JUNIOR PROMENADE.

The Junior Promenade of the Class of 1902 was held at the Lincoln hotel last Friday evening. It was an exceedingly pretty party with beautiful decorations. Scarlet and cream was draped from the pillars in the rotunda and the light in the parlors was softened by crimson shades. Ice was served in the ordinary from a table beautifully decorated with scarlet ribbon and crimson roses. Walt's orchestra furnished the music. The crowd was the largest in the history of University parties. The chaperons were Chancellor and Mrs. Andrews, Professor and Mrs. Barbour, Dr. and Mrs. Fling, Professor and Mrs. Fossler, Mrs. Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. Lacy.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Clements, Misses Johnson, Richards, Jackson, Tukey, Louise Tukey, Hays, Hargreaves, Emmons, Blanche Emmons, Robison, Macomber, Maud Macomber, Hunt, Marie Wiesner, Honeywell, Cobb, Daniels, Garten, Welch, Funke, Outcalt, Howland, Hamilton, Belle Hamilton, Woods, Griggs, Hammond, Anna Robinson, Heacock, Andrews, Houtz, Ratchiff, Dimmick, Post, Douglas, Miller, McHenry, Burruss, Bess Burruss, Stewart, Sedgwick, Auld, Bonnell, Cady, Loomis, Gould, Shaw, Reese, Watkins, Bradt, Jenkins, Thorpe, Hallie Post, Bennett, Mabel Bennett, Louise Hargreaves, Jessie Outcalt, Agnew, Marshall, Ashmun, Spinney, Mandrid, Woodford, Hazlett, Carson, Maynard, Cooley, Billings, Putnam, and Misses Douglas, Wilkins, Schwartz, Connell, Bartlett, Allen, of Omaha; Sullivan of Kansas City, Shedd of Ashland; Payne of Hastings; Kenny of Blair. Delta Delta Delta will entertain on February 14 at the home of Miss Auld.

Miss Carson entertained Kappa Alpha Theta at the Lincoln hotel last Thursday afternoon. All enjoyed the impromptu music, recitation and story telling.

Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Chi enjoyed a masquerade on last Tuesday evening given for them by Miss Eola Mae Auld. The costumes represented clowns, harlequins, Turks, country boys and girls, Indians, flower girls, golf girls, and Japanese and Egyptian girls. Red carnations, ferns, and smilax were used as decorations for the rooms. After the dancing a five course supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Auld and Misses Alice Auld and Florence Roth. The guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. James Manahan, Misses Poynter, Mamie Miller, Maude Hazlett, Mackin, Cady, Daisy Bonnell, Winnifred Bonnell, Edna Gund, Koehler, Lummary, Davenport, Bertha Du Tell, Leo Loomis, Fern Abbott, Florence Roberts, Ames, Frankish, Garnet Greer, Sydney Murphy; Messrs. MONDAY CHAPEL EXERCISES.

Musical exercises under the direction of Mrs. Raymond were rendered in chapel yesterday. The first number was "Romanza Marschner" rendered by Miss Ensign and Miss Elche on the cello and violin with Mrs. Raymond at the piano. Miss Reynolds then gave one of her ever popular songs which was greeted with applause.

Following the musical program, Dr. Fling spoke on the historical and political aspects of the reign of Queen Victoria. By way of introduction, he said that all his remarks which were not historically sound were to be considered as applying to political questions. Dr. Fling said the English government was "A Democracy in reality and a monarchy but in name." Continuing he said Victoria did not rule in England but came to the throne when the democracy was a party. In spite of her name, England and especially her colonies have been more democratic than the United States.

The effect of the death of the Queen upon the monarchy will depend upon the ruler. He must keep out of politics. The hereditary head of the English government represents the whole people while the president of the United States represents a party. The United States government started decentralized while the English government started centralized. The United States tends to centralization and England to decentralization.

STANFORD DEBATE.

The arrangements for a debate with Stanford have been progressing in a most satisfactory manner. The debate will be held in Lincoln if a low railroad rate can be secured.

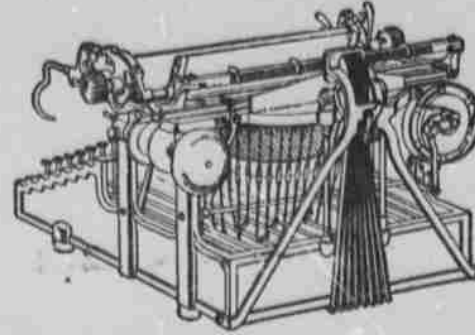

The bringing of three men from the Pacific coast to Nebraska is a large undertaking. The men from that institution must be willing to loose two or three weeks from their school work. It takes almost three days to make the journey. After such a tiresome trip, several days would be necessary to get into trim for a debate. The expenses will be between three and four hundred dollars, requiring an audience larger than has ever turned out to any former debate. However the officers of the debating association believe that a debate with such an institution would attract almost as much attention as the interstate oratorical contest two years ago. In that case, the contest would prove a good success in a financial way.

The selection of the debaters has caused considerable discussion. However the best will be chosen so as to insure the confidence of the audience in the local men.
