

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

University Book Store.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

A circular of the school of art will be published in a few days.

A circular concerning the school of domestic science has been issued.

For up-to-date university hair cut go to Westerfield, the barber, 117 N 13th.

The literary societies gave their annual joint reception at Walsh's hall last Friday evening.

The cadet battalion has been requested to take part in the national butter makers' association parade.

The last number of the university news letter is an unusually large one, including six full length columns.

Fountain Pens, 14 kt. gold, at 50c, 69c and $1.00 each at book and stationery department, Herpolzheimer & Co.

High grade photography. Prices to suit everybody. Special attention given to students. Elite Studio, 226 S. 11th st.

George Shedd, principal of the Ashland high school, came down to attend the Elbert Hubbard lecture last Wednesday.

Superintendent McHugh of the Plattsmouth schools was in Lincoln last Saturday and visited friends about the university.

The visit to the university of Mrs. King, state secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has been deferred until the latter part of February.

J. W. Dinsmore, superintendent of the Beatrice schools, spent a few days in Lincoln last week and visited many university friends.

A fine photograph of Elbert Hubbard will be framed and hung in the chancellor's office with some pictures of other prominent men.

Have your clothes pressed and cleaned at the People's Sutorium. Suit pressed, 50c; pants pressed, 15c. Students' agency at The Co-Op.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. Room 314, third floor, Richards block. Phone 848.

C. H. Sargent has presented to the botanical department a couple of fine pods of the vanilla bean. They were secured at Cuicatlan in Mexico.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

For history covers, history paper, note books, fountain pens and all other college supplies go to the book and stationery department of Herpolzheimer & Co.

Dr. Hill has commenced a class in psychology for the city teachers, giving it in connection with Dr. Gordon's course in theory and practice of teaching.

Ten papers and addresses have been arranged for the annual meeting of the Nebraska conference of charities and corrections. The meeting will begin on Wednesday.

The Y. W. C. A. held a bright and lively song service last Sunday afternoon. Miss Florence Boose led the meeting and Miss Florence Worley directed the singing.

President Harper of the University of Chicago has informed Chancellor Bessey that he will not be able to accept the invitation to deliver the commencement oration in June.

The department of botany has received from the department of geology several fragments of fossil wood for examination. They have been determined to be a species of sycamore.

The students should remember that to enjoy themselves they must keep their health, and to have good health they must keep warm, and to keep warm they must buy coal—of Gregory the Coal Man.

George Snider, ex-'00, has re-entered the university this semester. Mr. Snider was a sergeant in company B, First Nebraska. He ran for superintendent on the republican ticket in Madison county last fall.

Dr. Bessey has just completed a somewhat extended paper on forestry or the national division of forestry in Washington. This was prepared on request of Dr. Pinchot, the chief of the forestry division.

The University of Pennsylvania has requested the University of Nebraska to send two delegates to the ceremonies which will be held in connection with the dedication of its new law building on February 21 and 22.

Eugene Curtin, '00, has re-entered the university. He will only take a few hours, as he is also finishing a course at the Lincoln business college. Mr. Curtin has been out of the university since April, 1898, when he joined company D, First Nebraska, as a private. He came out a sergeant.

The meeting of the botanical seminar which was held January 20 was given over entirely to the discussion of that phase of ecological botany which deals with the pollination of flowers. The subject was presented by Dr. Clements and discussed by Dr. Pound, Dr. Rimbach, Mr. Bell, Dr. Bessey and others.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. who have not yet paid their dues are requested to attend to this at once. At the west end of the hall, second floor, main building, will be found a box; beside it is a box of envelopes. Put the dollar in an envelope, write your name and address on the outside and drop the envelope in the big box.

Posters at half price. Anna Held, Maud Adams, Maxine Elliott, Deming's Indians and many others will be on sale this week at the picture and music department, Herpolzheimer & Co. These will be sold at 65c each, and as we have but a limited quantity will not last very long. Mat board for mounting posters in all shades at 25c per sheet.

The junior prom will be held on February 16 and from present indications at the Lincoln hotel. If one hundred tickets are sold during the following week it will be possible to hold the dance at the auditorium, as the hotel is wanted for another event on that date. Any information can be secured from H. H. Roberts, chairman of the committee.

