THE DICKENS!

In these days of ultra-realism, it is not, perhaps, considered good literary taste to declare one's self an admirer of Dickens. However, there are many old-fashioned folk, or new fashioned folk with old fashioned ideas, to whom the great number of Dickens' characters are as familiar acquaintances. To such friends, whose most delightful memories weave themselves about the fireside reading of Dickens' inimitable characterizations, who have laughed with Pickwick and wept with Little Nell, the entertainment to be given Friday night, May 17th, will be most enjoyable. The scenes from Dickens will be presented by the Chapin Union of All Souls' church, Twelfth and H streets, at 8 o'clock.
