

Hanna's Drug Store, 14th and O Sts., Lincoln, Neb. The home of the famous "Newby Flip."

Local and Personal.

Dr. Wentz, Dentist.

Dr. Angle. Skin Diseases, 1215 O.

Dr. E. A. Carr, Surgeon, 141 So. 12.

For a neat shine go to Edward's. Cor. Eleventh and N sts.

Clair Funke visited in Omaha the early part of last week.

Let us give you a tip. Drink the latest Newby Flip, at Hanna's.

Miss Teresa Salle of Beatrice is visiting in Lincoln.

Have Weber Bros. fix your spring clothes. N. E. corner 11th and O sts.

Constance Sarbach spent last week in Lincoln and at the university.

Extra drills for the competitive began Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

Miss Auman is slowly recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

Frank Manchester has returned from Omaha. He has been ill for the past week.

About fifty girls from the gymnasium classes are playing tennis this spring.

Attend the Special Sale of the Evans-Malone Co.; now located at the "Famous."

Miss Bessy Butler of the senior class has been elected assistant principal of the Superior high school.

Charles Nesbet of Tekamah, Neb., has been visiting old friends at the university the past week.

Miss Eola Auld returned from Iowa last Wednesday, where she has been visiting for the past month.

There are now twenty-seven counties and sixteen village schools accredited to the school of agriculture.

Homer Hatfield, Hal Miner, Judge Davidson, and Pete Milans visited at the Sigma Alpha house this week.

A vocal recital was given at the university auditorium last Thursday evening by Mrs. Carrie Smith Hart.

The Y. W. C. A. will have a general secretary next year. If Miss Henderson does not return another choice will be made.

The tennis association will hold a tournament this week among its members. The winner will be awarded a medal.

The Palladian society rendered a German program Saturday night. The entire program, including a play, was in the language of the "vaterland."

The best place in the city for satisfactory barber work is Westerfield's, 117 N. 13th St. Give him a trial and you will be a regular customer.

A sampling machine has recently been put into the assay laboratory. It consists of an improved form of crusher and grinder to take the place of the old ones.

The regular Y. W. C. A. meeting will be held in the old chapel at the usual hour on Wednesday. Mrs. H. H. Wilson has been asked to give the address.

The operetta "Genevieve," in three acts, was presented last night by the girls of the Union society. It was given under the direction of Mrs. Raymond.

Five head of pure blooded Aberdeen Angus cattle were purchased for the farm at the combination sale in Omaha last week.

Mr. Clements, the photographer, has presented the Historical Society with groups of the photos of the members of the late House and Senate.

Mrs. Samuel Avery of Moscow, Idaho, has been visiting in the city the past week. She expects to spend the summer with her parents at Crete, Neb.

Dr. Ward delivered an illustrated lecture on "The Life History of the Malarial Parasite" before the Nebraska State Medical Society last Tuesday.

H. T. Clarke of Omaha, one of the pioneers of Nebraska, and an active member of the Historical Society, was a caller at the society rooms last Friday.

Vocal selections were rendered in chapel Monday by a quartet composed of Miss Shute, Miss Reynolds, Mr. Kettering, and Mr. Martin. Mr. Kettering also sang a solo.

Mr. C. A. Fisher has been conducting various tests on the building and paving brick of Nebraska and neighboring states and has just finished a paper upon the subject.

Mr. G. C. Watson, who has been doing major work in geology for his Master's degree, has received a fellowship at Cornell university.

Ex-Chancellor MacLean, during the past few days, has notified the principal that the Lincoln academy has been put upon the list of schools accredited to the State University of Iowa.

For Graduates—The most complete lines of books and other appropriate graduating favors we've ever shown are here now. Book and Stationery Dept., H. Herpolsheimer Co.

The girls' basket ball team goes to Omaha next Friday to play the Y. W. C. A. team there. The occasion is a gymnasium exhibition, and the game will be the main feature of the program.

At a special meeting last week the athletic board made provisions for providing the track team with new suits. It is hoped that in the future more men will take up this kind of work.

The election of student members of the athletic board, held last Wednesday, resulted in the choice of J. D. Ringer, S. V. Corleyou, D. E. Thomas, Bert Doane, and J. P. Koehler. The election called out the largest number of votes on record, 468 being cast. This will add $117 to the athletic fund. The interest taken by the young ladies was much greater than at any previous election and accounts to a great extent for the large vote.

The girls of the Delian Literary society gave a special program last Saturday evening. The numbers included readings, vocal and instrumental music, a story and the entertainment was closed with a pantomime.

ALLEGRETTI & LOWNEY

... Chocolates

At Rector's Pharmacy

N.W. Cor. 12th and N Sts.

Lincoln, Neb.