

Local and Personal.

Who is Ludwig?

Dr. Wente, dentist.

Do you know Hanna?

Dr. Angle, skin diseases, 1215 O.

P. J. Bentz, Dentist, office in Richards block.

Don Cameron's lunch counter, 114-18 South Eleventh.

Westerfield, the barber, has a large student trade, 117 North 13th.

Mr. Robert Hayes of Villisca, Iowa, is visiting G. M. Cowgill.

Mr. Hannan of Bellevue College has registered for work in the University.

Miss Bess Barker of Portland, Oregon is visiting Miss Lama Houtz.

The Hayward Republican club took part in the ratification last Saturday evening.

All the literary societies are planning for their annual Thanksgiving banquets.

The team will have secret practice all week in order to be ready for Minnesota.

Glen Rock is the best coal for $5.75. No soot, no clinkers, Gregory The Coal Man, 1044 O.

Everybody come out to the mass meeting in the armory this evening, at 8 o'clock. Yell practice.

Let everyone wear a football button to the train when Minnesota comes in. Stand up for Nebraska!

Mr. Charles Bowlby, a former student of the University, is visiting at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Do not wait for a blizzard before you order coal. Order now of Gregory The Coal Man, 1044 O.

Miss VanDerslice, a former student of the University, visited the Domestic Science department last week.

Misses Ruth McFarland and Jane Douglas will spend Thanksgiving with Miss Jeannette Post of York.

Photographs make fine Christmas presents. Come early; special prices to students. Townsends Elite Studio.

The English club met in the Seminar room last Saturday evening. The transactions were not for publication.

Pupils from seven different states registered at the opening of the new term of the School of music, beginning Monday November 12.

Manager Tukey has prepared a very neat poster for the Thanksgiving game. It is printed in red ink, making a very showy appearance.

Professor Stout spent three or four days of this week at the National Irrigation Convention, at Chicago. He reports a very instructive program.

Mr. Wm. Shear Miss Edith Abbott, Miss Van Camp and Miss Helen Seeley have been added to the list of readers for the English department.

Miss Jessica Morgan will spend Thanksgiving at her home in Hebron.

Five hundred tickets for the game have been sold to the Gophers alone.

Miss Hazelwood, a sister of Mrs. Fisher, returned to Oceola Wednesday, after a three weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fisher.

The class in field geology will work on mapping service in geology, Friday afternoon, and will visit the country four or five miles southwest of the city.

The freshmen and junior class football teams played on the campus Saturday. The juniors won, 22 to 0, making them the champion class team of 1900.

The sale of football buttons has been so large that at the present rate the supply will be exhausted before Thanksgiving. They make a pretty souvenir.

The band will soon be moved from its old quarters under the Armory to the old chapel. This change will take place as soon as the new chapel is opened.

Professor Bruner returned from his lecturing tour Monday morning. He lectured at the farmers' institutes held at Crawford, Rushville, and Hay Springs.

Chancellor Andrews addressed the Young People's Christian Temperance Union at the auditorium Sunday afternoon, on the topic of "The Building of Character."

The office of the German department has been removed to room 109, University Hall, formerly used as the girls' rest room. It will also be used as a seminar room.

Ralph Beal, of Red Cloud, paid a visit to the University this week. He was very much pleased with the work done in the Mechanical Engineering department.

N. H. Darton, U. S., geologist, arrived in Lincoln at noon Wednesday. He was on his way to Washington, D. D., from Denver. Mr. Darton spent a day or two in the city.

Doctor Almy presented a paper at the physics Colloquium last Monday evening on "Cathode rays and their indication of forms of matter much smaller than a molecule."

Miss Ella Wirt left last Friday for Council Bluffs, going from there to Columbus, Ohio. She is a delegate from Rho chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta to the district convention.

Tuesday night, the band was issued an entirely new book of music. There were about twenty pieces in all, mostly marches, by the ablest composers such as Hall, Sousa and Farrar.

Louis Goodwill, a former student, is visiting at the University. Mr. Goodwill is traveling for school supply house. He returned to Lincoln to dispose of some paper routes in which he is interested.

Two bands will be on the field before the game next Thursday, and promise an interesting time. Each one expects to carry off the honors. Mr. Wehn, of the University band, promises that his band will do their best to keep honors at home.

Mr. Schuyler Miller is preparing a more or less extensive reference book for essay writers whose works are in the library. The reference book will be type written and placed in the library for use of the students.

The Domestic Science department will organize an extension class on Saturday, December 1. The class will meet each Saturday at 2:00 o'clock. The first course consists of twelve lessons; each lesson covering one lecture and two hours' work in the laboratory.

Every student interested in the formation of an Engineering Society is urged to be present on Tuesday evening, December 7th at 7:30 p.m., room 211 Mechanic Arts Hall. The committees from the three engineering clubs will present a constitution and by-laws for consideration. Several other important details will also be considered.

The Delian Boys' Debating Club and the Alpha Omega Society of Deane held a joint debate last Friday evening at Crete. Messrs. A. D. Hodge, C. F. Edgerton, and C. G. Berky represented the Delians. The trust question was discussed in a vigorous manner by both sides. After the debate an oyster supper was given in honor of the visitors.

Nebraska College of Oratory

PROF. EDWARD L. MAGGI, Principal
Walsh Hall . . . Corner Twelfth and N Streets
Call and inquire about our system
Special rate to University students

The Globe Delivery Co.

1036 O St.
Phone 1122

Baggage and Parcels

GIVE US A CALL

SOME . . .

New Sweaters

in the University and all colors

WILSON & PACAL
Hatters
and Furnishers
1042 O St.

GOODY-GOODY AND OTHER CANDIES THAT ARE GOOD

At the Original Goody-Goody Candy Store, 1227 O Street

5c

This Coupon and 5c will buy a 10c package of Goody-Goody on Thanksgiving Day at 1227 O St.

5c

The ONLY place where you can get the real CREAM CHEWING CANDY that has become famous under the name GOODY-GOODY.

How fondly
she clings
to that
Shoe

That fits her so easy, comfortably and perfect that she chose from our stylish and handsome stock! Shoes that are bought here one dislikes to part with, even when they are old. They are made of such high grade leather and are of such fine workmanship they keep their shape until worn out. Look at our fine stock of ladies', children's and men's shoes.

Perkins, Sheldon & Chamberlain Co.

1129 O Street, Lincoln, Nebraska