

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

University Book Store.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Miss Grace Bennett has been initiated into Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Dr. Majors has change of the classes of the late Dr. Solomons.

The meeting of the university council called for charter day has been postponed.

The agricultural students' association will hold its annual meeting on February 19.

A careful estimate shows the present enrollment for the current year to be at least 2,055.

S. P. Swallow, '01, left last Tuesday to accept a position as instructor in the Harvard schools.

Owing to sickness Professor Lyons was unable to meet his classes last Thursday and Friday.

Dr. Sherman has consented to act as judge of manuscript of orations for the Kansas state oratorical association.

Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, called on Acting Chancellor Bessey last week.

Fountain Pens, 14 kt. gold, at 50c, 69c and $1.00 each at book and stationery department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Northwestern line is the pioneer line to the Twin Cities. Double daily limited trains. Remember this line.

February 11, the day yearly set apart for prayer for colleges, was duly observed by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Have your clothes pressed and cleaned at the People's Sutorium. Suit pressed, 50c; pants pressed, 15c. Students' agency at The Co-Op.

M. B. Ketchum, M. D., oculist and aurist. Specialty, correction of abnormal vision. Room 314, third floor, Richards block. 'Phone 848.

The only thoroughly good place in the city where a student can get any kind of board that he wants is at Cameron's cafe, 114-118 South 11th street.

Miss Jean Tuttle, formerly a student at the university, was elected last week to the position of mathematics teacher in the South Omaha high school.

Raymond E. Benedict, '00, left last week for Montana, where he goes to work in a lumber camp. He will probably return to the university next September.

Notice has been received at the chancellor's office that the national educational association will hold its next meeting from July 7 to 13 at Charleston, S. C.

The Q. A. T. club will give a pre-nuptial luncheon in honor of Miss Alta Wilson at the home of Miss Lena Anthony, 1851 G street, next Tuesday afternoon.

Professor Nelson of the University of Wyoming and Professor Harper of the University of Wisconsin have presented their photographs to the department of botany.

For history covers, history paper, note books, fountain pens and all other college supplies go to the book and stationery department of Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Northwestern line and the F., E. & M. V. R. R. announce to the traveling public that they will make the low rate of $17.50 to Hot Springs, S. D., and return on February 6 and 20 and March 6 and 20.

Miss Grace Montgomery, Beth Marshall and Gladys Henry were initiated into Pi Beta Phi on the evening of February 3 at the home of Miss Darleen

The BIG SALE

ooooOfoooo

Men's Odd Trousers

Continues and is the most talked of and most heavily patronized mercantile event of the present season. Hundreds are taking advantage of this sale and are supplying their future Trousers needs while these bargains last. Remember that there were 1000 pairs bought for about half value and that we are selling them at a very slight advance over and above what we paid.

Nine Great Lots—See what they are and what they are worth.

Lot 1 at $2.98

500 pairs of Men's finest tailor made Trousers, made of fine stripe and check worsted, hard finished cashmeres and solidly woven cheviots, worth in any store $4.50, $5.00 and $6.00.

Lot 4 at $1.98

475 pairs men's pants in one lot, elegant patterns of worsteds, modest and durable things in cashmeres, serviceable things in cheviots, for general business wear. True values $3.50 and $4.00.

Lot 7 at 98c

600 pairs of men's pants in this lot. Value for value they equal the general line being sold hereabouts for $1.50 and $1.75.

Lot 2 at $2.75

450 pairs men's tailor made pants, cut from worsteds, cashmeres and cheviots, all are pure wool and are elegantly made; scarcely a pair in the lot worth less than $4.50, $5.00 and some as high as $5.50.

Lot 5 at $1.50

500 pairs of men's pants in all in this lot. They're all wool cheviots and cashmeres in fancy and plain colorings. They are worth easily $2.50 and $3.00 per pair.

Lot 8 at 89c

300 pairs in this lot, not a great many patterns to select from; they are, however, as good as you many see outside our store at $1.25 and $1.50.

Lot 3 at $2.50

425 pairs of men's fine quality pantaloons; these are remarkable values, being grades from goods worth $4.00 and $4.50 and some as high as $5.00. Maderias, worsted, cheviots and cashmeres. Every pair fully warranted.

Lot 6 at $1.25

400 pairs in this lot; no greater values shown in our city at $2.00 and $2.50. They are well made, handsomely cut and we guarantee perfect satisfaction to the buyer.

