

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

University Book Store.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Miss Katherine Woods spent a few days in Beatrice last week.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N. 13th.

Work in the base ball cage will begin immediately after examination week.

Members of the senior law class have commenced work on their final theses.

A students' public recital will take place at the chapel next Thursday evening.

F. J. H. Larson, '94, now a successful lawyer in Omaha, was in Lincoln last week on business.

Dale Gear, a former league player, will coach the Kansas state university base ball men this year.

The inspection for company C has been changed to January 29 and for company D to February 5.

Judge Good of Wahoo finished his course of lectures on "Limitations" to the senior law class Friday.

E. J. Brown, law '01, of York was initiated into the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity last Friday night.

R. S. Bulla, '93, chemist for the bee sugar factory at Grand Island, visited university friends last week.

N. C. Abbott, senior law, has been chosen to serve on the federal grand jury during its coming session.

Professor Barbour addressed the methods class last Thursday afternoon on "Geology in the Public Schools."

Clyde L. Huff of Little Sioux, Ia., and Bruce W. Benedict of Lincoln have been pledged to Delta Upsilon.

Fountain Pens, 14 kt. gold, at 50c, 69c and $1.00 each at book and stationery department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The junior class will meet January 26 at 2 o'clock in room 111. Election of officers for the second semester will be held.

Dr. Long, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, addressed the Y. W. C. A. at their regular meeting last Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Sherman will give a reception for Mr. Elbert Hubbard Wednesday afternoon at their residence, 1234 J street.

Regent Forell came down from Kearney Thursday to investigate the progress of the contractors of the new building on the farm.

Acting Director Lyon of the experiment station delivered a lecture on "Forage Crops" before the institute at Arlington last Saturday.

Have your clothes pressed and cleaned at the People's Sutorium. Suit pressed, 50c; pants pressed, 15c. Students' agency at The Co-Op.

The Palladians did not hold a meeting last Friday evening on account of the piano recital which was held in the chapel Saturday evening.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. Room 314, third floor, Richards block. Phone 848.

A beginning course in domestic science will be offered the second semester. All wishing to register for this should see Miss Bouton at once.

The city Y. W. C. A. gave a membership banquet last Tuesday evening at their rooms on Twelfth and P streets. The university was well represented.

F. S. Johnson of Lincoln has donated two relics of early days in Nebraska in the shape of stone battle ax and a chisel once used by the Indians.

The fire in the main building last Thursday demonstrated the fact that wood would burn. For a cord of nice cord wood go to Gregory the Coal Man.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

Secretary Barrett of the state historical society is busy compiling newspaper statistics for the use of the state press association, which meets here this week.

General announcement folders for work in domestic science will be out in a few days. Many are to be distributed in the farmers' institutes throughout the state.

For history covers, history paper, note books, fountain pens and all other college supplies go to the book and stationery department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

Orders were read Friday evening that there will be no drill until Monday evening, January 29. There will be no drill of the Pershing Rifles on Thursday evening.

The "see" basket ball team is developing prosperously. S. Anker, the manager, announces that the team has challenged company A and will play some time next week.

The University Book Store will carry a full line of books for the second semester work. Of course, they always carry a full line not only of books, but of all supplies.

W. C. Melford will be in school again next semester. Melford is best known as the captain of the foot ball team of '98. He will probably play base ball again this spring.

Professor Maggi of the Nebraska school of oratory gave a reception to his students at Walsh's hall last week. Many members of his classes in the university attended.

Ed Whitcomb of Friend, Neb., has contributed two Spanish swords to the historical society. They were given to Mr. Whitcomb by ex-Governor Dawes, who is now in Cuba.

Wanted—Bachelor girl with three warm, light rooms and piano wants two or three lady roommates; references exchanged. Address Bachelor Girl, care Nebraskan-Hesperian.

Several changes will be made in the English department next semester. E. F. Piper will take charge of the first year Shakespeare class, while H. G. Shedd will direct the work in journalism.

