

TO COACH STANFORD.

After much care and consideration, the question, who should coach the Cardinal for 1900, has been decided. The gentleman on whom depends the outcome of next Thanksgiving day, as far as Stanford is concerned, is F. H. Yost.

Mr. Yost was graduated from Lafayette College in 1896 and was a tackle on the champion team that defeated Pennsylvania that same collegiate year. Immediately afterward he was on the all-star eleven of Pittsburg which was made up of such men as Heffelfinger, Lea, Treachard, Brooke, and Donnelly. In the fall of '97 he coached and brought into prominence the Ohio Wesleyan university eleven, which that year held Michigan down to a 0-0 score.

The next year Yost was called to coach the team of the University of Nebraska. Out of an indisposed student body, and out of dissenting factions, he evolved a team that won the championship of the Middle West. That year Nebraska beat Kansas 18-6, and Missouri 47-6.

Last year he signed with Kansas and closed the year with a wonderful record. Of the ten games that Kansas played, not one was lost. She beat Nebraska by a score of 36-20. Benedict, Nebraska's star drop-kicker, landing four field goals, Missouri was beaten by Kansas 34-6.

Yost has played the positions of tackle and half-back, first on his college team and later with Pittsburg.

Yost is a man of excellent reputation as a gentleman. His moral character is unimpeachable. He has the happy faculty of winning the respect and admiration of all whom he meets in his work. The grand secret of his success seems to lie in the fact of his ability to develop magnificent team-work. This is shown by the details of the work done by teams he has coached.

Of all the men that have been in the field for this year's management to select from, none has presented such evidence of being master of his profession as Mr. Yost. On evidence alone has he been chosen.—Daily Palo Alto.

COLUMBIA TO MEET PENNSYLVANIA ON THE GRIDIRON.

John C. Bell, chairman of the football committee, announced yesterday that Pennsylvania would meet Columbia on the gridiron next season. Although the date has not been definitely decided upon it is probable that the game will be played on November 10. This is the only open date of the schedule and is made possible by the discontinuance of the game with Michigan.

Mr. Bell announced that the Harvard game would be played either on the 3rd or 10th of November.—Pennsylvanian.

RECOGNITION OF WISCONSIN BY THE EAST.

Within the past five years the University of Wisconsin has risen from a position of comparative obscurity to one which places her in the class with the best eastern colleges in athletic standing. Our victory over the Yale freshman crew first brought us into prominence, and the hard brush we gave Pennsylvania last June together with our gridiron contest with Yale in the fall place us quite on a level with the eastern institutions. This has been evidenced by repeated invitations of late to meet them in various departments. Lately we have received an invitation to join in the inter-collegiate gymnastic competition, and the invitation will be accepted for another year if not for this year's contest. There now remains for us only to debate with some of the eastern institutions. The Georgetown contest is anticipated with much interest, but issues should be joined with other institutions also, especially as we can debate with distant colleges without the disadvantages to ourselves that result in physical contests from the fatigue of a long journey. Wisconsin's showing in debate with western colleges has been such as to make it extremely probable that she could meet her eastern sisters with great credit to herself.—Daily Cardinal.

HOW TO SAVE DOCTOR BILLS.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Meakle, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Druggists.

Wisconsin will probably be represented in the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie this year. Her aggregation will consist of three crews: a varsity eight, a freshman eight, and a varsity four.

Trial strength tests are now being carried on in the Harvard gymnasium to determine the fifty strongest men in the university and to choose a representative for the individual strength championship of America colleges.