Lot 9—Boys' Odd Long Pants

Boys' long pants worth 80c go at .40.50
Boys' long pants worth $1.00 go at .75
Boys' long pants worth $1.50 go at .98
Boys' long pants worth $2.50 go at 1.40
Boys' long pants worth $3.00 go at 1.98

All the Men's Pants above mentioned, except Lots 6 and 7, run in sizes 30 to 50 waist size and 29 to 36 leg length.

Armstrong Clothing Co.

Woodward. The initiation was followed by a gay fraternity banquet.

There has been a great demand by agricultural papers all over the United States for various cuts of the University of Nebraska buildings, and especially for information of experiments carried on at the university farm.

Professor Williston, dean of the new medical school of the Kansas university, will give a talk before the faculty and students of the preparatory medical course on Wednesday afternoon in the chemistry lecture room.

Charles Engel, '02, of Omaha, who was compelled to leave school last fall on account of the typhoid fever, is in Lincoln visiting friends at the Phi Psi house. He will leave soon for a sojourn in the east and will re-enter the university next September.

While it is a fact that different dealers make claim to having the best coal on the market, we make no boast we cannot prove by letting the coal speak for itself. The Glen Rock coal at $5.75 a ton for soft coal burners cannot be beat. Gregory the Coal Man.

At a meeting of the junior class Thursday the following officers were elected: President, Harry McKillip; vice president, Miss Katherine McLaughlin; secretary Miss Edith Jackson; treasurer, Miss Grace Andrews; sergeant-at-arms, H. H. Roberts.

The poster valentine is the correct thing this year and only costs 6 cents each. They come in twenty different designs mounted on colored mats. Book and stationery department, Herpolsheimer & Co. Valentines in lace, cards and celluloid from 1/2 cent to $4 each.

The libraries of the experiment station, the horticultural, agricultural and animal pathology departments have been placed in a room at the state farm. It will be under the control of the university librarian and will be open four hours daily in charge of an assistant.

On last Wednesday the remains of Dr. Solomons were carried to the B. & M. depot and started to Berkley, Cal., where they will be interred. Three university professors and three friends from the city acted as pallbearers. Company A was detailed to accompany the body to the station.

Of the women who have graduated from the University of Nebraska, 263 have taken the degree of A. B. and B. S. Of this number three have died, sixty-four have been married, thirty have taken their master's degree and eight are now studying for the doctor's degree in some institution.

J. C. Hitchman, '98, formerly instructor in mechanical drawing in the university and now in the draughting office of the Union Pacific in Omaha, spent last Sunday visiting friends. Fritz Kormsmeier, '97, who is connected with the Omaha Daily News, also came down to spend Sunday at his home in this city.

The junior prom will be held at the Lincoln hotel on the evening of February 16, 1900. Several alumni will attend the charter day exercises on Thursday and remain over to attend the dance on Friday evening. W. E. Andreson has resigned from the committee and R. A. Drain has been appointed to take his place.

The trip which the class in sugar chemistry had intended taking to the new beet sugar factory at Ames has been indefinitely postponed on account of the inability of the factory to operate. This is accounted for by the fact that the many tons of sugar beets which were stored away last fall for use this winter have rotted on the company's hands.

The university observatory was open to the public last Monday night in stead of on the second Monday of the month, as usual. A number of guests took advantage of the opportunity to use the big telescope, but on account of the clouds no accurate observations could be made. The observatory will be open again to the public on the evening of February 12.

The English club met at the home of Miss Edna Polk, 1607 L street, on the evening of February 3. Miss Eva McCune read a story and R. C. Lansing an essay. Taen a flower, a pencil and a pencil were given to each person, who was expected to write a poem on the flower. Some bits of verse of merit were produced. Refreshments were served and the club adjourned at a late hour.

A series of basket ball games played to determine the best team in the divisions of Miss Whiting and Miss Spurek has been completed. The two winning teams will play the final game for the championship on the morning of charter day at 10 o'clock. All ladies wishing to see the big game will be admitted free. The competing teams will be: Miss Whiting's—The Misses Lasch, Henry, Yont, Maxwell, Shields, with Miss Mamie Miller as captain; Miss Spurek's—Misses Hargreaves, Nixon, Wetzel, Spurek, Robinson, and Miss Charlotte Mead, captain.

To almost every girl there comes, between girlhood and womanhood, a time when she feels prompted by her own vitality to take some share in the world's work. It accounts for much that is vigorous in church and social life. Cornelia Atwood Pratt writes of this period in the March Delineator. Her article is thrilling and will in itself do much to induce directness of aim. In the same number, as if to add meaning to Miss Pratt's thoughts, there is a well illustrated article of great interest to women, dealing with the leaders of women's colleges and some of the co-educational institutions.