Seats for the great Paderewski recital on sale at Crancer & Curtice's January 29. Mail orders received now. Reserved seats $3. Address William Kimball, University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

At the sophomore class meeting Saturday the constitution of the organization was changed. Class presidents and other officers will now be elected at the beginning of each semester instead of once a year.

Manager Howard of the base ball team has made arrangements with Kansas to compete for the Herpolsheimer cup. The cup will be awarded to the team winning the greater number of games.

Professor Richards has made several additions to his department apparatus during the last two weeks. This was made necessary by the large increase in the number of students in the agricultural school.

In domestic science course I will be offered the second semester with two hours' credit and time to be arranged later. Students should consult Miss Bouton before registering for this

"A man who is careless about his personal appearance, will be careless of everything else."

STYLE

THE first thing that attracts your attention about the clothes is their smart, dressy appearance.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

They are cut in the latest, correct style.

They have the right expression.

They fit and keep their shape better than any other clothes you can buy.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H S & M

TAILOR MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

course and Dr. White for the chemistry courses.

Professor Nicholson, who has been granted a year's leave of absence from the university, spent last Thursday and Friday with university friends. He has been sojourning in Colorado and was on his way east, where he expects to spend some time.

The Friday morning musical in the chapel consisted of a violin solo, "Scene de Ballet," De Beriot, played by Miss Shepard; piano selection, "Spanish Caprice," Moskowski, by Miss Masse; song, "Meet Me Love, Oh Meet Me," De Koven, by Miss Hearn.

G. G. Hedgecock and A. A. Hunter presented an article on the "Red Sea Weed" in the December number of the Botanical Gazette. This plant was discovered about a year ago in Rock creek, a few miles northeast of Lincoln. A plate, drawn by Miss Edna Hyatt, illustrated the article.

Dr. J. L. Goodknight of Covington, O., visited the university January 13. Dr. Goodknight was formerly the president of the University of West Virginia and was the originator of the all-year plan for that institution. He strongly favors the plan and recommends it to the University of Nebraska.

The senior law class has been busy the past week discussing the election of class officers for the last semester. As the management of the senior banquet rests with the class officers there is much rivalry for places. For president the names of H. E. Wilson, G. D. Talbot, Tom Roddy, R. S. Baker and H. S. Meier have been mentioned.

Music, vocal and instrumental, slightly soiled, at 1c to 5c per copy during the following week. Frames for cabinet size photographs, gilt, with brass corners and oval mats, 25c each. The best line of picture moulding in the city at lowest prices. Posters, unframed pictures and matboard in all colors, music and picture department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Unions had a well attended and very interesting program last Friday evening. Original sketches were read which deserve special mention at which showed marked ability on the part of the writers. The program was closed by a short but interesting debate. At the business meeting V. Peterson and Miss Livesey were received as new members and the name of Mr. Duff proposed.

The English club held their regular meeting last Saturday night with Miss May Hopper in the Y. M. C. A. building. The program consisted of music by Miss Annette Abbott and Miss Grace Reynolds and a story by Miss Elsie Blandin. A valuable autograph letter of the Poet Longfellow was received, the gift of Dr. Sherman. After a social good time the club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Miss Edna Polk, 1607 L street.

ATHLETIC BOARD MEETING.

A meeting of the athletic board was held Monday evening, January 15. W. E. Anderson was elected captain of the basket ball team and R. W. Bliss was elected captain of the base ball team unless M. S. Moore, the regular elected captain returns. R. D. Anderson was chosen captain of the track team. Reports from the track, basket ball and base ball managers were read. Track Manager Clinton reported that a meet had been scheduled with Iowa, to be held in Lincoln; also a meet with Kansas will be held at Lawrence. Ames and Drake colleges of Iowa have written for meets, but no dates have been scheduled. Basket Ball Manager Hewitt has secured games with Omaha and Lincoln Y. M. C. A. teams and possibly a game with Kansas university. Manager Howard of the base ball team planned an eastern trip for the team. Games will be played with Michigan and Illinois and other teams.