ORATORICAL CONTEST.

The Union literary society will hold its annual oratorical contest Friday evening, April 20 in Union hall. More interest is being shown in this contest than has been displayed in the society for several years. A committee on oratory was appointed last fall consisting of O. William Meier, Florence M. Weed, and Arthur C. Lee. As a result of their work a prize of $15 has been pledged by Messrs. Hatfield, Rhodes, and Scarsion to the first oration in the society and the society will give a prize of $10 to the orator who wins second place in the contest.

Six have registered for this contest. F. G. Hawxby will speak on "The Transvaal Republic." F. L. Bollen has written his oration on "Whither are We Drifting." L. J. Pospisil's Oration is on "Two Problems of the American People." J. T. Milek's subject is "The Outlook for the Future of America." S. C. Hawthorne will speak of "A Bright Spot in South Africa." H. S. Miller's production is on "The Duties and Responsibilities of American Citizenship." These gentlemen have given time and thought to their manuscripts and are now practicing on their delivery.

The orations will be supplemented by musical numbers on the program and the contest is looked forward to by the members of the society as one of the chief attractive features of the Union society this season.

George W. Berge, Judge Comstock, Rev. Dr. Manss, Horace F. Bishop, and Prof. C. W. Wallace will sit as judges at this contest. Every body will be welcome at this oratorical treat.

LECTURE-RECITAL ON GEORGE ELIOT.

A lecture-recital on "George Eliot," will be given in the chapel next Thursday evening, the 19th, by the noted writer and dramatist, Miss Mabelle Biggart of New York City. This will include Miss Biggart's condensed dramatization of "Adam Bide," and will be of especial interest to literary students. The orchestration will be given by Hagenow's string quartet.

Miss Biggart comes highly recommended and this entertainment promises to be unusually good and beneficial.

Jerry Rebman, who has been sick at a Lincoln hospital for about two months and was compelled to undergo two operations during that time, was able to be on the campus on Saturday.

J. R. Flodman '97, now a teacher in the high school at Wahoo, came to Lincoln Saturday to obtain some botanical specimens for his work there.
