

Local and Personal.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

W. E. Carrouthers, herdsman at the farm, has gone to Long Pine for a few days.

Westerfield's egg shampoo is all right.

Lincoln Dental College Clinic, 121 South 14th st.

Registration for the law school began Saturday.

Don Cameron's lunch counter, 114-18 South Eleventh.

Mrs. C. E. Bessey has gone to New York for a visit.

Oliver Johnson, dentist, 11th and O, over Harley's drug store.

C. P. Atwood, '00, spent Saturday in Lincoln calling on his old friends.

Westerfield, the barber, has a large student trade. It's the place where they all go.

The Chancellor will give an address to the teachers at Broken Bow on Wednesday.

Samuel Johnson, '00, principal of schools at Martel, visited here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown gave an informal dinner Tuesday evening for Major and Mrs. Dudley.

A. A. Waterman fountain pens, $1 and up, all guaranteed. At Hanna's drug store, Fourteenth and O.

A. A. Sims, class '00, has returned to the University and will assist in the chemistry department this year.

Sigma Chi has pledged William C. Saxon of Edgar, a brother of Ralph Saxon, '07, who was also a "Sig."

H. C. Swallow, now teaching at Harvard, this state, was visiting at the University a few days last week.

These cool fall evenings a little fire is a good thing. Buy some wood from Gregory, the coal man, at 11th and O.

"Clee" Tissue, law ex '99, of Seward and Edwin Duff of Nebraska City visited their brothers in Sigma Chi last week.

Illinois university has been obliged to form its cadets into two battalions on account of the large increase in registration.

Robert Tichy, a new student from Wilber, was taken sick last week and was sent home. It was thought he had appendicitis.

The class in German 13 is more than twice as large as before. It is probable that the new elective system is the cause of this.

Major E. S. Dudley, the first commandant of cadets at the University, made a short visit recently. He is now located in Cuba.

The University of Michigan will have 3,700 students this year. A number of Filipinos and Porto Ricans have registered there.

Twenty-three volumes of Colonial Records in the Historical Library have recently been bound on account of their constant use by the students.

The library is the recipient of several hundred valuable documents on political economy and kindred subjects, donated by Chancellor Andrews.

One of our exchanges contains the following little item: "A fair member of the special class was heard to ask a senior, 'Where is the new coachman?'"

All of the French classes have been under the care of Dean Edgren the past week, the assistant professor, Miss Conklin and Mr. Gerig, being absent. Miss Conklin was called east on account of a death in the family. She returned Thursday. Mr. Gerig was summoned to Columbus, Mo., on account of the death of his father. He is expected home Monday.

Mr. M. I. Stewart, who managed the Nebraska-Hesperian last year, paid us a pleasant call last week. Mr. Stewart is city editor of the Fremont Tribune.

The total registration of new students up to date is 517, including fifteen law students. This is a 10 per cent increase over last year and insures a total registration of over 2,500.

Sept. W. L. Stephens of Beatrice was at the University last Saturday. He is making arrangements for the meeting of the Superintendents' and Principals' association of which he is president.

The number of students registered in beginning French is unusually large this year, about one-half larger than that of any previous year. There are two classes in beginning French now and it is expected that a third division will be made.

Al Reedy, brother of Will Reedy, and last year a student at the state farm, was married recently. Mr. and Mrs. Reedy spent a few days of their wedding tour in Lincoln among friends at the University.

E. A. Johnston, class '00, and winner of the W. J. Bryan prize, was shaking hands with friends at the University last Thursday and Friday. Mr. Johnston will study medicine at the Rush Medical school at Chicago.

Silk felt mat board in all colors at 25c per sheet at Herpolsheimer Co.'s Picture Department. The largest and best selected line of picture mouldings in the city at prices 25 to 30 per book. Write or send for 5c music catalogue.

Prof. Barbour will read a paper at the meeting of the Superintendents' and Principals' association next Thursday. The subject of the paper will be "The Relative Importance of the Physical and Social Aspects of Geography."

