

ALUMNI DEPARTMENT

Frank Bain, '98, of Fairbury, will attend the great game next Thursday.

R. C. Saxton, '97, of Edgar, Neb., will attend the game Thanksgiving day.

Geo. Burgert, '98, of Syracuse, Neb., will be among the alumni rooters on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Bertha Pinkerton, '98, who is teaching at Eagle Neb. this year, was in the city Saturday.

V. P. Sheldon, '00, of Nehawka, will be up to cheer for the University team next Thursday.

K. A. Lyman, '97, has been appointed assistant in physiology at the Omaha Medical College. He received his M. A. in zoology in '99.

J. H. Johnston, '94, has been elected county attorney of Custer county, Montana. He received a majority of 226 out of a vote of 1,600.

William Robert Mansfield, '00, of Wisner, Neb., was in town last Wednesday and Thursday, visiting at the Alpha Theta Chi house.

Will MacKay, '98, of the U. S. Weather Bureau, has recently been transferred to Springfield, Ill., with a substantial increase in salary.

Geo. Kline, '00, has resigned his position as scholar in the English department. He will be engaged in newspaper work in the future.

Dr. H. Winnette Orr is rapidly recovering from his recent illness. Before he takes up his practice again he will go on an extended tour of the East.

Capt. Hollingsworth, an old University man, is candidate for adjutant general of the state militia. He was captain of Co. C, First Nebraska, during the war.

A. L. Lyon, '95, of Lyon, Neb., has re-entered the University and will study law. He has taken a prominent part in republican politics in Burt county recently.

The following Delta Tau Delta alumni will be in for the game Thursday: W. Wilson, H. G. Whitmore, Frank Hollenbeck, and Frank Woodland; of former students, B. K. King, of West Point, and Don Atwood, of Omaha.

Frank Woodland, '00, of Omaha, visited University friends last week. Mr. Woodland was captain of Company D, the winners of the Omaha cup last spring. Delta Tau gave a chafing dish party in his honor Wednesday evening.

Y. Nikaido, '00, who has been engaged for the last year, in soil analysis at the experiment station, has accepted a position as chemist at the Ames sugar factory. This makes the second University student employed as chemist by this company.

M. E. Hiltner, '98, and Everett Sawyer, '98, who are in the employ of the Portland Mining and Milling Co., report very active work in mine development, prospecting, and milling. Several cyanide plants have been established in the Black Hills.

T. A. Williams, now assistant agronomist, in the Department of Agriculture at Washington, has an article in the Year Book of 1899 on "Succulent Forage for the Farm and Dairy."

Mr. Keene Abbott, a former student of the University, was in town Saturday night to attend the meeting of the English club. He has recently had a story accepted by McClures Magazine.

John L. Kind, of the German department, is engaged in translating German stories for "After Dinner," the new short story magazine to be issued in this city soon. The magazine is to be devoted entirely to short stories, which will be chosen for merit only. The first number will come out about the 1st of December.

In the year book of the Department of Agriculture, for 1899, is a long and very instructive article on "The Progress of Plant Breeding in the United States," written by two former students, H. J. Webber and E. A. Bessey. Mr. Webber and Mr. Bessey are both in the Department of Agriculture at Washington.

We carry only the cards of reputable men, and students will find represented in this column the best physicians and dentists in the city.
