CREIGHTON MEDICAL COLLEGE
Corner Fourteenth and Davenport Streets, Omaha.

The course in this school consists of four terms of eight months each. The first two years are devoted chiefly to laboratory and class room work; the last two to the more practical part of medicine, consisting almost entirely of clinics and clinical lectures. For catalogue and further information write to D. C. BRYANT, Sec., McCague Building, Omaha, Neb.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY SALE.

Just a little over a year ago we became a co-operative stock company, and the success of the change has been so gratifying in every respect we feel justified in celebrating in every respect the anniversary of its advent; celebrating it in a substantial fashion, in a way that will interest you and make it worth your while to participate, we have inaugurated our

to begin on Monday Morning, June 3.

This is more than an ordinary special sale. It's the initial one of its kind and we want it to make a lasting impression, that the Anniversary sales to come may enjoy the fruits of this one's reputation. See special circular—it tells all about it.

The thirteenth Annual Course of Lectures will commence on the 19th day of September, 1900, and will continue eight and one-half months. The course is graded and covers a period of four years. Medical Hall, the Laboratory of Medical Science, the Laboratory of Medical Chemistry, and the Laboratory of Anatomy are situated upon the Campus. The clinical opportunities afforded by the hospitals and dispensaries of Minneapolis and St. Paul are at the command of the College. For outdoor clinical service a new clinical building has been built in a central location.
