every student a ton of Glen Rock coal for $5.75 a ton.

The graduate club will meet at the home of Dean Edgren, 1446 Q street, Saturday evening, January 13. Members of the faculty and their wives are cordially invited.

Detailed instructions are to be given out to the university janitors as to what they shall do in the case of an outbreak of fire in any of the buildings on the campus.

The book cases in the historical library will all be moved by the end of this week and two thousand books and pamphlets will then be added to those already on the shelves.

Fred Emerson Brooks will dispense his wares at the Oliver Thursday, January 11, this being the fifth number of the Y. M. C. A. star course. He is the funniest man on the course.

The following have registered at the school of music since the holidays: Marguerite Campbell, Edith Curry, Anna Helfenstine, Lora Martin, Mrs. Wittling and William Podlesak.

Base Ball Manager Howard is arranging for the team to play Notre Dame, University of Illinois, and there is a probability of their getting a game with the University of Michigan.

The historical society has been presented with an old relic by E. T. Hartley. It is a piece of one of the columns of the west entrance of the old capitol building erected in the early '60s.

Director Davison of the school of agriculture reports a total registration in the farmers' short course of one hundred and ten. This is fully one-third more than were expected by any one.

Miss Fossler, who has recently been advanced to the position of instructor in the chemistry department, has taken charge of the classes in organic chemistry, beginning at the first of the year.

The Y. M. C. A. gave a reception at the state farm Saturday evening, January 6. The association has chosen a committee of three persons to start a branch of the Y. M. C. A. at the state farm.

A new microscope has been received in the zoological department from the Bausch and Lomb optical company with a request to put it into use and subject it to actual test in order to try its efficiency.

Among the professors who talk of going to Europe next summer are Dr. Brace, Dr. Fling and Dr. Lees. The two former go for study and investigation, while Dr. Lees will take a party of students on a tour.

Dean Davis has just returned from the winter session of the Chicago division of mathematics, where he read a paper of R. E. Moritz, instructor in mathematics at the university, which is ranked very highly.

"The self respect a man gains by being well dressed is worth even more to him than the good impression his clothes make upon others."

QUALITY

WE wish every man could know the truth about these HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes; know how good the materials are, how well put together, how stylish and durable, and how easily we can fit him with a becoming suit and still leave him money for other things.

The quality of every H. S. & M. suit is warranted by the makers and you have our guarantee on top of theirs.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H S & M

TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

The junior law class has just begun the study of agency and domestic relations.

The law library will hereafter be open Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Professor Robbins is organizing practice courts in the senior law class. The class has finished common law pleading and is now ready to take up practical work along the lines of conducting cases through courts.

The first institutes of the season held under the auspices of the university were at Brock and Humboldt on January 4 and 5. Professor Burnett and Mr. Hunter were the representatives of the university present.

J. A. Barrett during the last week received a package of the archives of the state of New Jersey covering the period between 1738 to 1775. Mr. Barrett also received the Indiana session laws from the state librarian.

Beginning this month each cadet company will be inspected each month. The following dates are announced for January: Company A, January 8; company B, January 15; company C, January 19; company D, January 27.

O. W. Meier, Fred Humphrey and W. W. Baker have been appointed by the senior law class a committee to secure an address from Eugene V. Debs on "Injunction and Habeas Corpus." Mr. Debs will lecture in Omaha January 11.

It is probable that the following subjects will be given in the coming session of the summer school: Botany, chemistry or physics (or both), English, history (probably American), Latin, mathematics, philosophy, German and probably instruction in art.

Miss Alice C. Harris, a special botanical student three years ago, and since then assistant principal of the Cripple Creek (Colo.) high school, visited her friends in Lincoln during the holidays. She intends to return to the university next fall and complete her course.

Citizens visiting the university on business or otherwise are reminded of the rule of the board of regents to the effect that "smoking on the campus and in the university buildings is strictly forbidden." The value of the university property is too great to be endangered by fire from careless use of pipes, cigars and cigarettes.

The class in chemistry, which is making a special study of the chemistry of sugar, will make a trip to the large sugar factory located at Ames, Neb., the latter part of the month to look over the plant. Observations along the lines of their work will be made and several days will be spent in inspecting the latest methods of making beet sugar.

Professor Fossler has recently received busts of Schiller and Goethe. They are copies taken from the busts in the Waecmar library. The Goethe is by Rauch and the Schiller by Dannecker. He has also secured from Murnberg, Germany, colored drawings of mediæval architecture, which he will use in his class lecture work.

Dr. Ward attended a meeting of the state executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. at Omaha December 30. At this meeting it was decided to appoint a town secretary, whose business it would be to travel over the state and oversee the local associations. This is a new departure in Nebraska, but it has proved successful in other states.

The university dramatic club presented Mrs. Manning with a beautiful vase as a token of their appreciation of her work with them at an entertain-