Miss Mabel Hays entertained the Kappa Gammas at a chafing dish supper last Wednesday evening. The supper was preceded by a trolley ride in the car Oneta to Union College and back. The guests who enjoyed Miss Hays' hospitality were: Misses Richards, Raymond, Louise Hargreaves, Clara Hammond, Anna Hammond, Whiting, Adelloyd Whiting, Grace

Bennett, Mabel Bennett, Vine Gahan, Claire Funke, Emma Outcalt, Jessie Outcalt, La Selle, Bradt, Howland, Emmons, Edmiston, Jeary, Thorpe, Dorothy Griggs and Lillian Wilson.

The mechanical engineering department of the University has been obliged to turn away students on account of lack of room. Unless something is done at the next session of the legislature other departments will be doing the same thing before long.

Chancellor Andrews will deliver an address on the subject of "Nebraska School Problems" at the meeting of the Superintendents' and Principals' association Thursday evening, October 11. The meeting will be held in the art gallery in the Library building.

Drill began last Wednesday. All the companies are larger than last year and the outlook for a fine battalion is very good. The men are now being put through the setting up exercises. No appointments of officers have as yet been announced and there is much speculation as to where the lightning will strike.

Regular Monroe History paper, 7c per 100 sheets; History covers, extra quality, 10c each; students' note books, sold elsewhere for 10c, each 5c; 14-carat gold fountain pens, 69c each, every pen warranted; Remex fountain pens, $1; University text books at cut prices. Book and Stationery Department, Herpolsheimer Co.

Delta Delta Delta entertained at an informal party last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Mamie Miller. Various games were indulged in and a dainty luncheon served. The guests were: Misses Nan Cunningham, Elizabeth Cunningham, Roberts, Peary, Kioke, Mitchell, Auld, Powers, Daisy Bonnell, Winifred Bonnell, Franklin, Cady, Machin, Koehler, Gund, Poynter, Lumry, Davenport, Miller.

The Hayward republican club met in chapel Friday at 2.30. Mr. Gillespie of Washington and our townsman, Mr. Clark, gave some interesting talks. An assessment of 10 cents per head was made to defray expenses of the League of Republican clubs. Steps were taken to secure President Shurman to give an address under the auspices of the club. Preparations were made for participation in the parade Tuesday.

An informal Kensington was given by the Pi Beta Phi girls Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Annie Stuart. The following were present: Misses Ashmun, Marshall, Thomas, Anderson, Turner, Barber, Stuart, Lennie Stuart, Woodward, Reynolds, Lois Burruss, Bess Burruss, Henry, McPheely, Robinson, Sedgwick, Montgomery, McGahey, Waugh, Howlands, Bulr, Meyer, Nan Cunningham, Elizabeth Cunningham, Jessen, Grant, Allen Chapin, Heakok and Helen Dolson.

...CALL AT...

The Co-Op

For all Your

Books,
Stationery &
Supplies,

Waterman Ideal Pens.

Parker's Lucky Curve Jointless.

Other Pens; 80c up.

Gym Suits, Shoes, Supporters,
Lab. Aprons, Sleeves, Towels,
Sponges, Test Tube Cleaners,
Gummed Labels,
Botany Drawing and Mounting
Paper, Colored Inks, Crow
Quill Pens, and Sets,
Etc., Etc., Etc.

All the books used in the University.

If you don't see what you
want, ask us.

AGENCY FOR THE MERCHANTS LAUNDRY
Leave Bundles at Our Store.

The Only Students' Book Store.

THE CO-OPERATIVE BOOK Co
Roper, Boomer & Knutson.
322 N. 11th. - Linco'n.

Hanan Shoes

—FOR—

Men & Women
Do You Wear
These Shoes?

If not, you are depriving yourself of the luxuries of dress. A badly constructed and poorly fitting shoe has unfitted many for the duties of life. When the feet are properly shod, the brain and nerves are at ease, and the body is prepared for enjoyment and activity.

Perkins,
Sheldon, &
Chamberlain Co.

1129 O ST.

LINCOLN,

NEBR.

Legislative Gallery
BEST OF RATES TO STUDENTS!

Clements

Portrait and Landscape Photographer.

129 South 11th Street,

LINCOLN, - NEBRASKA.

GALLERY ESTABLISHED 1871.

BIG BOYS' TOGGERY

COLLARS
All Sizes. All Styles.

9c EACH

Bumstead
& Tuttle

1141 O STREET,

Funke Opera House Block.