

Local and Personal.

Who is Ludwig?

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Gregory the Coal Man.

Lightning portraits at the chalk talk.

Try Westerfield's egg shampoo, for dandruff.

Art, wit, and humor at the chalk talk.

Wilson & Pacal Mens outfitters, 1042 O St.

Fun garnished with crayon sauce at the chalk talk.

O. T. Reedy, '98, spent Sunday in Lincoln, visiting old friends.

Dr. Wharton conducted chapel exercises last Tuesday morning.

Every lady student is invited to look at millinery at Mrs. Gosper's.

Talk with Miss Morgan about type-writing your thesis, 70 Lindell.

All kinds of job type-writing, Miss Morgan, Lindell or drop postal.

"The chalk talk—a quaint and novel blending of art, wit, and philosophy."

Orlo Brown, '99, is now located in Omaha with his brother Frank Brown '94.

Canon Pea, the best, cleanest, cheapest, $5.50 a ton. Gregory the Coal Man.

A. M. Moody '95 writes that he is now practicing medicine at Saville, Ohio.

Fotograf. Quality, Style, and Student rates at Elite Studio, 226 So. 11th. *

W. R. Boose, '99, now principal at Elmwood, visited Lincoln friends last week.

E. E. Telleston, 1902, went to Omaha Friday, owing to the sickness of his sister.

We do not make the cheapest Fotograf but we make the best. Elite Studio.

Don't miss the missing link at the chalk talk.

If you need a hack hat or a stylish dress hat you can find either at Mrs. Gosper's 1201 O St.

The Delian boys gave their annual contest program Friday evening, March 30, in the chapel.

G. M. Peters and W. G. Shock left for their respective homes, Albion and Falls City, last Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Sumner Crewitt will leave in May with Dr. and Mrs. Fling to attend the Paris exposition.

Wm. Grant, '97, is now acting head draughtsman in the chief engineer's office of the B. & M. R. R.

Rev. Mr. Doane of Plymouth Congregational church, conducted chapel exercises Tuesday, March 27.

Chancellor Bessey, who has been sick for several days, appeared in his office once more Monday morning.

Madame MacLean, who has been visiting Mrs. Weeks, 1327 H street, for some time, returns to Iowa City this week.

Nine Delian girls gave in Pantomime, "The Romance of the Ganges" at the Unitarian church last Saturday evening.

The state historical society has sent out specifications for bids on the binding of five hundred volumes of newspapers.

Miss Ida Taylor '00, who was compelled to stop her school-work on account of illness, visited university friends last week.

Mrs. J. A. Reed, of the history department went to Beatrice Wednesday evening to attend the educational association and hear Dr. Redway's lecture on geography and history.

The observatory has been open several nights this week that the public might view the planet Venus through the university telescope.

Professor J. W. Crabtree has returned from Hastings where he has been attending the southwestern Nebraska teachers' association.

Dr. Sherman was asked recently to conduct the English work in the institute to be held at Boulder, Colorado, during July, but declined.

The state historical society has recently received the furs worn by Corporal Gerrard, of Columbus, while stationed at St. Michaels, Alaska.

R. M. Rolfe of Nebraska City has sent to the state historical society, a bayonet from Fort Kearney. Mr. Rolfe is an old stager and one of the pioneers of the state.

The Seldon edition of the Topeka Capital was on file at the library during the week of issue and was extensively read particularly by the journalism students.

Congressman David Mercer writes to a friend at the university that Professor Harrington Emerson, who is known to all the old alumni of the university, is now interested in laying a cable from America to Manila.

At this season we make specially low rates on Mandolins, Guibars, Banjos, and other musical instruments and carry in stock a large line of Maurer, Washburne, Regal, as well as cheaper instruments. Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Engineering News of the current month contains an article by C. E. Bedell of the department of civil engineering. The subject is "A Simple Aid in Plotting Contour Lines." This is an ingenious scheme for saving labor as it greatly expedites figuring.

Company B gave its sixth annual hop at Walsh's hall last Friday evening. Twenty-two numbers were danced, beginning with Company B. waltz and ending with Taps. R. A. Drain was chairman of the committee in charge of the dance. L. J. Killian master of ceremonies.

