

Local and Personal.

Dr. Wente, Dentist.

Dr. McLeod, Surgeon.

Do you know Hanna?

Dr. Angle, Skin Diseases, 1215 O.

The Y. M. C. A. now numbers 280.

Westerfield's egg shampoo is all right.

Don Cameron's Lunch Counter, 114-118 South Eleventh.

Frank Milson is pledged to the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Homer Hatfield of York visited the Sigma Alphas last week.

Ida Louis '99 has accepted a position in the North Platte schools.

Westerfield the barber has a large student trade, 117 north 13th.

Harry Crandall was confined to the house last week with la grippe.

New students are already beginning to enter for the second semester.

J. Sauls has left school and will be out for the remainder of the year.

Miss Myrtle Beck of Beatrice, Nebraska will attend the conservatory.

The band has received more new music and is practicing faithfully upon it.

The state convention of Y. M. C. A. will be held at Hastings, February 7-10.

Miss Gertrude Kepler has been forced to leave school on account of ill health.

Dan Cook was detained at home at Beatrice until January 7 on account of sickness.

The senior book is rapidly getting under way and almost all of the material is in.

The busiest man on the campus now is the junior trying to take orders for the Sombrero.

Teddie Roth has recovered from his recent illness and is again attending the university.

Miss Ames, who has charge of the mechanic arts library, has been suffering from la grippe.

The engineering society met Friday and had their pictures taken at the Elite Studio for the Junior Annual.

Miss Edna Howell a former student here but now of the Kansas university will re-enter here the second semester.

Lovers of fine instruments should see the new interferometer and the echelon spectroscope in the department of physics.

W. I. King received word that his father was seriously ill. He went home and will be out of school for some time.

There has just been received at the experiment station seven new cream separators. These separators have been sent by the manufacturers to the university for use in the dairy class. They represent a value of $1,000.

Fred Hawxby has been granted a seat in the legislature. The contestants having withdrawn.

Dan Gutleben went to Nehawka Saturday to prepare some patent office drawings for George L. Sheldon '92.

Thomas Major, father of Dr. Major who was professor in pedagogy here last year, visited the university Tuesday.

Arrangements are now being made for supplying the Pershing Rifles with a distinctive badge to be worn on the uniform.

The cavalry troop is now taking a few lessons in fencing and the attitudes assumed by the men are something wonderful.

Prof. H. W. Caldwell has been re-elected as a member of the public archives committee by the national historical society.

Professor Bruner of the department of entomology received a shipment of grasshoppers from the Smithsonian institute last week.

Miss Winifred Hyde, who has been a scholar in the department of Philosophy, has been chosen as instructor in the high school of this city.

Proceedings of the institution of mechanical engineers from 1847 to '94, in forty-three volumes bound in half calf, has been added to the mechanic arts library.

The series of basket ball games between the gymnasium classes began January 9th. The class winning the greatest number of games will play the trainers.

Mr. E. G. Woodruff departed last Saturday for Kearney, Neb., to take the position of Commandant and Instructor in Science in St. Lukes Military Academy.

Professor Taylor has been quite sick for the last week. Mrs. Taylor has been conducting a part of his classes. John Ledwith has had charge of the afternoon classes.

Miss Mildred Parks who has been assistant to Miss Quaintance in the chemistry store room, has been appointed assistant in the preparatory chemistry laboratory.

M. P. Pillsbury, Nebraska's star full-back, left for Nevada last Sunday where he has a position as assayer in the gold and silver mines in the southern part of the state.

Miss Maude Van Antwerp of Edgar, Neb., a first year student has not returned to school since the holidays. She expects to drop her university work and take up music.

Mr. Ray Fulmer a student at the university last year was visiting in the city Sunday. He was on his way to Harvard, Nebraska where he has a position as telegraph operator.

On Wednesday January 9th, the 12:30 and 8:00 o'clock gymnasium classes played a game of basket ball. The score was eighteen to ten, in favor of the 8:00 o'clock class.

Dr. Long, of the Second Presbyterian church, will deliver an address on The Infinite Fatherliness of God, on Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock. All the girls of the university are cordially invited.

W. C. Booth returned from his eastern trip Wednesday, January 9, while gone he visited New York, Washington, and other eastern cities.

J. S. Hunter spent his holiday vacation along the Missouri river, below Nebraska City, collecting material for the ornithological department.

Mr. Henry Eames of the conservatory of music will give a recital at Davenport, Iowa, on January 18 and one at Washington, Iowa, on January 19.

Last Thursday evening the legislators were invited to the art gallery to see the exhibition. Quite a number of the faculty were present and in the receiving line.

Last Wednesday evening Co. D went through the hour of torment—the monthly inspection—while A B & C companies were made happy by a speedy dismissal.

At Richeson's Academy of Dancing, social dancing every Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. Beginners classes on Wednesday and Saturday. Academy, 1132 N street. Phone No. 1127.

Professor and Mrs. Hodgman were in the receiving line at the reception given in the art rooms at the library to the members of the legislature by the Art Association last Friday evening.

Correspondence has been opened up with several of the larger universities of the middle west in regard to scheduling foot ball games for the coming season. It is difficult to predict the result so early in the year.

Chancellor Andrews addressed the meeting of the city charity association in the Oliver Theater last Sunday afternoon. Professor Caldwell also spoke at the meeting. His subject was charity organization as it related to the university.

Friday the juniors hung up a flag with the figures 1902 on it, in the library hall. From now on it is expected that desperate war will be waged between the juniors and seniors for the latter had the audacity to tear down the flag.

The Philosophical Club has received notice that their plans of pursuing the discussion of popular philosophical questions has been copied and followed by the Philosophical Club of New York University and that much interest is being aroused.

The state ornithological union met at Omaha last Saturday. Papers were read by Professor Barbour, Professor Bruner, Mr. Wolcott, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Carriker, and Mr. Crawford.

Professor Barbour was elected president of the society.

The junior annual board requests that all material such as notes, cartoons, pictures and the like be sent in by the 20th inst. as the book should soon go into publication. As far as known now the Sombrero will be out in about three months.

The State Historical Society will ask the legislature for an appropriation of $13,000. Secretary J. A. Barrett says that he considers this a very modest and reasonable request. The society has reached the point where expansion is absolutely necessary.

The preliminary contest for the selection of contestants for the bar snap in the charter day meet was held January 9th. Keilogg, Carr, and Doubt tied at 7 feet 6 1/4 inches. The athletic classes are now practicing the running high jump and the running high kick.

Fred W. Taylor formerly a professor in the University of Nebraska and now director of concessions at the Pan-American exposition is in the city visiting with his brother Chas. I. Taylor and looking after the interests of the exposition with the legislature.

Men's wear

At this store you not only procure the newest things but procure them for a very little above the wholesale price, and at this particular time FOR A LITTLE BELOW THE WHOLESALE PRICE. Some examples:

Men's fine wool, fashioned seamless half hose, regular 15c goods, this week, a pair..... 10c

Men's all wool half hose in black, brown, and natural, about 50 dozen of these; former price 25c a pair, to close the balance of the stock..... 3 pairs for 50c

The balance of the 50c neckties, a goodly assortment of styles and colors, choice, each..... 37 1/2c

All the dollar neckties on sale now, each..... 50c

The underwear stock is being closed at figures that show no consideration for cost.

H. Kerpolsheimer Co.