

Local and Personal.

Who is Ludwig?

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Do you know Hanna?

Dr. Angle, skin diseases, 1215 O.

Westerfield's egg shampoo is all right.

P. J. Bentz, Dentist, office in Richards block.

Don Cameron's lunch counter, 114-18 South Eleventh.

Mr. O. T. Reedy was a visitor at the University Thursday.

Westerfield, the barber, has a large student trade, 117 North 13th.

The class in house-hold economics is working on plans for houses.

E. E. Bradcett has finished wiring the new Soldiers' Memorial hall.

T. L. Farnsworth of Chicago, visited University friends last week.

Miss Wheeler, instructor in English department, was sick last week.

E. E. Brackett and Clyde A. McMasters went to Pawnee City to vote.

Miss Elizabeth Paddock who was ill the first part of the week is in school again.

The basket ball games between the athletic classes will be played next month.

Chancellor Andrews addressed the teachers of Humboldt last Friday evening.

The Botanical Seminar room, 107, Nebraska building, will be dedicated next Thursday.

Mr. William Heart, and Mr. Earnest Allen, were visitors of York, the fore part of the week.

Miss Smith reports an increase of one hundred over the registration of this time last year.

Mr. Edgar Morrill was in Lincoln last week. He is attending the Medical College at Omaha.

Miss Charlotte Mead has been elected to the assistant principalship of the Park School, Lincoln.

There will be a meeting of the athletic board Nov. 19, 1900. Every member is requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Horne, of Syracuse, Neb., visited with their son O. G. Horne, between trains Thursday.

L. B. Stuhr returned to the University Thursday after spending a few days with his parents at Grand Island.

The class in animal husbandry has commenced the use of score cards in studying the cattle at the State Farm.

W. K. Long returned to the University Wednesday after a few days absence, spent at his home in Schuyler.

John Nelson, Raleigh Harber, Jean Brookings, and Chas. Adams, went home to vote. All are from Burt county.

Arichibald Hecker is visiting at the Phi Psi house this week. He came up to vote and attend to other personal business.

The Sophomore football team is practicing at Chapel time to get in good shape for the coming Sophomore-Freshman contest.

Professor Robbins, of the law school shows his loyalty to athletics by having his Saturday class recite at 2:00 instead of 4:00 o'clock.

On Wednesday evening the 3:00 o'clock and 11:20 gymnasium classes played hoopball. Score 19 to 12 in favor of the 11:20 class.

The class in field geology went to Roca last Friday to engage in practical field work in geology. Mr. Fisher was in charge of the class.

Allen Sedgwick, who has been touring the state with the Parks Republican Male Quartet, returned to his work in the University Saturday.

Professor Stout was in Columbus last Saturday in the interest of the U. S. Hydrographic Survey, for which he is collecting data on the rivers of Nebraska.

Last Tuesday evening the 8:00 o'clock and the 1:00 o'clock gymnasium classes played a game of hoop-ball, the score was 18 to 14 in favor of the 1:00 o'clock class.

Professor Wilson of the law school will give special examination this week in Torts and Bailments for the convenience of those law students who left early last year.

Geo. Libby a former university student returned to Nebraska to vote. Mr. Libby is engaged with a Chicago chemical company, and is at present doing research work.

The executive office will no longer receive telephone calls for professors and students. All such calls will be taken by the Y. M. C. A. at their telephone, No. 728.

There are to be three pianos given away free this winter. By buying coal of Gregory The Coal Man, and getting tickets, you can help your fraternity or society get a piano free.

The Street Car Co. has at last decided to give the University better car service. Cars run regularly from the postoffice to Sixteenth and Vine sts., passing the University on R street.

F. L. Hunt, who has been with the Western Electric Co., of Chicago, for the past few months has received the offer of a position with the Sawyer-Mann Electric Co., of St. Louis, Mo.

Professor Nicholson is at present engaged in mining operations in Colorado. It is expected that he will return about the first of the year to his former position at the head of the chemistry department.

Don't forget when you want History Paper, History Covers, Fountain Pens, Note Books and all University Supplies, that the cheapest place to buy them is the Book Department.

HERPOLSHHEIMER Co.

District courts and justice courts have been organized in the law school for practice in conducting trials. Each senior will be required to act as counsel and as justice of the peace in at least one trial. The district court will be presided over by Attorney J. H. Hatfield.

Professor Barbour was in the vicinity of Long Pine, Neb., and in southern Dakota last week. He was engaged in mapping out the limits of the tertiary formations in that vicinity in the interest of the U. S. Geological Survey.

Mr. C. A. Fisher of the geology department left Saturday evening for Castle Rock, Colo., where he will spend a few days in examining the tertiary beds in that vicinity. This work is in the interest of the State Geological Survey.

Several changes have been made in the botany laboratory greatly improving its appearance. The large cases which served as a partition to divide the room have been placed along the walls thus furnishing better accommodations to the increase in attendance in this department.

Chas. Nesbit, a former student at the University spent a couple of days last week visiting friends in the city. Mr. Nesbit has but recently returned from a trip to Minnesota and reports the State University at Minneapolis as absolutely sure they will win the Thanksgiving game.

The airbrake apparatus presented to the engineering department has arrived and will be set up in the new steam laboratory. The apparatus which is very complete was secured through the efforts of Professor Richards and Mr. Rhodes of the B. & M. R. R. The valuation is estimated at something over $1,000.

New Music—"Real Peruvian Cake Walk," "Little Casino Cake Walk," "My Rainbow Coon," "The Sale of the Kangaroo," each 21 cents. Poster Board all colors per sheet 15 cents. Picture frames for photographs, class pictures, etc., from 25 cents upwards. Music and Picture Department. HERPOLSHHEIMER Co.

G. C. MENZENDORF,

Former Instructor of

MUSIC IN UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA.

Will be pleased to give lowest rates to students desiring instruction in music. For information call at Studio.

Brace Building, 15th and O Streets

NOT

"To Have and to Hold"

BUT FOR SALE

The latest in books:

"Reign of the Law"

"Unleavened Bread"

"To Have and to Hold"

Are the leaders in sale the country over.

The latest in Stationery:

Whiting's Organdie and Wedgewood, Crane's and Hurd's Papers.

SOMETHING NEW—SEALS AND LETTER WAX.

Note Books, History Paper, Drawing Instruments, and Drawing Paper.

Waterman's Ideal, Parker's, and a fine Pen for $1.00.

Wilson & Hall,

1123 O Street.

The Yellow Front.

Hanan Shoes

—FOR—

Men and Women

Do You Wear These Shoes?

If not, you are depriving yourself of the luxuries of dress. A badly constructed and poorly fitting shoe has unfitted many for the duties of life. When the feet are properly shod, the brain and nerves are at ease, and the body is prepared for enjoyment and activity.

Perkins,
Sheldon, &
Chamberlain Co.

1129 O ST.

LINCOLN,

NEBR.

