THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

The college Young Women's Christian association should make the new student acquainted with the best Christian women of the University; it should group the Christian students into classes for systematic Bible study and personal work; it should offer a happy social life to all young women; it should hold attractive, helpful meetings which would interest and inspire all.

This is what the Young Women's Christian association of the University of Nebraska expects to accomplish. Several Bible classes and a mission study class have already been organized. It is planning to become personally acquainted with every young woman through its calling committee and social gatherings. Weekly meetings will be held regularly on Wednesday at 5 in the chapel. More interest in and work for the college settlement will be done this year.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SALE

BEGINS

MONDAY, NOV. 12,

AND CONTINUES FOR JUST A WEEK,
CLOSING

SAT. EVE., NOV. 17.

The holiday selling, soon to begin, requires every inch of space we can devote to it. It's always tremendous and we expect it to be particularly so this year. This sale is to prepare for it—to give it every available inch of room—to clear stocks regardless of the havoc among the profits. It's a clearing of winter wares at a most opportune time—a time when the need for such wares is most urgent.