If you want your pictures framed in the latest styles of moulding and at lowest prices in Lincoln you had better visit our Music and Picture department. We have an immense amount of sheet music vocal, instrumental, classic and popular, which we are closing out at 2c to 10c per copy.

Cornelius Jansen, Jr., '88, after having had charge of the department of German in the Beatrice high school for six years, will act as private secretary to his brother Hon. Peter Jansen, one of the commissioners to the Paris exposition. University alumni will always be welcome there.

An interesting article on "Publicity: A Remedy for the Evils of Trusts" by Professor Jeremiah W. Jenks of Cornell university is given in the April number of the Review of Reviews. Professor Jenks is said to be one of the foremost candidates for the chancellorship of the University of Nebraska.

In cleaning out the lumber room in the basement of university hall where the recent fire started, a box of rubbish was found which had evidently been there six or eight years. It was turned over to the librarian and after taking out some two hundred items which the library wanted the balance was sold for $16.

C. Story, L. Lightner, and R. L. Waterman represented the P. B. D. C. in the joint debate with a Wesleyan literary society on last Friday evening at Wesleyan university. The P. B. D. C. had the affirmative of the question, Resolved, That the United States should not remain neutral in the present Transvaal difficulty.

Double Breasted Frock

It is a matter of pride for us to have the best here for our customers—and to have it at the right price. We would like you to notice the superior fit and wearing qualities of our

L. Adler Bros. & Co.

...and...

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Clothing. Nothing equals them in style but the most expensive made-to-measure kind. Young men's Double Breasted Frock suits, made of Worsteds, Libits, and Vicunas, at $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, and $20.00.

Do not fail to visit our FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT this spring
Greatest line of Fancy Nick-Nacks ever shown by us before.

Armstrong Clothing Co.

The annual report of the directors of the Field Columbia museum has been received at the library. Among other things is a plate showing a remarkably fine group of the fossil corkscrews of Nebraska. This, next to the Morill collection of Daemonelex at the state museum, is the largest one in the country.

The university has just issued an eight page pamphlet containing cuts of the campus and buildings. A great demand for these is anticipated. A few of the copies of the half tones used have been struck off on heavy enameled paper and forwarded to the western state institutions that desire to frame them.

Don't forget that the cheapest place in Lincoln to buy fountain pens, history paper, note books, pencils, and all other school and college supplies is the Book Department of Herpolsheimer & Co. You will also find a large line of Easter Cards and Booklets, Easter Novelties, Testaments, Sunday school cards and other Easter goods in this department.

The most important addition to the Morill geological collection this term consists of several hundred specimens sent in exchange by the state survey of Alabama. These consist chiefly of shells which are so wonderfully preserved that they are mistaken by visitors for modern sea shells. This collection fills a case on the south side of the museum.

An announcement has been received from Oren F. Morton, at Morgantown, W. Va., concerning his novel entitled "Under the Cottonwoods," which will be published early in July. The plot of this book is laid in Cass county and deals with the coming of the set-tlar and his conquest of the prairie and its transformation into an agricultural country.

The Nebraska art association elected the following officers last Friday evening: President, F. M. Hall; vice-president, H. B. Lowry; recording secretary, Mrs. T. M. Hodgman; corresponding secretary, Miss Sarah S. Hayden; treasurer A. G. Greenlee; trustees, C. E. Bessey, D. B. Perry, J. Sterling Morton, Mrs. S. C. Langworthy, and Dr. Harold Gifford of Omaha. Nearly sixty members signed the constitution that evening. Quite a number were university people.

Librarian Wyer is in correspondence with the federation of graduate clubs regarding a union catalog of theses now in preparation for higher degrees in leading American universities. Such a catalog has been started and there are now 70 subjects on file. Any graduate student may send on the subject selected for a thesis and if it conflicts with subject chosen by any other worker the two students are put in correspondence. It is hoped by this plan to avoid duplication of work.

The graduate faculty are taking steps to raise the standard of scholarship of the graduate school. At a meeting last Monday a committee appointed some time ago relative to the requirements for admission to the graduate school and requirements for the masters and doctors degrees, made a partial report. This move is in accord with the action taken at a meeting of representatives of eastern and western universities at Chicago in February where a committee was appointed to secure uniformity in the requirements for a master's or a doctor's degree.