THE GAME ELSEWHERE.

Minnesota added another victory to her long list Saturday by defeating Illinois by a score of 23 to 0. Her best playing was done in the second half of the game.

The largest score ever made in a football game was piled up by Earlham college, when she defeated Eastern Indiana Normal University by the score 139 to 10.

Iowa again asserted her right Saturday to be classed with the great football teams of the middle west by defeating Michigan on her home grounds by a score of 28 to 5. Iowa's team work was superior to that of Michigan in every way. Minnesota now stands as her only rival for the mid-western championship.

ATHLETIC CONSTITUTION.

Constitution and By Laws of the Athletic Board of the University of Nebraska.

Sec. 5. In case there is no choice the board may order a new election in the same manner and if no election then results, the board shall choose a captain from those eligible.

Exception.

Sec. 6. Members of the Track team who may vote for captain shall be those who have participated in the last state intercollegiate field day.

ARTICLE IX.—ELIGIBILITY RULES.

Sec. 1. Captains and Managers. No person shall be eligible for the position of captain or manager of any athletic team unless he shall be at the time when his service is to begin an upper classman in good standing pursuing a regular course.

Sec. 2. By upper classman is meant a student in the third or fourth year in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, or in the Industrial College; in the Graduate School or the College of Law after two years previous residence at the University. By the words "in good standing" is that the candidate shall have maintained such class standing while in residence at the University as to justify the expectation that he can perform the duties of captain of the athletic team without substantial detriment to his work as a student.

Sec. 3. By the words of "regular course" is meant any regular, prescribed course of study leading to a degree or a certificate and involving at least 12 hours of class work per week unless a less amount shall be required for a degree by reason of proficiency of student.

ARTICLE X.—ELIGIBILITY RULES.

Sec. 1. Players.—No person shall participate in any intercollegiate game or athletic sport unless he be a bona fide student doing full work in a regular or special course as defined in the curriculum of his college. (Defined 10-17, '98.)

NOTE.—A bona fide student shall not be construed to mean entering the music or art school and taking one or two hours additional work in the University. "Full work" shall mean taking at least 12 hours University work.

Sec. 2. No person shall be admitted to any intercollegiate contest who receives any gift, remuneration, or pay for his services on the college team.

Sec. 3. No student shall play upon the teams of any college or colleges for more than four years in the aggregate unless he shall have secured a degree, in which case he may play two additional years, provided he be a candidate for a second degree.

Sec. 4. No student shall participate in any intercollegiate contest who has ever used or is using his knowledge of athletics or his athletic skill for gain. This rule shall be operative after Oct. 1, 1896. No person who receives compensation from the University for services rendered by way of regular instruction shall be allowed to play on any team. This rule shall take effect December 1, 1896.

Sec. 5. No student shall play in any game under an assumed name.

Sec. 6. No student shall be permitted to participate in any intercollegiate contest who is found by the faculty to be delinquent in his studies.

Sec. 7. No student shall engage in any athletic game or contest until his fitness has been favorably passed upon by the Physical Director.

Sec. 8. Athletic committees shall require each candidate for a team to represent the University in the intercollegiate contest to subscribe to a statement that he is eligible under the letter and spirit of the rules adopted.

Sec. 9. No person having been a member of any college athletic team during any year, and having been in attendance less than one college half-year, shall be permitted to play in any intercollegiate contest thereafter until he shall have been in attendance six consecutive calendar months.

Sec. 10. Players shall be required to have been attending classes regularly at least one week before playing in a regular game.

Sec. 11. Fellows and scholars shall be allowed to play upon Athletic Teams. Note.—This interpretation of Rule IV was made by the University Senate on the ground that such students receive an honorary stipend and not a salary.

Sec. 12. Any student violating a rule or order of the athletic board shall be subjected to discipline by the University Senate.

Sec. 13. Every student who represents the University in track or field events, or is a candidate for such representation, that is, who participates in or is a candidate for fall or spring meets, shall take at least one semester of physical training. This training shall cover the semester in which the event takes place.

Sec. 14. The requirements for entry as a contestant in such indoor and outdoor athletic events shall be registration for physical training at the office of the registrar, physical soundness to be ascertained through physical examination by the physical director, satisfactory class standing to be ascertained by reference to the records of the registrar, and regular attendance and practice of a prescribed course of physical training three times a week.

Sec. 15. Members of the University athletic teams and candidates for such teams wishing to enter the field or track events who have taken during the same university year the regular season of training under direction of coaches and captains of such teams, shall, if they so desire, be credited with the time thus spent as so much towards the semester's training required for track or field events.

By "University athletic teams," is meant the first eleven in football and the first nine in baseball. By "candidates for such teams" is meant men practicing regularly against them.

Sec. 16. These rules shall take effect at the beginning of the second semester of the University year, January 31, 1898.

ARTICLE XI.—UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS AS TO GAMES.

Sec. 1. All schedules of games shall be approved by the athletic board.

Sec. 2. No games shall be played on other days than Saturday unless they have been scheduled with the consent of the Chancellor.

Sec. 3. The athletic board shall be authorized to fix the rate of admission to all athletic games and events.

Sec. 4. Permission for any team to leave town must be obtained from the Chancellor by the chairman of the committee in charge of the sport.

Sec. 5. The time of the report of the membership of a team for any regular game shall be 48 hours before the hour of the game, when played on the campus; and 48 hours before leaving time when played away from home.

Sec. 6. The chairman of the committee in charge of any given sport, the coach and the captain of the team shall decide the membership of the team for all games.

Sec. 7. The schedule for baseball and track athletics for each spring shall
