

The second basket ball team will play the Lincoln high school team in the gym on Thursday night.

A. J. Stratton, ex-'00, passed through Lincoln enroute for Eckley, Colo., last week. He spent Saturday and Sunday and Sunday at the Sigma Chi house.

Among the out-of-town Phi Psis who attended the banquet Saturday night were Ernest Wigen, '09, and A. S. Pearce, '00, of Omaha, and Bert Chustie of Omaha.

The legislature of Wisconsin has refused to pass what is known as the "fraternity bill." This bill would have given fraternities building sites or the same use.

Miss Henderson, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., has been called to her home in Toia, Kan., on account of the serious illness of her mother. She will probably return after the Easter vacation.

The college settlement board is attempting to secure a location for Graham Taylor house near 26th and N streets. Very little work has been done of late but when the new location is secured the regular classes and other work will be resumed.

The Y. W. C. A. has made arrangements for a series of weekly meetings to be led by instructors in the university and pastors in the city. Practical subjects will be taken up. The first meeting of the series will be held in the old chapel on Wednesday.

Ernest Seton-Thompson, the lecturer on natural history, will give a lecture April 6th in the Oliver theater, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Besides being a popular scientific lecturer, Mr. Seton-Thompson has contributed many stories on animals to the literature of the day.

At their last meeting the Union society elected the following officers: Miss Blanche Mickey, president; Mr. John Swenson, vice-president; Mr. Edwin Robertson, recording secretary; Mr. Jno. McGuire, corresponding secretary; Mr. J. A. Duff, treasurer; Mr. Thomas, critic, and Mr. Hawksby, ex-officio sergeant-at-arms.

The Palladian Literary society held their election of officers Tuesday, March 19, 1901. The result was as follows: President, O. A. Elliot; vice-president, Miss Phelps; treasurer, C. C. Telleson; secretary, C. A. Pearson; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Bessie Butler; critic, Edward Rowe; historian, Miss Zinger.

DEBATE POSTPONED.

At a meeting of the debating association held last week it was decided that the debate with Leland Stanford this year is not practicable, and that it should be postponed until next semester.

MAKE $25 IN FIVE MINUTES.

Here is a chance for the girls and boys of Lincoln. Make $25 in 5 minutes. You pay $1.60 for which you get Feltshans' elocution book and ten lessons in elocution. Then you enter the contest and take the prize in five minutes. Prof. Feltshans, who studied at Yale and Harvard, and graduated in the Philadelphia school will give the instruction.

See him at once at No. 231 So. 11th St., Room 7. You will find him there from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p. m.

SOCIETY

Miss Rose Foster entertained informally last Saturday evening at her home. Those present were: Misses Honeywell, Margaret Honeywell, Harper, Loomis, Messrs. Smith, Humphrey, Roberts, Martin, Hill, and Longley.

Phi Kappa Psi gave their sixth annual banquet at the chapter house last Saturday evening. The following is the toast list: "Phi Kappa Psi in Swaddling Clothes," J. J. Ledwith; "A Noonday Glare," W. R. Heartt; "In Our Keeping," Rev. W. H. Manss; "In the Upper Room," Senator F. M. Currie; "In Honor Preferred," Geo. Shedd; "In Memory Green," Harry G. Shedd; "In Auld Lang Syne," Hon. C. H. Gere; "In Bonds Close Knit," President W. G. Aylsworth, Cotner University.

The officers of the cadet battalion gave their first annual hop at Walsh hall last Friday evening. The committee on arrangements were Captain Tuekey, Commandant Brown, and Lieutenant Drain.

BASKET BALL THURSDAY.

A basket ball game has been arranged between the Lincoln High School and the Second University team. The lineup will probably be:

University	High School
Noyes	Forward Hagensick
Tobie	Forward Woods
Morill	Center Benedict
Raymond	Guard Bell or Stays
Hiltner	Guard Steele

Just preceding the basket ball game will be the exhibition drill by the Pershing Rifles. At the close of the drill the spell down for the gold medal will take place. The Ideal mandolin club will play several selections.

The price of admission will be 10 cents, the proceeds of the evening being turned into the Athletic association.

U-PI-DEE.
A new Co-ed has aligned in town,
U-pi-dee, U-pi-dee!
In an up-to-date tail, r-made gown U-pi-dee-die!
The boys are wild, and prex is too,
You never saw such a bella-belle.
CHORUS: - U-pi-dee-dee-lal-etc.
Her voice is clear as a starling lark's,
And her wit is like those trolley-car sparks!
When 'cross a muddy street she flits,
The boys all have conpiration fits!
The turn of her head turns all our, too,
There's always a smile to sit in her pew;
'Tis enough to make a jargon drunk,
To hear her sing old love-chic-lunk!

The above, and three other NEW verses to U-PI-DEE, and NEW WORDS, catchy, up-to-date, in many others of the popular OLD FAMILIAR TUNES; besides OLD FAVORITES; and also many NEW SONGS.
