

Local and Personal.

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Do you know Hanna?

Sweaters at Ludwig's

H. HERPOLSHEIMER & Co.

Westerfield's egg shampoo is all right.

Talk with Ludwig about your clothes.

Harold Homan visited in Omaha over Sunday.

Mr. Clark Bell of York is pledged to the Betas.

H. G. Shedd was in Chicago on business last week.

Sam McDonald is expected to return to his law work soon.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity has pledged Dan Cook of Beatrice.

William Fairchild, '03, visited at his home in Omaha over Sunday.

A beginning class in geometry has been formed at the Lincoln Academy.

Mr. Ott, agent for the Bausch and Lomb Optical Co., was on the campus Saturday.

Prof. Ward expects to go out on a short collecting tour the latter part of this week.

The Betas had a "stag party" Wednesday evening in honor of their new members.

About twenty men will be employed at the state farm during the coming winter.

Two bound volumes of last year's law theses have recently been placed in the law library.

The creamery building at the state farm is being renovated preparatory to the winter term.

Misses Learned and McPherson, the editors of The Pebble, visited the university Saturday.

E. Wigenhorn and George Shedd of Ashland were guests at the Phi Psi house last week.

R. S. Baker, law '00" was seen on the University campus Thursday greeting old friends.

A class in illustrating has been started in the art school and will meet Thursday afternoons.

General Bookbinding at Ivy Bindery 131 North 12th St. Second hand books bought and sold at Osborn's Old Book Store.

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity held an initiation Monday eve, Oct. 22. Huse, Lyman, McCann and Bridge are the new brothers.

Pres. J. G. Schurman of Cornell University arrived in the city yesterday. He is here to deliver an address on the Philippine question.

Professor Bruner is preparing a collection of grass hoppers to be sent to Vienna, Austria, in exchange for some he received a short time ago.

Don Cameron's launch counter, 114-18 South Eleventh.

The board met for organization last Wednesday morning. Prof. Caldwell was elected president, Miss Davis secretary and W. J. Hunting treasurer.

The Sophomores have organized a football team. They will soon be ready to play any of the class teams. S. E. Black is manager, O. B. Hawley captain.

During the present year the Lincoln Ornithological Club will meet regularly every Wednesday evening at Professor Bruner's office in Mechanic Arts hall.

Dr. Bessey is in receipt of a rare and interesting collection of fungi. The specimens come from different parts of the world and were presented by E. S. Salvin of London.

Professor Moritz has just completed a thesis on "Extension of the Differentiation Processes." Mr. Moritz has performed this work in order to obtain his P. H. D. degree.

The registration in the Art School is very much larger than ever before. The attendance at the Wednesday evening class in life sketching is more than treble what it was at this time last year.

For the last few weeks the Athletic Board has been busy in going over and revising the constitution and the rules and regulations concerning those who are eligible to participate in the collegiate athletics.

L. K. Malvern of Elgin, Ill., visited the university last Thursday. He is on a tour of inspection for the western division of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He reports everything in the local chapter as being in good shape.

E. G. Woodruff, manager of the senior football team called a meeting of members of the class interested in the game Wednesday, October 24. Bruce Benedict was chosen captain and arrangements were made to begin practice at once for the class games.

Dr. Ward has a ten page article on the Anachnida in a new medical Encyclopedia which is being published by Wm. Wood & Co. The entire work will comprise about eight volumes and it is recognized as being a world standard in the medical and allied sciences. The first volume has just been received by the zoology department.

Dr. Bessey has lately had requests from the Scientific Department at Washington for the names of students who know enough about botany to enter the service there. These are called scientific aids and amount to about the same thing as a fellow in the university. The advantage of the position is that the person who holds it in is eligible for permanent appointment in a few years.

Professor Brooks took a three days trip to the American Street Railway Convention at Kansas City last week. He was accompanied by seven electrical engineering students and with them inspected the power and lighting plants at Omaha, Kansas City, and Ft. Leavenworth. They report a very fine exhibit of apparatus at the convention, and an exceedingly interesting and instructive program.

The art exhibit which will be held in the art rooms during the holidays will surpass anything of this kind ever shown here. Mrs. Hall of this city, while in Europe this summer, negotiated for some of the pictures from the Paris salon. The work of selecting these pictures will be in hands of Mr. Lawton Parker, formerly of this state and now an art student in Paris. A number of pictures from the fall exhibition of the Chicago Art Institute will also be secured. This selection will include some of the finest oil paintings in the country.

Professor Richards has received a large number of blue prints and photographs of the large locomotives which are being built in the east and sent west for heavy hauling as well as for fast trains.

Through the influence of Melvin Price, instructor in mechanical drawing, the Champion Harvesting Machine Company has presented the department of engineering a set of their new wabble gears. They will be mounted in Professor Richards lecture room.

At special meeting, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to elect delegates to a meeting called for the purpose of organizing a state association of college republican clubs. R. H. Folsom, A. E. Gordon, G. M. Cowgill, O. Everett, S. Brock, and Shuck, were elected delegates.

Legislative Gallery BEST OF RATES TO STUDENTS!

Clements

Portrait and Landscape Photographer.

129 South 11th Street,

LINCOLN, - NEBRASKA.

GALLERY ESTABLISHED 1871.

Photographs

*****

UNIQUE STUDIO,

1222 O St.

Will make you a Strictly First-Class
Quarter size Cabinet Oval $1.00 per doz. Other sizes in proportion.

WET FEET are often the primary cause of a cold; sooner or later a "hard cold" turns out to be pneumonia, and when pneumonia doesn't prove fatal it leaves the lungs in a condition that is apt to invite consumption, and consumption claims many more victims than any other disease. Remember that good, practically waterproof Overshoes are essentials, not luxuries. You can afford the best, and we have the best at trifling prices.

Our Swedish Gym Shoes

are now in.

Perkins, Sheldon & Chamberlain Co.

1129 O STREET

Foot Ball Enthusiasts

Should remember that the Union Pacific is the best line to Topeka, Lawrence, and Kansas City, when making tours for Foot Ball games. Please keep it in mind and see the City Ticket Agent at 1044 O Street.