Oliver Johnson, dentist, 11th and O, over Harley's drug store.

Mrs. C. E. Bessey expects to start soon on a two months' visit through the east.

Mrs. H. W. Caldwell is visiting in the east. She expects to be gone several weeks.

Dr. Jones has been working in the Andrew D. White Library at Cornell University.

Arthur Pearse, '00, is commandant of cadets and instructor in biology in the Omaha high school.

A. A. Waterman fountain pens, $1 and up, all guaranteed. At Hanna's drug store, Fourteenth and O.

Prof. Hodgman will conduct a column devoted to elementary mathematics in the Nebraska Teacher.

The second-hand books left at the University book store to be sold, will be found at the Co-Op, 322 North Eleventh street.

Students desiring places to work while in school should call at the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the basement of University hall.

Miss Olive Stratton, '00, is principal of the schools at Madison, Neb. Her sister, Laura M. Stratton, '00, is studying music in Chicago.

Edwin G. Cooley, principal of La Grange high school, succeeds Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews as superintendent of the Chicago schools.

Mr. J. H. Miller, who is well known in university circles, has accepted the principalship of the State Normal school at Cheney, Wash.

As in former years, the B. L. Paine Clothing store is found among the advertisers of our paper. It's the store that has a large student trade.

Mr. A. T. Bell, formerly assistant in botany in the university, has resigned that position and is now in the botany department at the Lincoln high school.

Students wishing board at reasonable prices will do well by trying the Merchants Dining Hall, 11 & P streets, two blocks from University. Meals 10c.

Class work begins September 22. On that day we may expect to see wild-eyed students rushing through the halls in search of the proper class rooms.

Mr. W. R. Hart, fellow in pedagogy, spent part of the summer in county institutes in different parts of the state. He spent two weeks visiting in Holdridge.

The large half tone cut of Chancellor Andrews on the second page has been printed on extra heavy paper, so that it may be cut out and kept as a souvenir photograph.

Joel Stebbins, '99, instructor in mathematics at the university last year, will be in the observatory at the university of Wisconsin, at Madison, the coming year.

Mr. C. N. Gould, who was connected with the geology department here last year, is now engaged in that work in the university of Oklahoma, where he is meeting with very flattering success.

See the new U. N. idea in history covers, "The Nebraska folio," the best made. A University of Nebraska cover, self-identifying. Take no other. Made only by C. M. Osborn, 131 North Twelfth street.

Osborn's old book store still has several second-hand University books, and some more, and as ever, furnishes more favors in general to students than any other store in the city. 131 North Twelfth street.

The friends of "Mox" Liebmann will be pleased to learn that he is in New York city in charge of the laboratory and electrical testing apparatus of Foote, Pierson & Co., large instrument manufacturers.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms in the basement of University Hall will be greatly improved in appearance this year. New carpets, new paper, furniture and decorations will make the rooms very cheerful and homelike.

R. D. and Wilbur Anderson, the well-known basket-ball players, will be in the city this winter and although they will not be in the university, they have not given up basket-ball. They will play with the city Y. M. C. A. team.

Miss Alberta Spurck, one of last year's seniors, is located in Tacoma, Wash. She will have charge of a large class of young women in physical training at the Annie Wright Seminary. She was assistant under Miss Barr last year and has been studying all summer at Chautauqua, N. Y. Miss Spurck is exceptionally well fitted for her chosen vocation and the Nebraskan-Hesperian wishes her every success.

D. N. Lohmer graduated at the university of Nebraska in '93. He then attended Johns Hopkins university. Later he was an instructor in mathematics at the university of Nebraska. He received a fellowship at the Chicago university, where he took his Doctor's degree in mathematics last June. He was married this summer and now has an instructorship in mathematics at the university of California.

It is from the high schools over the state that we draw our football men. Several of our best players came from the Lincoln high school. The prospect for a good high school team this year is most flattering. Five of their old men are back, and they have a large number of contestants to draw from for the remainder of the team. They will be captained this year by Oliver Mickle. They meet the university team on the gridiron September 27.

Through the efforts of State Inspector Crabtree and others the university has been brought in closer touch with the high schools of the state during the last two years than ever before. The graduates of our high schools are beginning to feel that they must come to The University of Nebraska to complete their education. This year a move will be made toward organizing university clubs in many of the high schools. These clubs will be made up of students who wish to become better informed about the university and will be influential in bringing more students here.

The Nebraskan-Hesperian takes pleasure in welcoming Miss Mabel Tuttle back to the university. During Chancellor Canfield's administration and during two years of Chancellor MacLean's term she was in the executive office and also had charge of enrolling new students. She returns as University Recorder, a position just established and meant to be equal in importance to the position of Registrar or executive clerk. As recorder she will have charge of the important records of the faculties, records and blanks of the enrollment committee, and all records of accredited schools. During enrollment she will register new students. She always shows such a deep interest in students that they are very soon her friends.

A STUDENT FROM ARMENIA.

Seekers of Knowledge From All Parts of the World Still See in Our School the Leading University of the West.

Mr. K. K. Krikoriam, which translated means Gregory, will take up his studies here this year. Mr. Gregory is a native Armenian from Tarsus and was formerly engaged in the importation of Oriental rugs, embroideries and jeweleries. During the disturbances of 1897 he was imprisoned by the Turks and narrowly escaped death on three different occasions.

His education was begun at St. Paul's Institute of Tarsus, where he graduated. While here he intends to specialize in history, instruction in this subject and also in chemistry being forbidden by the Turkish government because of the enlightening influence of these subjects.

Mr. Gregory selected the university of Nebraska after visiting a number of similar institutions of the central states because it impressed him most favorably in every respect.

STUDY AND FOOD.

Did you ever stop and think what an important part our food plays in our ability to study and think clearly. All animal foods, condiments, and stimulating drinks keep the system clogged up and produce that dull and heavy feeling which we experience after eating them. A diet of grains, nuts and vegetables, however, supply all the nutriment which the body requires and keeps the brain clear and the system in good order. The Hygienic Cafe, 312 S. 12th St., is purely vegetarian. Come and try a meal of fruits, vegetables, nuts and grains.

Hanan Shoes

—FOR—

Men and Women

Do You Wear These Shoes?

If not, you are depriving yourself of the luxuries of dress. A badly constructed and poorly fitting shoe has unfitted many for the duties of life. When the feet are properly shod, the brain and nerves are at ease, and the body is prepared for enjoyment and activity.