About five hundred people were given an opportunity to meet Mr. Elbert Hubbard last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Dr. Sherman, 1234 J street. The guests were received by H. G. Shedd and Dr. and Mrs. Sherman and presented to the distinguished man. Chocolate and coffee were served in the dining room by the young ladies of the English club.

H. Clapp, '00, was in the city a few days last week. He had been at a hospital in Omaha having his wound attended to. Mr. Clapp was a sergeant in company D, First Nebraska. He received a severe wound in his leg while on the campaign to Malolos. His wound is still very severe, causing him to constantly use his crutches. He went from here to his home at Fairbury.

The charter day program so far as arranged is as follows: On the evening of February 14 a public address will be given by a member of Sigma Xi. On Thursday the board of regents meets, and also the university council and Phi Bet Kappa. At 4 o'clock an athletic exhibition will be given in the gymnasium. Dr. Benton will give the charter day address in the evening at the Oliver theatre. Several students will also receive their diplomas.

The Palladian literary society has prepared appropriate resolutions upon the death of Dr. Amos G. Warner as follows: "We realize the great loss that we, as a society, the world of letters and the cause of humanity have sustained by his death. We, the Palladians of the University of Nebraska, wish to acknowledge our appreciation of his worth and extend our sympathies to the sorrowing family." The members of the committee were: Walter J. Hunting, Frank R. Miller, Miss Cora O'Connell and Miss Nona M. Johnston.

Acting Chancellor Bessey has received a notification to the effect that the next meeting of the north-central association of colleges and secondary school will occur at St. Louis March 30 and 31. The university is a member of this association and accordingly the acting chancellor is expected to attend. He has been requested also to designate a second representative. In connection with this meeting will occur the annual banquet given by the trustees of the Missouri botanica garden in honor of the late Henry Shaw, and to this the delegates are invited.

The next meeting of the Eighth army club will be on Monday evening, February 5, at 8 o'clock in Palladian hall. The following program will be given: Experiences of a first sergeant, C. C. Telleston; a talk on some phase of the Filipino war, Eugene Pierce; scientific work under difficulties, Jerry Rebmann. The election of officers for the second semester will occur. All soldiers who have seen service in the Philippines are invited.

"It is difficult for the world to believe that a man is any better than his clothes."

VARIETY

YOU get full value for your money when you buy the HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX clothes. They are "ready-to-wear" clothes with all the advantages of fine merchant tailoring and none of its drawbacks. You get the style, the service, the good fit, the good looks, without the high price.

We have the H. S. & M. suits and overcoats in all sizes, in many styles and at various prices.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX

H. S. & M.
TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

ARMSTRONG CLOTHING CO.,

1013-15-17-19 O STREET.

This applies to those outside as well as those attending the university.

Dr. P. A. Rydberg, '91, is just issuing a 500 page book entitled "A Catalogue of the Flora of Montana." This is the result of the work of two seasons in Montana undertaken in connection with the university botanical department. The book when issued will contain not less than 700 additions to the list of plants of that region over and above those which are recorded in the manuals for the Rocky mountains. Dr. Rydberg is now one of the officers of the New York botanical garden, a position which he attained on account of the excellence of work done in this university.

TO WHIST PLAYERS.

Everybody in the university interested in whist is requested to come to room 310, university hall, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, February 3. The object of the meeting is to organize a university whist tournament. Signed William R. Heartt, N. C. Abbott, Fred France, B. F. Skiles, G. D. Talbot, William O'Conner, F. E. Snider, T. F. Roddy, T. K. Hollenbeck, C. L. Davis, H. J. Wertman, F. H. Alexander, A. A. Sims, John Plowhead, J. E. Baker, Charles E. Foster, J. R. Langer, W. A. Coffman and R. B. Morgan.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Whereas, God in His providence has seen fit to call to his final reward the brother of our fellow student and brother Delian, Harry M. Garrett; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Delian literary society, express our sincere sympathy to our bereaved brother; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be filed with the secretary of the society; also that these resolutions be published in the Nebraskan-Hesperian and a copy sent to our brother,

MAY M. BUCKMASTER,
MABEL F. WILCOX,
M. D. BAKER,
CHAS. J. ALLEN.